How To Read T F Torrance:

How To Read T. F. Torrance Elmer M. Colyer, 2007-12-01 Thomas F Torrance is regarded as one of the foremost Reformed theologians of the second half of the twentieth century He taught for thirty years at New College University of Edinburgh Scotland until his retirement in 1979 He has written extensively contributing more than twenty major works of theology and hundreds of articles in a variety of languages In this book Elmer Colyer provides access to Torrance's voluminous writings Demonstrating the profoundly trinitarian and evangelical spirit of Torrance's theology Colyer also captures his concern to formulate a renewed theological method in the tradition of Athanasius Colyer helps us see how in Torrance's view and practice a truly scientific approach must be godly in order to be accurate and faithful Thomas F. Torrance's Theology of the Ascension Stavan Narendran John, 2025-05-29 The ascension is a crucial doctrine integrally related to the incarnation When it is underemphasized it results in an impoverishment of our theology of Christ the church human beings and eschatology T F Torrance's theology offers a compelling vision and holistic doctrine of the ascension that notwithstanding its flaws deserves a careful and detailed examination Torrance develops a holistic account of the ascension by considering the ontology spatiality and present ministry of the ascended Jesus What results is a theological construction that affirms the ascended body of Christ and understands the Lord to be currently serving as our human representative in a ministry of priestly intercession prophetic declaration and ascended kingship Torrance is able to do this without succumbing to literalism space travel demythologization metaphorical reading or Pelagianism human effort based sanctification and glorification This book interprets and then develops Torrance's theology of the ascension in critical dialogue with contemporary theological interlocutors T. F. Torrance's Reconstruction of Natural Theology Alexander J. D. Irving, 2019-07-15 T F Torrance's proposal for natural theology constitutes one of the most creative and provocative elements in his work By re-envisioning natural theology as the cognitive structure of theology determined by God's self-revelation in Jesus Christ and not as the task of philosophically reflecting on the nature or existence of God aside from religious presuppositions Torrance moves through and beyond Barth's resistance to natural theology This book establishes Torrance's unique reconstruction of natural theology within its proper intellectual context providing a fresh analysis of this important methodological innovation as it emerges from Torrance's realist epistemology As Irving demonstrates in Torrance's distinctive conception of science he operated with an approach to cognition that functions via a realist synthesis of experience and understanding and in Torrance's theological science this synthesis of experience and understanding is the synthesis of revealed theology and natural theology The author argues that this reconstruction of natural theology expresses a dramatic vision for human agency within theological cognition adding the necessity of the human knowing subject to the priority of the divine revealer Finally this book marries Torrance's accomplishments in reconstructing natural theology to his Christocentric theological method in which God is both revealed and known in the person of Jesus Christ fully God and fully human     The Nature of Doctrine in T.F. Torrance's Theology Elmer M. Colyer, 2001-11-09 Thomas F Torrance is considered by many to be the most important English speaking theologian of the last fifty years Torrance has written extensively over six hundred items on nearly every theme in theology especially theological method and the nature of theology Yet little secondary literature about his theology has been published to date The significance of this book by Elmer M Colyer is that it discusses a theme the nature of doctrine that takes readers into the heart of Torrance s critical realist epistemology theological method and understanding of the nature and purpose of theology Colyer also contributes significantly to the ongoing conversation concerning the nature of doctrine since Torrance s understanding of doctrine moves considerably beyond the work of George Lindbeck The Nature of Doctrine and Alister McGrath The Genesis of Doctrine in this area     T. F. Torrance's Christological Anthropology Christopher G. Woznicki, 2022-06-01 This book demonstrates the promise of Christology for developing Scottish theologian T F Torrance s theological anthropology T F Torrance s Christological Anthropology Discerning Humanity in Christ engages with several key themes in Torrance s theological anthropology and considers how each one of these topics anthropological method the metaphysics of human nature the imago Dei personhood vocation human destiny can be further developed in light of Christ Christopher Woznicki argues that Christology not only holds promise for the task of developing Torrance s insights on humanity but also for developing a constructive account of humanity The volume is valuable reading for scholars of T F Torrance s theology and for those who are interested in the role of Christology in theological anthropology     Trinitarian Doxology Kevin J. Navarro, 2023-01-26 Liturgical theology tends towards the anthropocentric focussing primarily on the behaviour of the worshippers The theology of Thomas F and James B Torrance however provides an alternative approach a Trinitarian and Christocentric study of liturgy which decentralises the worshippers position in liturgy and focusses instead on Christ the One who is worshipped In Trinitarian Doxology Kevin J Navarro examines the Torrances theology explicating and illuminating their work whilst simultaneously providing critical analysis which provides a lens for deeper understanding     The God Who Believes Christian D. Kettler, 2005-09-01 How does one deal with doubt Are faith and doubt irreconcilable Does one s understanding of God affect the answers to these questions Christian Kettler investigates these questions from a christological perspective drawing implications from the Scottish theologian T F Torrance and his doctrine of the vicarious humanity of Christ If we take the humanity of Christ seriously should we not speak of the faith of Jesus as a vicarious faith believing for us and in our place when it is difficult if not impossible to believe How Christians know God Jesus Knows God for Us and in Our Place who God is Who is the God Whom Jesus Knows and how to believe in God in a world of suffering and evil Providence Evil Suffering and the God Who Believes receive new insight in light of this christological exploration Wendell Berry s poignant novel of a humble country barber Jayber Crow adds an incarnational context to a discussion with important pastoral and existential dimensions In the vicarious faith of Christ we are not left as James Torrance cautions us to be thrown back upon ourselves but called to participate by the Spirit in the faith of Jesus      Science and the Doctrine of Creation Geoffrey H. Fulkerson, Joel Thomas Chopp, 2021-03-02 Exploring the theological reception of developments of modern science this collection of studies from the Henry Center's Creation Project examines how influential modern theologians from the turn of the nineteenth century through the present have engaged the scientific developments of their times in light of the doctrine of creation      The God Who Loves and Is Loved Christian D. Kettler, 2019-11-12 Can there be a greater folly than writing a book about love But how can we avoid that most basic of all desires and commands Yet we are very poor lovers as our history demonstrates If God is love though can we find help in considering the love of Jesus Christ and the love of Jesus thought of in terms of what T F Torrance called the vicarious humanity of Christ This would mean that we realize our inability and the Son of God's ability to love on our behalf and in our place Such a love mirrors the love of the Son for the Father in the Spirit a love that reflects his eternal triune love Therefore could we have new perspectives on our relationships the love of ourselves of God and the neighbor How essential is love to being human and what kind of love What does it mean to love your enemies What is the relationship between justice and love And what are the fruits of love the evidence of genuine love Christian D Kettler explores these issues in the context of the living reality of the vicarious humanity of Christ      Karl Barth on the Filioque David Guretzki, 2016-04-22 Despite the burgeoning literature on Karl Barth his doctrine of the Holy Spirit continues to be under appreciated by his friends and critics alike Yet while Barth's commitment to the doctrine of the procession of the Holy Spirit from the Father and the Son Filioque is well known many scholars dismiss his stand as ecumenically untenable and few have bothered to subject his stance on the Filioque to close theological analysis For those interested in this long standing ecumenical point of contention between Eastern and Western trinitarian theology this book will show how Barth's doctrine of the Filioque may still have something to contribute to the debate The work traces the origin of Barth's commitment to the Filioque in his early career particularly in Romans and the Göttingen Dogmatics and then analyzes how the doctrine functions throughout the Church Dogmatics Guretzki concludes that Barth's doctrine of the Filioque while clearly standing within the Western trinitarian tradition is atypical in that he refuses to speak of a double procession in favour of a common procession of the Spirit a position that has more affinity with the Eastern position than many of Barth's critics may have thought      The Ashgate Research Companion to Theological Anthropology Joshua R. Farris, Charles Taliaferro, 2016-03-09 In recent scholarship there is an emerging interest in the integration of philosophy and theology Philosophers and theologians address the relationship between body and soul and its implications for theological anthropology In so doing philosopher theologians interact with cognitive science biological evolution psychology and sociology Reflecting these exciting new developments The Ashgate Research Companion to Theological Anthropology is a resource for philosophers and theologians students and scholars interested in the constructive critical exploration of a theology of human persons Throughout this collection of newly authored contributions key themes are addressed human agency and grace the soul sin and salvation Christology glory feminism the theology of human nature and other major themes in theological anthropology in historic as well as contemporary contexts

Fully Human in Christ Todd Speidell, 2016-11-08 Thomas F Torrance's theology included a thoroughgoing albeit implicit ethic of reconciliation. It focused on the personalizing and humanizing mediation of Christ in all realms of life including not only a supposed private dimension of human life but also the social, historical and political structures of human society and even of the cosmos itself. This book builds upon that vision of a Christian ethic radically rooted in God's grace which encompasses, sustains and transforms the entire human and created order. A trinitarian incarnational social ethic does not begin with our human causes, projects and agendas however noble they might be but with witness to the reconciling person and work of Jesus Christ for us.

Essays on the Trinity Lincoln Harvey, 2018-07-23 This volume gathers together twelve essays on the doctrine of the Trinity. It includes the work of systematic theologians, analytic theologians and biblical scholars who address a range of issues concerning the Christian doctrine of God. Contributors include Jeremy Begbie, Julie Canlis, Douglas Campbell, William Hasker and Christoph Schwobel. The volume also includes a new essay written by the late Robert W Jenson shortly before his death.

Evangelical Calvinism Dr. Myk Habets, Bobby Grow, 2017-05-04 Continuing the discussion initiated in volume one, volume two of Evangelical Calvinism further articulates the central motifs of this mood within Reformed theology by examining themes having to do with dogmatics and devotion. After further clarifying the methodological and dogmatic aspects common to an Evangelical Calvinism, the heart of the present volume is an explication of the vicarious ministry of Christ as it is worked out in its diverse theological dimensions. The volume offers constructive accounts of various aspects of liturgy, sacraments and doxology showing the vitality and lived spirituality of this Christian vision of faith and practice. Both advocates and critics of Evangelical Calvinism now have an extended and thorough body of work with which to interact. As with volume 1, this volume promises to set the agenda for contemporary and constructive Reformed studies in a way that provides an alternative to neo-Calvinism and Westminster Calvinism alike.

Oxford Dictionary of National Biography 2005-2008 Lawrence Goldman, 2013-03-07 Who made modern Britain? This book, drawn from the award-winning Oxford Dictionary of National Biography, tells the story of our recent past through the lives of those who shaped national life. Following on from the Oxford DNB's first supplement volume, noteworthy people who died between 2001 and 2004, this new volume offers biographies of more than 850 men and women who left their mark on twentieth and twenty-first century Britain and who died in the years 2005 to 2008. Here are the people responsible for major developments in national life from politics, the arts, business, technology and law to military service, sport, education, science and medicine. Many are closely connected to specific periods in Britain's recent history. From the 1950s, the young Harold Pinter or the Yorkshire cricketer Fred Trueman, for example. From the Sixties, the footballer George Best, photographer Patrick Lichfield and the Pink Floyd musician Syd Barrett. It's hard to look back to the 1970s without thinking of Edward Heath and James Callaghan who led the country for seven years in that turbulent decade or similarly Freddie Laker, pioneer of budget air travel and the comedians Ronnie Barker and Dave Allen who entertained with their sketch shows and sit coms A decade later you probably browsed in Anita Roddick's Body Shop or danced to the music of Factory Records established by the Manchester entrepreneur Tony Wilson In the 1990s you may have hoped that Things can only get better with a New Labour government which included Robin Cook and Mo Mowlam Many in this volume are remembered for lives dedicated to a profession or cause Bill Deedes or Conor Cruise O'Brien in journalism Ned Sherrin in broadcasting or indeed Ted Heath whose political career spanned more than 50 years Others were responsible for discoveries or innovations of lasting legacy and benefit among them the epidemiologist Richard Doll who made the link between smoking and lung cancer Cicely Saunders creator of the hospice movement and Chad Varah founder of the Samaritans With John Profumo who gave his name to a scandal policeman Malcolm Fewtrell who investigated the Great Train Robbery or the Russian dissident Aleksandr Litvinenko who was killed in London in 2006 we have individuals best known for specific moments in our recent past Others are synonymous with popular objects and experiences evocative of recent decades Mastermind with Magnus Magnusson the PG Tips chimpanzees trained by Molly Badham John DeLorean's gull wing car or the new British Library designed by Colin St John Wilson though as rounded and balanced accounts Oxford DNB biographies also set these events in the wider context of a person's life story Authoritative and accessible the biographies in this volume are written by specialist authors many of them leading figures in their field Here you will find Michael Billington on Harold Pinter Michael Crick on George Best Richard Davenport Hines on Anita Roddick Brenda Hale on Rose Heilbrunn Roy Hattersley on James Callaghan Simon Heffer on John Profumo Douglas Hurd on Edward Heath Alex Jennings on Paul Scofield Hermione Lee on Pat Kavanagh Geoffrey Wheatcroft on Conor Cruise O'Brien and Peregrine Worsthorne on Bill Deedes Many in this volume are naturally household names But a good number are also remembered for lives away from the headlines What in the 1980s became Thatcherism owed much to behind the scenes advice from Ralph Harris and Alfred Sherman children who learned to read with Ladybird Books must thank their creator Douglas Keen while without its first producer Verity Lambert there would have been no Doctor Who Others are ordinary people capable of remarkable acts Take for instance Arthur Bywater who over two days in 1944 cleared thousands of bombs from a Liverpool munitions factory following an explosion only to do the same months later in another factory Awarded the George Cross and the George Medal Bywater remains the only non-combatant to have received Britain's two highest awards for civilian bravery

The God Who Rejoices Christian D. Kettler, 2010-06-01 How does one deal with despair Are joy and despair irreconcilable How does the joy and despair of Jesus Christ relate to our joy and despair Continuing to explore the implications of the vicarious humanity of Christ as he did in The God Who Believes Christian Kettler investigates the christological implications of the all too human phenomenon of despair All people experience the pain of personal loss and lack of the meaningfulness of existence We also desire and covet joy as difficult as it is often to define or maintain Jesus was both the man of sorrows and one who for the joy set before him endured the cross

Heb 12 2 Can we think of the despair of Christ and the joy of Christ as both being vicarious in our place and on our behalf and thus have a theological way to possess joy in the midst of despair as well as to have a more robust theology of the atonement Drawing on wide ranging resources from Augustine Calvin Karl Barth and T F Torrance to Bob Dylan the fantasy writer Ray Bradbury and Ed Wood the director of Plan Nine from Outer Space Kettler seeks to bring Trinitarian and incarnational theology deep into our flesh filled with real despair and joy and find that Jesus is there with his own despair there to lift us up with his own joy From Heaven He Came and Sought Her David Gibson,Jonathan Gibson,2013-11-30 There is a palpable sense of confusion and sometimes even embarrassment with regard to so called limited atonement today pointing to the need for thoughtful engagement with this controversial doctrine Incorporating contributions from a host of respected theologians From Heaven He Came and Sought Her stands as the first comprehensive resource on definite atonement as it examines the issue from historical biblical theological and pastoral perspectives Offering scholarly insights for those seeking a thorough and well researched discussion this book will encourage charitable conversations as it winsomely defends this foundational tenet of Reformed theology The epub edition of this title will not display correctly when viewed on Adobe Digital Editions Hebrew characters will be inaccurately displayed in this reader Trinity and Transformation Todd Speidell,2016-03-08 The triune God of grace James B Torrance tirelessly insisted is the true agent to transform worship mission and society Unfortunately the church often lapses into moralism and legalism or exhortations and condemnations rather than witnessing to the sole sufficient grace of God in Christ When we neglect the Trinity a de facto unitarianism throws the church back onto its own existence and resources In Christ however the church participates through the Spirit in union with Christ s communion with the Father By so doing it also participates in Christ s mission to the world The essays of this volume articulate and extend Torrance s evangelical theology which draws attention away from ourselves and toward the triune God who is for us and for the world Introduction to Spirituality (Foundations for Spirit-Filled Christianity) Gary Tyra,2023-06-20 This introduction explores Christian spirituality as a pursuit of the global church today It encourages students to adopt a lifestyle spirituality which involves relational intimacy with the triune God Gary Tyra is well known for his work in the field of Christian spirituality and has years of experience in the classroom and in the church In this book Tyra encourages us to adopt a Pauline lifestyle spirituality whereby we keep in step with the Holy Spirit so that we might experience an ongoing mentoring relationship with the Son in order to faithfully and fruitfully engage in the mission of the Father Keeping in step with the spirit unfolds in a lifestyle spirituality a collection of convictions commitments and customs that constitute the disciple s lifelong journey with the triune God This book is part of a new series that reflects the changing face of global Christianity Series volumes are written by leading Pentecostal Charismatic scholars who highlight themes of interest to Pentecostal Charismatic students however the books are respectful appreciative and inclusive of a variety of church families and traditions Series editors are Jerry Ireland Paul W Lewis and Frank D Macchia Getting Real

Gary Tyra, 2018-02-08 Some reputable sociological research indicates that a surprising number of evangelical churchgoers are living out a version of the Christian life that is more informed by the values of the surrounding culture than by the discipleship teachings of Jesus and his apostles. Viewing the cause of this disturbing trend in the church to be a discipleship deficit that is exacerbated by a pneumatological deficit, Gary Tyra has written a book that addresses both. In this work, Tyra encourages evangelical Christians of all stripes to become more fully aware of the tremendous difference it makes when the Holy Spirit is experienced in ways that are real and existentially impactful rather than merely theoretical, conceptual, and/or ritualistic. Intended to be read by church leaders as well as by students in Christian colleges and seminaries, the message here is that the cure for the ministry malady currently confronting us is the recovery of a robust, fully Trinitarian doctrine of the Spirit. A pneumatological realism, says Tyra, combined with an understanding of just how important a spiritual, moral, and missional faithfulness is to a genuine Christian discipleship, can revitalize the lives of individual Christians and churches, making it possible for them to reach their post-Christian peers for Christ.
