How to Win Friends and Influence Others Lola Bridges, 1901 We learned in school that human beings are social creatures just as ants or bees are We cannot live in solitude We have to live in company of other people People who live in desolation are considered to be aberrant and the world does not take to them kindly At the same time people who live in the company of others do not always know how they can make the most of it Human beings are often described as social creatures We are almost never found alone and even when we are physically alone we are constantly thinking about other people in our lives When was the last time you thought of a plan that did not include anyone else When was the last time you saw a dream in which there were no other people but you It does not happen that way with us Everything that we do consciously or otherwise needs to have other people in it That is the way nature has ordained us to be From the point that we are born till our last breath we want people to be around us Maybe the only time in our lives when we do not want people to be with us is when we are sleeping but even that is not entirely true is it Even when we sleep alone we want other people to sleep in the same room as us How many people should I tell you about who would not get a wink of sleep at night if they had to sleep alone in a room But what I feel most amazing about this socialness of our behavior is that we can induce habits in other people The way we live the social part of our living influences other people whether we want that to happen or not It actually brings about a change in their lives however small that might be Academic Writing Ilona Leki,1998-07-13 This book provides instruction on the process writers go through to produce texts It teaches attention to form format and accuracy The central goals of the Student s Book are to teach the process that writers go through to produce texts and to provide instructions on how to meet the demands of the academy by attention to form and accuracy One half of the book is devoted to leading the student through the process of writing from observation and experience About a quarter of the book focuses on helping the student solve the writing problems typical of university level course work The remaining part of the book contains an anthology of readings that correspond to the assignments used in the earlier portions of the text Through an emphasis on the academic applications of writing and on exploring processes and strategies this text helps students produce prepare and polish their writing
