Hollywood's War with Poland, 1939-1945 M.B.B. Biskupski, 2010-01-08 This passionate carefully researched richly detailed well written study reveals the political motives behind WWII Hollywood s portrayal of Poles Choice During World War II Hollywood studios supported the war effort by making patriotic movies designed to raise the nation s morale Often the characterizations were as black and white as the movies themselves Americans and their allies were heroes while everyone else was a villain The peoples of Norway France Czechoslovakia and England were all good because they had been invaded or victimized by Nazi Germany Yet Poland the first country to be invaded by the Third Reich was repeatedly represented in a negative light In this prize winning study Polish historian M B B Biskupski explores why Biskupski presents a close critical study of prewar and wartime films such as To Be or Not to Be In Our Time and None Shall Escape Through memoirs letters diaries and memoranda written by screenwriters directors studio heads and actors Biskupski examines how the political climate and especially pro Soviet sentiment influenced Hollywood films of the time Winner of the Oscar Halecki Prize A Choice Outstanding Academic Title Hollywood's America Steven Mintz, Randy W. narrative history of Hollywood's classical age that brings the insights of recent scholarship to students and general readers. From its origin during the First World War to the beginning of its decline in the 1950s, Cripps writes, Hollywood operated as did other American industries: movies were created by a rational production system regulated by both government and privately organized interests and subject to the whims of a fickle marketplace. Yet these films did offer consumers something unique: in darkened movie palaces across the country, audiences projected themselves, their hopes and ideas onto silver screens, profoundly mediating their reception of Hollywood's flickering images. Beginning with the turn of the century, moving picture pioneer Thomas Edison, Cripps traces the invention of Hollywood and the development of the studio system. He explores the movie-going experience, the struggle for social control over the movies through censorship, the impact of sound on the style and content of films, alternatives to Hollywood's oligopoly including race films and documentaries, the paradoxical predictability and subversive creativity of genre pictures, and Hollywood's self-proclaimed shining moment during the Second World War. Cripps concludes with a discussion of the collapse of the studio system after the war, due in equal parts to suburbanization, the emergence of television, and government anti-trust action.

The Encyclopedia of Hollywood Film Actors Barry Monush, 2003-04-01 For decades, Screen World has been the film professional's as well as the film buff's favorite and indispensable annual screen resource, full of all the necessary statistics and facts. Now Screen World editor Barry Monush has compiled another comprehensive work for every film lover's library. In the first of two volumes, this book chronicles the careers of every significant film actor from the earliest silent screen stars, Chaplin, Pickford, Fairbanks, to the mid-1960s, when the old studio and star systems came crashing down. Each listing includes a brief biography, photos from the famed Screen World archives, with many rare shots, vital statistics, a comprehensive filmography, and an informed, entertaining assessment of each actor's contributions, good or bad. In addition to every major player, Monush includes the legions of unjustly neglected troupers of yesteryear. The result is a rarity: an invaluable reference tool that is as much fun to read as a scandal sheet. It pulsates with all the scandal, glamour, oddity, and glory that was the lifeblood of its subjects. Contains over 1,000 photos.

Hollywood Songsters: Garland to O'Connor James Robert Parish, Michael R. Pitts, 2003 For fans of musicals, singing Hollywood history and the lives of stars, no other work equals this new three-volume reference to the on and off-camera careers of more than 100 performers who made major contributions to the American screen musical. From June Allyson to Mae West, Hollywood Songsters provides a detailed narrative, ranging from 2,000 to 5,000 words each, of the lives and careers of stars forever etched in our memories. Each entry includes a filmography, discography of both albums and CDs, Broadway appearances, radio work, television appearances, and series, and a full-page photo of the subject. This is the ideal reference work for everyone, one from the mildly curious to the devoted fan.

The First Hollywood Musicals Edwin M. Bradley, 2004-08-25 As Hollywood entered the sound era, it was rightly determined that the same public, fascinated by the novelty of the talkie, would be dazzled by the spectacle of a song and dance film. In 1929 and 1930, film musicals became the industry's most lucrative genre until the greedy studios almost killed the genre by glutting the market with too many films that looked and sounded like clones of each other. From the classy movies such as Sunnyside Up and Hallelujah to failures such as The Lottery Bride and Howdy Broadway, this filmography details 171 early Hollywood musicals. Arranged by subgenre, backstagers, operettas, college films, and stage-derived musical comedies, the entries include studio release date, cast, and credits, running time, a complete song list, any recordings spawned by the film, Academy Award nominations and winners, and availability on video or laserdisc. These data are followed by a plot synopsis including analysis of the film's place in the genre's history. Includes over 90 photographs. Col. William N. Selig, the Man Who Invented Hollywood Andrew A.

Erish, 2012-03-01 All histories of Hollywood are wrong. Why? Two words: Colonel Selig. This early pioneer laid the foundation for the movie industry that we know today. Active from 1896 to 1938, William N. Selig was responsible for an amazing series of firsts, including the first two-reel narrative film and the first two-hour narrative feature made in America, the first American movie serial with cliffhanger endings, the first westerns filmed in the West with real cowboys and Indians, the creation of the jungle adventure genre, the first horror film in America, the first successful American newsreel made in partnership with William Randolph Hearst, and the first permanent film studio in Los Angeles. Selig was also among the first to cultivate extensive international exhibition of American films, which created a worldwide audience and contributed to American domination of the medium. In this book, Andrew Erish delves into the virtually untouched Selig archive at the Academy of Motion Picture Arts and Sciences Library to tell the fascinating story of this unjustly forgotten film pioneer. He traces Selig's career from his early work as a traveling magician in the Midwest to his founding of the first movie studio in Los Angeles in 1909 to his landmark series of innovations that still influence the film industry. As Erish recounts the many accomplishments of the man who first recognized that Southern California is the perfect place for moviemaking, he convincingly demonstrates that while others have been credited with inventing Hollywood, Colonel Selig is actually the one who most deserves that honor. Hollywood Winners & Losers A to Z Mark Thiese, 2008-01-01 The ultimate film reference and trivia book, Hollywood Winners and Losers features almost 900 separate entries for every actor and actress ever to be nominated for an Academy Award. From icons to would-be superstars and the forgotten faces that had only a moment in the sun, every personality is listed here along with their best-known films, real names, bios, and little-known facts. More than just a reference guide or bet-settler, this is a perennial coffee-table read, perfect for film fans of all ages. It simply cannot be beat. The First King of Hollywood Tracey Goessel, 2015-10-01 Theatre Library Association's Wall Award Finalist. Silent film superstar Douglas Fairbanks was an absolute charmer. Irrepressibly vivacious, he spent his life leaping over and into things, from his early Broadway successes to his marriage to the great screen actress Mary Pickford to the way he made Hollywood his very own town. The inventor of the swashbuckler, he wasn't only an actor; he all but directed and produced his movies and, in founding United Artists with Pickford, Charlie Chaplin, and D.W. Griffith, he challenged the studio system. But listing his accomplishments is one thing and telling his story another Tracey Goessel has made the latter her life's work and with exclusive access to Fairbanks's love letters to Pickford she brilliantly illuminates how Fairbanks conquered not just the entertainment world but the heart of perhaps the most famous woman in the world at the time When Mary Pickford died she was an alcoholic self-imprisoned in her mansion nearly alone and largely forgotten But she left behind a small box in it worn and refolded were her letters from Douglas Fairbanks Pickford and Fairbanks had ruled Hollywood as its first king and queen for a glorious decade But the letters began long before when they were both married to others when revealing the affair would have caused a great scandal Now these letters form the centerpiece of the first truly definitive biography of Hollywood's first king the man who did his own stunts and built his own studio and formed a company that allowed artists to distribute their own works outside the studio system But Goessel's research uncovered more that Fairbanks's first film appearance was two years earlier than had been assumed that his stories of how he got into theater and then into films were fabricated that the Pickford Fairbanks Studios had a specially constructed underground trench so that Fairbanks could jog in the nude that Fairbanks himself insisted racist references be removed from his films intertitles and the true cause of Fairbanks's death Fairbanks was the top male star of his generation the maker of some of the greatest films of his era The Thief of Bagdad Robin Hood The Mark of Zorro He was fun witty engaging creative athletic and a force to be reckoned with He shaped our idea of the Hollywood hero and Hollywood has never been the same since His story like his movies is full of passion bravado romance and desire Here at last is his definitive biography based on extensive and brand new research into every aspect of his career and written with fine understanding wit and verve

The First Hollywood Sound Shorts, 1926-1931 Edwin M. Bradley, 2015-06-14 This study of early sound shorts begins with an explanation of the development of sound motion pictures in Hollywood by such influential companies as Warner Bros and Fox with an emphasis on short subjects leading up to the first few months when all of the major studios were capable of producing them The next chapters discuss the impact on other mass entertainments the development of audible news reels and other non-fiction shorts as well as the origins of animated sound subjects A comprehensive list of pre 1932 American made shorts completes the volume

Hollywood and Hitler, 1933-1939 Thomas Doherty, 2013-04-02 Between 1933 and 1939 representations of the Nazis and the full meaning of Nazism came slowly to Hollywood growing more ominous and distinct only as the decade wore on Recapturing what ordinary Americans saw on the screen during the emerging Nazi threat Thomas Doherty reclaims forgotten films such as Hitler's Reign of Terror 1934 a pioneering anti-Nazi docudrama by Cornelius Vanderbilt Jr I Was a Captive of Nazi Germany 1936 a sensational true tale of a Hollywood girl in Naziland and Professor Mamlock 1938 an anti-Nazi film made by German refugees living in the Soviet Union Doherty also recounts how the disproportionately Jewish backgrounds of the executives of the studios and the workers on the payroll shaded reactions to what was never simply a business decision As Europe hurtled toward war a proxy battle waged in Hollywood over how to conduct business with the Nazis how to cover Hitler and his victims in the newsreels and whether to address or ignore Nazism in Hollywood feature films Should Hollywood lie low or stand tall and sound the alarm Doherty's history features a cast of charismatic personalities Carl Laemmle the German Jewish founder of Universal Pictures whose production of All Quiet on the Western Front 1930 enraged the nascent Nazi movement Georg Gyssling the Nazi consul in Los Angeles who read the Hollywood trade press as avidly as any studio mogul Vittorio Mussolini son of the fascist dictator and aspiring motion picture impresario Leni Riefenstahl the Valkyrie goddess of the Third Reich who came to America to peddle distribution rights for Olympia 1938 screenwriters Donald Ogden Stewart and Dorothy Parker founders of the Hollywood Anti Nazi League and Harry and Jack Warner of Warner Bros who yoked anti Nazism to patriotic Americanism and finally broke the embargo against anti Nazi cinema with Confessions of a Nazi Spy 1939

Hollywood Movie Musicals John Howard Reid, 2006-04 When most people think of movie musicals films like Singin' in the Rain Sound of Music The Red Shoes On the Town White Christmas Ziegfeld Follies Top Hat Funny Face and Funny Girl immediately come to mind Such films are included in this book as are many of the works of major stars including Fred Astaire Bing Crosby Gene Kelly Betty Grable Shirley Temple Julie Andrews Elvis Presley Lucille Ball Alice Faye Jeanette MacDonald Maurice Chevalier Nelson Eddy Doris Day Dick Powell Betty Hutton Eleanor Powell and Al Jolson But attention is also drawn to less lavishly produced but very pleasant musical offerings from both major and minor studios including perhaps the finest B musical ever made In all 125 pictures are reviewed and detailed with full cast and technical credits plus songs and musical numbers awards release dates and other essential background information world famous LA landmarks vestiges of Hollywood's checkered past can still be found all over the city With generations of Tinseltown's luminaries living and working under the sunny guise of paradisaal prosperity their real stories reveal the sordid underbelly lurking directly beneath the surface A dangerous collusion between the studios the press the mob and the LAPD forms an impenetrable behind the scenes network of corruption power and control where the truth is always up for sale A network in which the most glamorous and well known figures are merely players in this elaborate charade It's magical and gritty it's ugly and dirty it's the land of dreams it's Hollywood
