How Women Start Up, Scale Up, and Build The Life They Want Claudia Reuter, 2020-02-14 How women can lean in to entrepreneurship to create the life they want Claudia Reuter left a promising corporate career to raise her two young children but realized when re entering the workforce that the gap in her resume looked like a gap in ambition not a purposeful plan Instead of leaning into a corporate career and fighting the structures and systems designed by and for men decades ago or leaning out and giving up income Claudia took a different path That decision ultimately led to success in the corporate world and at home In Yes You Can Do This Claudia shares her own reasons for starting a business and makes a call to action for women to consider entrepreneurship so that they can create businesses with the rules they want and change the playing field for others making a significant impact in the world More than a how to book on building a business Yes You Can Do This provides clear examples and practical resources to help others create the life they want through entrepreneurship In Yes You Can Do This you ll learn How to develop and share your vision How to deal with stereotypes and unconscious bias How to leverage perceived weaknesses and turn them into strengths How to balance life at high speeds and avoid burnout How to cultivate the confidence to move from idea to creating a company with the culture and rules you want Claudia provides women with an electrifying third career option it s not just lean in or lean out but startup and change the playing field for others in the process Praise for Yes You Can Do This It s rare to find a book on entrepreneurship that fuels your heart with inspiration and encouragement and your mind with practical tangible things you can put into action immediately but this is one of them As a woman who has started three companies and been a senior team member of five startups this is the guide I wish I d read when I was starting out Nataly Kogan Author of Happier Now and founder of Happier Inc Combining compelling storytelling with practical tactical advice Reuter has created a manifesto for the next generation of female founders Rooted in the research around gender and work this is a must read for women looking to launch the next new thing Jennifer McFadden Associate Director of Entrepreneurial Programs Yale School of Management A must read for any woman considering taking the leap into entrepreneurship You Can Do This brings together today s best thinking about women in the workplace with practical advice for creating your dream career and life by starting a company Whether you are just curious or ready to take the leap this book is a great read and a valuable resource Anna Barber Managing Director Techstars Claudia helps not just the female entrepreneur but all entrepreneurs find their footing in what can be an overwhelming whirlwind of starting a business This book is not only inspiring and uplifting but positively necessary for any woman looking to find success in the startup space Shira Atkins Co founder CMO Wonder Media Network Stories of entrepreneurial success exist in abundance for men who receive 97.8% of venture funding and hold 95% of CEO roles What is most inspiring about Claudia's book making me want to shout from the rooftop is that it is told from the perspective of an everyday woman who pushed hard through barriers, doubts, and setbacks that any entrepreneur would face. On top of all that, she overcame obstacles that are uniquely ours as women today. Claudia is now a standout among women, but with her book in hand, women who want to build a business to scale have a blueprint and path to do so. Here's to making dreams come true.

Coco Brown, CEO and Founder, The Athena Alliance

As I read through the book, there were multiple points where I thought every man in any startup or fast-growing business should read this. As a man in technology, I took away lots of new ideas along with examples that were explained in a way that I wouldn't have been able to do prior to reading Claudia's book.

Brad Feld, Managing Director at Foundry Group, author of Venture Deals and Do More, Faster

Reuter breaks the stigma about mothers that chose to leave the workforce. She provides practical tools to start a business by showing the path to success for every woman that wants to write her own rules.

Sharon Kan, CEO of Pepperlane Co., Founder of the WIN Lab

Reuter manages to put into words what women have been facing and feeling for decades. She leaves the readers with stories, steps, and inspiration to create the career path they are worthy of, no matter if it's starting from scratch or breaking glass ceilings. This book will fuel the next generation of women in leadership and entrepreneurship, giving them guides and confidence as it has fueled me to start the business I have always wanted.

- Explores the evolution of careers, including career stages, patterns, and transitions, as well as variations in the meaning of career success.
- Discusses career decision-making strategies and looks at legislative, regulatory, and labor relations decrees that influence career development and decision making.
- Analyzes initiatives used by employers, counselors, and society to promote the effective development of careers.

The Encyclopedia of Career Development is a leading-edge reference tool that is recognized as a must-have for libraries in the United States and around the world. In addition, corporations and career centers will also want to add this valuable set to their collections.

Getting It Right

Laraine T. Zappert, 2001-03-09

Career or motherhood: Do you have to sacrifice one to be truly successful in the other? And if you're trying to do both, will you have to compromise your career path or your child's needs? With professional demands increasingly impinging on personal time, is having it all even realistic or is it just plain fantasy Now leading Stanford University psychologist Dr Laraine Zappert who specializes in the issues of women and work draws upon her twenty years of clinical and research experience and a landmark study to answer these questions and create a road map of innovative solutions Dr Zappert surveyed more than three hundred women who have graduated from Stanford s Graduate School of Business and has incorporated case studies from hundreds of women professionals in each chapter Her findings address such common concerns as Do I really have to choose between career and family How do I handle the stresses of my job and the demands of parenting How do children affect my career and when is the best time to have them How do I keep my relationships healthy Who will care for my children when I m not available Coming from many different occupational backgrounds the subjects of Dr Zappert s study show us that although we so often think that everyone else is doing it better and having an easier time of it that is hardly ever the case Sometimes good enough has to do And whereas the stresses may be the same for all working women the solutions rarely are Let the insights advice and strategies found in Getting It Right help you make smarter more informed decisions for creating a satisfying and fulfilling lifestyle on every level

How Women Can Make It Work Eden B. King, Jennifer L. Knight, 2011-05-03 Condensing and interpreting an enormous body of social science research this book helps young women survive and thrive in their careers In a recent survey working women in the millennial generation aged from 22 to 35 reported persistent concerns of gender bias in the form of inequitable pay scales corporate cultures that favor men stereotypes few women among the top echelons of the organization and barriers to balancing work and family Clearly women continue to face significant obstacles to success in the workplace despite the progress that has occurred in recent decades How Women Can Make It Work The Science of Success will help Gen X Y and Z women who are recent high school or college grads in their first or second job or new moms weighing decisions about working achieve success and satisfaction in their careers The information in this book is also invaluable for managers and counselors who work with young women and want to understand the issues they may be facing

Race for the Exits Leonard J. Schoppa, 2011-07-15 Contrary to all expectations Japan's long term recession has provoked no sustained political movement to replace the nation's malfunctioning economic structure The country's basic social contract has so far proved resistant to reform even in the face of persistently adverse conditions In Race for the Exits Leonard J Schoppa explains why it has endured and how long it can last The postwar Japanese system of convoy capitalism traded lifetime employment for male workers against government support for industry and the private female provision of care for children and the elderly Two social groups bore a particularly heavy burden in providing for the social protection of the weak and dependent large firms which committed to keeping their core workforce on the payroll even in slow times and women who stayed home to care for their homes and families Using the exit voice framework made famous by Albert Hirschman Schoppa argues that both groups have chosen exit rather than voice depriving the political process of the energy needed to propel necessary reforms in the system Instead of fighting for reform firms slowly shift jobs overseas and many women abandon hopes of accommodating both family and career Over time however these trends have placed growing economic and demographic pressures on the social contract As industries reduce their domestic operations the Japanese economy is further diminished Japan has also experienced a baby bust as women opt out of motherhood Schoppa suggests that a radical break with the Japanese social contract of the past is becoming inevitable as the system slowly and quietly unravels
