Hollywood Genres Formulas Filmmaking And The Studio System:

Hollywood Genres: Formulas, Filmmaking, and The Studio System Thomas Schatz, 1981-02 The central thesis of this book is that a genre approach provides the most effective means for understanding analyzing and appreciating the Hollywood cinema Taking into account not only the formal and aesthetic aspects of feature filmmaking but various other cultural aspects as well the genre approach treats movie production as a dynamic process of exchange between the film industry and its audience This process embodied by the Hollywood studio system has been sustained primarily through genres those popular narrative formulas like the Western musical and gangster film which have dominated the screen arts throughout this century Hollywood Genres Thomas Schatz, 1981 Imitations of Life Marcia Landy, 1991 On melodrama The 1931-1940: American Film Institute Catalog of Motion Pictures Produced in the United States American Film Institute, 1993 The entire field of film historians awaits the AFI volumes with eagerness Eileen Bowser Museum of Modern Art Film Department Comments on previous volumes The source of last resort for finding socially valuable films that received such scant attention that they seem lost until discovered in the AFI Catalog Thomas Cripps Endlessly absorbing as an excursion into cultural history and national memory Arthur Schlesinger Jr Teenagers And Teenpics Thomas Doherty, Thomas Patrick Doherty, 2010-06-04 The classic book on teenagers and their films thoroughly revised and expanded

AS Media Studies John Price, 2003 AS Media Studies has been specifically written to cover the requirements at AS level for each awarding body It examines a comprehensive range of topics set by AQA and OCR and is organised using the WJEC format of Analysis of Media Forms Representation and Reception and Making Media Texts Linking theory to practice this book has been designed to help students develop practical production skills while giving a thorough and accessible introduction to the key principles issues and debates of media studies Historical Film Jonathan Stubbs, 2013-03-28 Although precise definitions have not been agreed on historical cinema tends to cut across existing genre categories and establishes an intimidatingly large group of films In recent years a lively body of work has developed around historical cinema much of it proposing valuable new ways to consider the relationship between cinematic and historical representation However only a small proportion of this writing has paid attention to the issue of genre In order to counter this omission this book combines a critical analysis of the Hollywood historical film with an examination of its generic dimensions and a history of its development since the silent period Historical Film A Critical Introduction is concerned not simply with the formal properties of the films at hand but also the ways in which they have been promoted interpreted and discussed in relation to their engagement with the past Generation Multiplex Timothy Shary, 2014-04-01 Generation Multiplex 2002 was the first comprehensive study of the representation of teenagers in American cinema since David Considine's Cinema of Adolescence in 1985 This updated and expanded edition reaffirms the idea that films about youth constitute a legitimate genre worthy of study on its own terms Identifying four distinct subgenres school delinquency horror and romance Timothy

Shary explores hundreds of representative films while offering in depth discussion of movies that constitute key moments in the genre including Fast Times at Ridgemont High A Nightmare on Elm Street The Breakfast Club Say Anything Boyz N the Hood Scream American Pie Napoleon Dynamite Superbad The Twilight Saga and The Hunger Games Analyzing developments in teen films since 2002 Shary covers such topics as the increasing availability of movies on demand which has given teens greater access to both popular and lesser seen films the recent dominance of supernatural and fantasy films as a category within the genre and how the ongoing commodification of teen images in media affects real life issues such as school bullying athletic development sexual identity and teenage pregnancy Film Genre 2000 Wheeler W.
