Tornambe, MD, FAC,2011-04-01 Their gorgeous faces stare out at us from the glossy pages of magazines or appear larger than life on movie screens With role models such as these it s easy to find yourself wanting During his 25 year career as a plastic surgeon Dr Robert M Tornambe has worked with thousands of women and spent countless hours contemplating the nature of beauty particularly in situations where he was asked to perform a procedure he believed would diminish his patient's natural good looks. In an attempt to provide as many options as possible, he focused on helping women understand that while surgery has its place, it isn't the only roadmap to looking and feeling great. This focus led Dr. Tornambe to devise The Beauty Quotient Formula, a much more useful way to look at beauty. While physical traits do play a role in beauty, Dr. Tornambe shows us that what makes any woman truly attractive is based largely on confidence, charisma, personality, and a solid beauty routine, and that more often than not, going under the knife isn't necessary. The Beauty Quotient Formula begins with a detailed quiz that helps you identify your strengths and weaknesses so you can work to enhance your intrinsic good qualities. Your answers to the quiz will point you toward specific parts of Dr. Tornambe's unique beauty regimen, covering everything from firming your body to improving your skin to dealing with social anxiety to perfecting your unique style. The Beauty Quotient Formula will help you transform yourself with a no-fail method for looking and feeling more beautiful.

MizFit: How to Build Muscle and Lose Weight Without Losing Your Mind Carla Birnberg, 2012-12-09. My story about weight loss and finding my healthy living path is an uncomplicated one. I shed 35 pounds nineteen years ago and never looked back. Never regained. Never got off track. Maintained even when Master's degree, marriage, and motherhood conspired to derail me. The more challenging piece to explain is the question I'm most frequently asked: how I've stayed on track and maintained my weight loss for so long. I know the statistic is hotly debated, but somewhere around 90% of all weight loss is regained within five years. The answer I give for the reason I've stayed in the tiny ten percent: I realized it was what's on the inside that mattered. I gained the majority of my weight in college. I drank lots of soda and various other things, ate many late-night junk food meals with friends, and basically enjoyed my college experience. If you enjoyed you, you mean I packed on pounds quickfast and in a hurry, which I do. Unlike many of my peers, I was pretty okay with my weight gain. The morning I discovered my pants no longer buttoned, I did not commence dieting and self-flagellation. Nope. I bloused a sweatshirt over the top of my jeans and proceeded along my soda-drinking way. That said, when graduation loomed and the time came to don interview suits, I was faced with the reality that none of them zipped. Not only could I not employ my fluffing-the-sweatshirt-trick-with-a-skirt-suit, but I'd grown while my bank account had not. Lacking the funds for new clothes, I commenced an exercise and revised eating routine, which after many months resulted in a fitter me. I discovered weight training. I rediscovered my old eating habits. I paid close attention to what I put inside my body. I thought I had it all figured out. I did not. I consumed lots of processed white flour, hello bagels, ate virtually no fat, ate the well-beloved salmon, and was a lean, mean, and exhausted shell of my former self. When I finally grew tired of being tired, I stepped back and recorded precisely how I felt after eating various foods. Breads and pastas: I was still famished, usually swollen, and broken out in a rash. In addition, I was definitely, clearly, lethargic. Fruits, vegetables, complex carbs, and lean proteins: I was a force to be reckoned with. I possessed boundless energy, my swelling rashes disappeared, and after eating, I was satiated. While all of this reads as a no brainer it transpired long before others were eating gluten free and far before I realized when I feel healthier on the inside everything else including my outsides follows suit Weight loss maintaining isn't even a concept I consider these days My focus and the one that has facilitated my maintenance for close to two decades is on fueling my insides and exercising in a way that allows me to live my life as energetically and healthfully and rash free as possible I approach healthy living as I do all areas of my life I read I research I experience I seek gurus I talk to my peers Yet I remember at the end of it all I am the expert of my own body We may all have the same healthy living goal longer healthier lives but it's ok for each of us to construct our own path to get there Are you ready It's time to start creating yours Carla Birnberg DIY Wardrobe Makeovers Suzannah Hamlin Stanley, 2015-05-01 Affordable stylish and trendy refashions Unlock your closet's potential with simple stylish wardrobe refashions you can sew at home DIY style blogger Suzannah Hamlin Stanley provides her unique blend of basic alterations and step by step restyling tutorials to give you a wardrobe you'll truly love Express your style and save money by embellishing and combining garments into newfound faves No sloppy shortcuts here learn how to alter sweaters pants and everything in your wardrobe for a more flattering fit Guidance on how to take it in take it up let it down or let it out Sew easy alterations for a perfect fit with step by step tutorials Spend less look better Create upcycled eco conscious affordable fashions The Zapp Method of Couture Sewing Anna Zapp, 2004-02-23 Sew Clothes that Fit Perfectly Pants jackets vests shirts No matter what garments you want to sew or what pattern you buy Anna Zapp will show you how to get a perfect fit Learn fitting and sewing tricks that will save time and effort and help you sew clothes that rival the most expensive couture lines The Beauty Quotient Formula (Large Print 16pt) Robert M.
