How To Make Decisions That Stay Made:

Resources in Education, 1990 Disrupting the Teacher Opportunity Gap Jon Saphier, 2023-07-12 For over 70 years our nation's public schools have engaged in a multitude of reform efforts at all levels of the educational enterprise Without question we have encountered bright spot examples of educators who have elevated the quality of their teaching and learning and even helping to narrow achievement gaps And without question our approach has been for the most part scattershot The painful truth is that there is no single silver bullet solution Excellent teaching is a highly complex endeavor and no single program course of study or survival guide will adequately prepare our educators to meet the challenge With that said as Ron Edmonds proclaimed more than 40 years ago We can whenever and wherever we choose successfully teach all children whose schooling is of interest to us We already know more than we need to do that So if the knowledge base for high impact teaching is there why has it been so difficult to implement it at scale c Provided by publisher Jsl Vol 6-N5

JOURNAL OF SCHOOL LEADERSHIP, 1996-09-01 The Journal of School Leadership is broadening the conversation about schools and leadership and is currently accepting manuscripts We welcome manuscripts based on cutting edge research from a wide variety of theoretical perspectives and methodological orientations The editorial team is particularly interested in working with international authors authors from traditionally marginalized populations and in work that is relevant to practitioners around the world Growing numbers of educators and professors look to the six bimonthly issues to deal with problems directly related to contemporary school leadership practice teach courses on school leadership and policy use as a quality reference in writing articles about school leadership and improvement The Adaptive School Robert J. Garmston, Bruce M. Wellman, 2013-05-28 Expanded and updated this edition of one of the most popular resources for school change now comes with ancillary materials containing 150 facilitation strategies Placing inquiry at the center of effective change The Adaptive School gives readers the tools they need to bring about genuine school improvement and to learn to use and incorporate them into practice The book also includes a useful problem locator that helps define problems and identify strategies to deal with them New to this edition the ancillary materials the strategies the problem locator the expanded material on facilitation and expanded self teaching tools Decision Making by the Book Haddon Robinson, 2010-10-01 It is said that decisions are made in the details And yet we make hundreds even thousands of decisions daily So how do Christians process all those details and come up with answers that please God In Decision Making by the Book author lecturer and radio personality Haddon W Robinson takes his usual clear eyed not a word wasted approach to help you make decisions according to biblical principles every time Leadership through Collaboration Ann S. Ferren, Wilbur W. Stanton, 2004-02-28 This book is organized around 11 topics including the skills and personal qualities needed to provide effective academic leadership strengthening the infrastructure for academic affairs through strategic planning facilities planning and technology integration the importance of developing new resources and linking them to academic priorities academic entrepreneurship assessing academic quality and improving programs and services continuous improvement the central importance of investing in the faculty and improving academic decisions The chief academic officer must be the voice for the campus's academic purposes and a source of energy in supporting the activities of others Collaboration with colleagues across the institution is key to Ferren and Stanton's approach Their experiences in administrative roles ranging from department chair to provost have provided them with the ability to conduct and utilize many studies including budget adequacy modeling and salary equity studies These are issues for which the authors have been responsible for implementation and decision making allowing them to understand that collaborative processes and partnerships such as chairs with deans deans with vice presidents faculty with administrators or the CAO with members of the president's cabinet are as important as informed decision making Because CAOs are less likely to read what business officers and vice presidents for administration read this book attempts to integrate differing institutional perspectives and explain processes and criteria CAOs can tailor their decisions to institution circumstances and solve problems with greater insight

Regent Park Redux Laura Johnson, Robert Johnson, 2017-05-12 Regent Park Redux evaluates one of the biggest experiments in public housing redevelopment from the tenant perspective Built in the 1940s Toronto's Regent Park has experienced common large scale public housing problems. Instead of simply tearing down old buildings and scattering inhabitants, the city's housing authority came up with a plan for radical transformation. In partnership with a private developer, the Toronto Community Housing Corporation organized a twenty year billion dollar makeover. The reconstituted neighbourhood, one of the most diverse in the world, will offer a new mix of amenities and social services intended to reknit the urban fabric. Regent Park Redux, based on a ten year study of 52 households as they moved through stages of displacement and resettlement, examines the dreams and hopes residents have for their community and their future. Urban planners and designers across the world, in cities facing some of the same challenges as Toronto, will want to pay attention to this story.

In the Image of God Shirley Mayhood, 2022-05-02 We were created in the image of our Creator. It was a perfect and loving relationship, but when Adam and Eve chose evil over that relationship with their Creator, that image of God we were created with was lost to us. In our world today, many Christians are more attuned to the world than to God's Word. Many seem to have the attitude that because they are in the world, they must be like the world. But this world is not anything like God, and Christians need to come to the certain knowledge that they are in the world but not of the world. We as God's kids are not to live in the image of a lost world careening into a dark and bottomless pit of pure evil. Jesus Christ became our atoning sacrifice so that you and I can return to that original image of God that we were created to be. This ought to be our goal in life: to be like God, to do our very best to live in the image of God. This book is a daily devotional of biblical attitudes, characteristics of Jesus Christ, the deep meaning and example of God's amazing precepts and loving actions. God gave us a book to show us His right and loving law, but when Jesus came, He condensed all of the Father's law into just two. Jesus said to him, "You shall love the Lord your God with all your heart, with all your soul, and with all your mind. This is the first and great commandment. And the second is like it: You shall love your neighbor as yourself." On these two commandments hang all the Law and the Prophets. Matthew 22:37-40. It is my sincere hope that this book of devotions will help all who read it to know God better, to love Him more, and to understand what the true image of God means. 451
