Lombok A Public Body Raymond Flynn, 2013-11-21 One cocked hat one red robe trimmed with black rabbit and one silver gilt chain with a gold and enamel knobbly bit at the end Eddathorpe s mayoral regalia has disappeared in the possession of Councillor William Klondike Bill Lynch a colourful drunk who has devised the perfect revenge on Eddathorpe s new mayor his much detested second wife Muriel But the joke s not funny when Muriel Lynch turns up dead with the regalia and Klondike Bill carefully arranged in the next room And less funny still when Robert Graham s least loved superior officer arrests Bill for a murder he probably didn t commit Globalizing the Prehistory of Japan Ann Kumar, 2008-11-24 This iconoclastic work on the prehistory of Japan and of South East Asia challenges entrenched views on the origins of Japanese society and identity The social changes that took place in Japan in the time period when the Jomon culture was replaced by the Yayoi culture were of exceptional magnitude going far beyond those of the so called Neolithic Revolution in other parts of the world They included not only a new way of life based on wet rice agriculture but also the introduction of metalworking in both bronze and iron and furthermore a new architecture functionally and ritually linked to rice cultivation a new religion and a hierarchical society characterized by a belief in the divinity of the ruler Because of its immense and enduring impact the Yayoi period has generally been seen as the very foundation of Japanese civilization and identity In contrast to the common assumption that all the Yayoi innovations came from China and Korea this work combines exciting new scientific evidence from such different fields as rice genetics DNA and historical linguistics to show that the major elements of Yayoi civilization actually came not from the north but from the south Filipino Martial Culture Mark V. Wiley, 2011-12-20

Widely practiced but not always understood the Filipino martial arts have a rich history and distinctive character that have not fully been documented until now Written in the context of Philippine history and culture Filipino Martial Culture uncovers the esoteric components of the Filipino martial arts and the life histories of the men who perpetuate them Included are the history of turbulence and war in the Philippines from prehistoric times to the present day the culture of the Filipino martial arts including warrior ethos and worldview spirituality folklore and weaponry biographical sketches of eighteen Filipino masters and descriptions of their respective fighting styles and a comparative study of the ethos ideology and development of the Filipino martial arts in relation to the considerable martial traditions of India China and Japan In the course of his research internationally renowned martial arts master and scholar Mark V Wiley traveled the globe interviewing top masters and recording their life histories thoughts and anecdotes In addition he collected 320 historical photographs and illustrations including step by step sequences of the masters demonstrating the distinctive techniques of their particular martial styles A classic reference for practitioners and researchers alike this Filipino martial arts book is as much a definitive anthropological textbook as it is a practical guide to Arnis Kali Eskrima and the other martial arts of the Philippines Technology in Southeast Asian History Suzanne Moon,2023-07-25 Explores the role of technology in the larger political and economic fabric of Southeast Asia In Technology in Southeast Asian History Suzanne Moon explores the profound entanglement of technology with Southeast Asian politics social life economics and culture over its long history Moon offers a unique framework for understanding the place of technology in this region and its pivotal role in the emergence of the modern technological world Synthesizing scholarship from the fields of history archaeology and anthropology Moon examines and links technological stories from prehistory to the mid twentieth century She uses analytics in the history of technology such as circulation coproduction and assemblage to highlight the processes and evolving patterns of technological dynamism that characterize the region Drawing on research focused on specific technologies including temple construction rice agriculture weaving and shipbuilding Moon investigates the interconnectedness of these technologies within the larger political and economic fabric of Southeast Asian history In contrast with portrayals of Southeast Asia as technologically deficient Moon demonstrates the richness of this region s technological cultures She rejects polarizing binaries such as traditional and modern or indigenous and foreign instead underscoring Southeast Asia s role as a dynamic cocreator of the modern technological world Technology has contributed to the creation and disruption of social and political orders shaped engagements across barriers of distance culture and language and produced and reproduced diverse cultures in this region This narrative of technological change offers students scholars and readers critical new perspectives on both technological history and Southeast Asian history
