Kosovo and International Society Alex J. Bellamy, 2002-08-11 This book explains the international engagement with the Kosovo conflict from the dissolution of Yugoslavia to Operation Allied Force It shows how Kosovo was deliberately excluded from the search for peace in Yugoslavia before going on to demonstrate how a shaky international consensus was forged to support air strikes in 1999 In doing so it exposes many of the myths and conspiracy theories that have developed about the war and explains the dilemmas facing actors in this unfolding drama

Kosovo and Serbia Leandrit I. Mehmeti, Branislav Radeljic, 2017-06-17 Azan on the Moon is an in depth anthropological study of people s lives along the Pamir Highway in eastern Tajikistan Constructed in the 1930s in rugged high altitude terrain the road fundamentally altered the material and social fabric of this former Soviet outpost on the border with Afghanistan and China The highway initially brought sentiments of disconnection and hardship followed by Soviet modernization and development and ultimately a sense of distinction from bordering countries and urban centers that continues to this day Based on extensive fieldwork and through an analysis of construction mobility technology media development Islam and the state Till Mostowlansky shows how ideas of modernity are both challenged and reinforced in contemporary Tajikistan In the wake of China s rise in Central Asia people along the Pamir Highway strive to reconcile a modern future with a modern past Weaving together the road a population and a region Azan on the Moon presents a rich ethnography of global connections

Justifying violence Naomi Head, 2017-10-03 When is the use of force for humanitarian purposes legitimate The book examines this question through one of the most controversial examples of humanitarian intervention in the post Cold War period the 1999 NATO intervention in Kosovo Justifying Violence applies a critical theoretical approach to an interrogation of the communicative practices which underpin claims to legitimacy for the use of force by actors in international politics Drawing on the theory of communicative ethics the book develops an innovative conceptual framework which contributes a critical communicative dimension to the question of legitimacy that extends beyond the moral and legal approaches so often applied to the intervention in Kosovo The empirical application of communicative ethics offers a provocative and nuanced account which contests conventional interpretations of the legitimacy of NATO s intervention

Kosovo's Foreign Policy and Bilateral Relations Liridon Lika, 2023-04-14 This edited book analyzes Kosovo's foreign policy and bilateral relations with the United States and several European countries After the 1999 liberation from Serbia Kosovo built close relations with various countries that supported it in the process of reconstruction economic stabilization institution building and state building From 1999 to 2008 many of these states were politically and operationally engaged in Kosovo under the leadership of the North Atlantic Treaty Organization NATO and of the United Nations Interim Administration Mission in Kosovo UNMIK Since its independence in 2008 the Republic of Kosovo has adopted a foreign policy in accordance with its values and strategic interests a foreign policy that aims to strengthen Kosovo's security and foster its socio economic prosperity in collaboration with primarily Western countries In this volume each chapter is dedicated to Kosovo's bilateral relations with a selected state with which it has established diplomatic relations The book shows that Kosovo has been able to develop and achieve strong bilateral relations with major allies and partners It argues that Kosovo's foreign policy aims to develop maintain and enhance the position of the young state on the international stage The volume bridges various methodological and disciplinary approaches in order to present Kosovo's foreign policy objectives and the trajectory of its relations with some of its most important international partners This book will be of interest to students of Balkan politics state building foreign policy and International Relations

Acting Like a State Gëzim Visoka, 2018-06-13 How do emerging states obtain international recognition and secure membership of international organisations in contemporary world politics This book provides the first in depth study of Kosovo's diplomatic approach to becoming a sovereign state by obtaining international recognition and securing membership of international organisations Analysing the everyday diplomatic discourses performances and entanglements this book contends that state becoming is not wholly determined by systemic factors normative institutions or the preferences of great powers the diplomatic agency of the fledgling state plays a far more important role than is generally acknowledged Drawing on institutional ethnographic research and first hand observations this book argues that Kosovo's diplomatic success in consolidating its sovereign statehood has been the situational assemblage of multiple discourses practiced through a broad variety of performative actions and shaped by a complex entanglement with global assemblages of norms actors relations and events Accordingly this book contributes to expanding our understanding of the everyday diplomatic agency of emerging states and the changing norms politics and practices regarding the diplomatic recognition of states and their admission to international society

A Critical Humanitarian Intervention Approach K. Butler, 2011-05-25 A Critical Humanitarian Intervention Approach explores ways of reconceptualising security in terms of Ken Booth's Theory of World Security This approach focusing on human development more broadly can improve upon the theoretical and practical limitations of solidarist theories on the subject of humanitarian intervention

The Fight Against

Terrorism and Crisis Management in the Western Balkans I. Prezelj, 2008-02-06 Terrorism is not the only threat that causes the emergence of crises The so called crisification of our security environment also seems to be rising due to many other factors Such an environment is generating many crises related to politico military conflicts natural disasters infectious diseases information disruptions ethnic or religious violence and others Many of these crises are completely or nearly completely unexpected and have a strong effect on the security of individual people states and the international community Crisis has become the key word instead of war The awareness of this is partially driven by the growing role of electronic media bringing negative news and reports to nearly all homes and partially by objective technical factors that allow the fast escalation of local crises to the international level Globalization therefore has a strong subjective and objective impact on the understanding of security

A Theory of De Facto States Lucas Knotter, 2023-12-12 A Theory of De Facto States offers a new perspective on the phenomenon of de facto states political communities that manifest forms of statehood in international politics but lack international legal recognition zooming in on two prominent examples Somaliland and Kosovo Employing a thorough understanding of classical realist theories of international relations this book provides a fresh critique of the common ways in which existing research tends to identify the ostensible state features of these communities In contrast to the prevalent portrayals of such features in terms of international legal discursive and or everyday logics this book argues that de facto states can be most fundamentally characterised as exceptional polities in international relations Showcasing how the statehood and sovereignty of de facto states is based in international political crises this book concludes that these entities function as recurring disruptions of any supposed international political order A Theory of De Facto States will therefore be of interest to researchers of secession de facto statehood and International Relations theory alike

Whole-of-Society Peacebuilding Mary Martin, Vesna Bojicic-Dzelilovic, 2020-06-09 The complex problems of peace security and development in societies affected by conflict increasingly demand innovative ideas and comprehensive strategies to tackle the diverse simultaneous and daunting challenges faced in trying to rebuild states and communities after war This comprehensive collection sets out a Whole of Society WoS approach which focuses on the social contexts within which conflict resolution and prevention take place The aim of WoS is to grasp the complexity both within local society and in the relations between external peacebuilders and the people they set out to help The book argues that by understanding multiple actors their relationships and the conditions in which they operate complexity becomes an opportunity to be grasped not simply an impediment to building peace Chapter 6 of this book is freely available as a downloadable Open Access PDF at <http://www.taylorfrancis.com> under a Creative Commons Attribution Non Commercial No Derivatives CC BY NC ND 4.0 license

Vulnerability and Resilience to Violent Extremism Juline Beaujouan, Veronique Dudouet, Maja Halilovic-Pastuovic, Johanna-Maria Hülzer, Marie Kortam, Amjed Rasheed, 2023-10-19 This book examines the actors that shape societal dynamics leading to or preventing violent extremism from taking roots in their communities including state representatives religious institutions and civil society actors The volume contributes to an emerging stream of research focusing on intra and inter group dynamics to explain the emergence and persistence of or resilience against violent extremism It utilises an actor centric approach uncovering the landscape of actors that play relevant roles in shaping societal dynamics leading to or preventing violent extremism affecting their communities The analysis builds on new empirical evidence collected in Bosnia and Herzegovina Kosovo North Macedonia Serbia Iraq Lebanon and Tunisia This allows for an innovative comparative perspective on two regions in the European neighbourhood that are rarely studied together even though they seem to share common patterns of de radicalisation and violent extremism despite their distinct historical political and cultural trajectories and relations with the EU In both regions the book analyses the roles of and interactions between state political religious and civil society actors in shaping community vulnerability to and or resilience against violent extremism Different types of community leaders are equipped with varying levels of authority trust legitimacy and influence over community members As such the categories of actors analysed can play either detrimental or beneficial roles which makes vulnerability and resilience to violent extremism two sides of the same coin This volume will be of much interest to students of countering violent extremism terrorism political violence security studies and International Relations generally The Open Access version of this book available at www.taylorfrancis.com has been made available under a Creative Commons Attribution CC BY 4.0

International license Europeanization and Statebuilding as Everyday Practices Vjosa Musliu, 2021-05-17 This book provides a critical understanding of Europeanization and statebuilding in the Western Balkans using the notion of everyday practices This volume argues that it is everyday and mundane events that provide the entry points to showcase a broader set of practices of Europeanization in countries outside the EU It does this by tracing notions of Europeanization in the everyday statebuilding of Kosovo Europe Day celebrations in Bosnia and Herzegovina urban politics in Tirana and space and place making in Skopje In doing so the book shows that everyday events tell us that as much as it is about changing structures institutions and economic models Europeanization is also about changing behaviours and ideas in populations at large At the same time the work shows that countries outside the EU use everyday events to perform their belonging to Europe This book will be of much interest to students of European Studies Balkan politics statebuilding and International Relations generally

Ohanyan,2008-10-27 Post conflict reconstruction stretches the capacities of international institutions and they turn to NGOs to answer the challenge This book explores how the interactions between international public institutions and NGOs have affected peacebuilding in the post conflict situations of Bosnia Afghanistan and Kosovo      Kosovo's Displaced and Imprisoned United States. Congress. Commission on Security and Cooperation in Europe,2001      Self-Determination after Kosovo Annemarie Peen Rodt,Stefan Wolff,2017-10-02 Kosovo embodies a key moment in the international practice of dealing with secessionist self determination conflicts For the first time outside of the colonial context and excepting Bangladesh in 1971 an entity s declaration of independence has been widely albeit not universally recognised As such the case of Kosovo has sharpened the focus and intensified the debate on the issue of self determination conflicts and how they are managed by the international community This volume contributes to this debate by examining Kosovo in historical and contemporary comparative perspective and by reflecting on the legal ethical and political implications of its successful declaration of independence This book was originally published as a special issue of Europe Asia Studies
