Kristallnacht A Tale Of Survival And Rebirth:

Kristallnacht Celia Elkin, 2005-03-29 Penned by me a survivor and eye witness to the chilling events that took place on the 9th of November 1938 in all of Germany and the following day in Austria Although barely past my 15th birthday I remembered everything that had transpired and detailed the happenings in my family as well as revisiting the horrendous anti Jewish violence executed on such a large scale by the Nazis in my book Kristallnacht This November 2013 I and others will commemorate the 75th anniversary of Kristallnacht the life altering event which ushered in the Jewish nightmare the Holocaust research by Joseph Sol finally learned while this book was being completed of the existence of his father's unmarked grave in Austria. This astounding discovery gave Sol and his family emotional closure after 60 years of uncertain guilt that Sol carried with him since the day he and I Choose Life Jerry L. Jennings, Goldie Finkelstein, Joseph S. Finkelstein, 2009. I Choose Life is the true first person account of two Jewish youths Sol and Goldie who survived Nazi concentration camps and transcended despair by choosing life. The book title derives from a harrowing encounter between Sol and the Commandant in Auschwitz. The Nazi cruelly forced Sol to choose between execution by hanging or firing squad. Sol then 19 years old defied him declaring "If I have a choice I choose life." Goldie Cukier, a 13 year old girl and her older sister were rounded up in a random raid in their neighborhood. An SS guard gave Goldie's father the choice of freeing only one of his two daughters. Goldie volunteered to be taken so that her sister would be spared. It was the last she would ever see her family alive. I Choose Life describes idyllic childhoods in Radom and Sosnowiec, Poland, in warm and loving families imbued with Jewish pride and values. Years of darkness, suffering, separation, loss, and death, raids, selections, forced labor camps, cattle cars, and death marches and survival in Auschwitz, Mauthausen, and Bergen-Belsen. Sol says, "A sane person cannot imagine what it was like." For years Sol and Goldie never shared their stories, not even with each other. Now they have decided to tell their stories to leave a legacy to their grandchildren and to help ensure the Holocaust is never repeated. Sol's story is full of adventure and suspense, while Goldie's narrative draws the reader into the poignancy of a young girl's inner world as she is torn from her family by the Nazis. I Choose Life is two complete and parallel memoirs of survival and rebirth. Together the two memoirs of I Choose Life illuminate the Holocaust experience in a unique way, offering both male and female perspectives, one told by a person of action and one by a person of feeling, to yield insights into the most monumental tragedy in human history. I Choose Life is distinguished as a Holocaust testament not only because it is two complete memoirs of a boy and a girl, but ultimately because the two stories entwine as Sol and Goldie meet in a Displaced Persons camp in post-war Germany. The book explores the challenges of restoration and rebirth, how two youths regained the ability to trust and love, to rebuild new lives after unimaginable losses, and to move to another continent to start a new family and live the American dream. In one of the most peculiar and fascinating chapters of modern Jewish history, Sol and Goldie tell the story of how hundreds of Jewish concentration camp survivors from Europe found an unexpected new Zion in rural Vineland, New Jersey, as a community of chicken farmers. I Choose Life is also distinguished by its reliance on historical documents. With the help of the research resources of the United States Holocaust Memorial Museum, Sol and Goldie's son Joseph was able to access original historical records which have become newly available to survivors in search of answers about themselves and family members lost in the Holocaust. These documents, some of which are reproduced in the book, enabled Joseph to verify and discover new facts and details, including the name and location of a secret V2 rocket factory, dates of prisoner transports, arrival dates at different camps, and lists of prisoners in which Sol's and Goldie's names appear. Through an emotional journey, I Choose Life describes the moving discovery of the final events and fate of Sol's father Jacob Finkelstein following his separation from Sol just a week before liberation in Mauthausen concentration camp Through research by Joseph Sol finally learned while this book was being completed of the existence of his father's unmarked grave in Austria This astounding discovery gave Sol and his family emotional closure after from 60 years of uncertain guilt that Sol carried with him since the day he and Ruth and the Night of Broken Glass Emma Bernay, Emma Carlson Berne, 2019-08 Includes a note from the author a glossary and discussion questions

The Gazebo Alexander Lebenstein, 2008 November 10 1938 Germany Kristallnacht Night of Broken Glass Eleven year old Alex Lebenstein comes face to face with the Nazi regime that is determined to exterminate all Jews from the face of Europe After witnessing the beating of his family they escape to be hidden for a few days before being forced into the newly created Jewish Ghetto where he will spend the next three years A six day cattle car ride during one of the coldest winters on record to the larger Jewish Ghetto in Riga Latvia is merely the first destination of what will become a three year battle of survival From the concentration camps Kaiserwald and Stutthof and slave labor camps Hasenpot and Burggraben to liberation and escape teenaged Alex Lebenstein lived the sights sounds and smells of death Despite facing execution and living under the shadows of the crematoria chimneys that darkened the skies with black smoke this is a tale of hope and wonder It has been some sixty plus years since I have thought about a number of the events that I witnessed or survived during the time that I was a teenager I must refer to myself as a teenager and can't say child because I largely did not have a childhood after the evening of Kristallnacht This dark period of my life was so traumatic that it is only recently that I have been able to confront the shadows and noises that still cause me to start whenever I see or hear them Of all the sights and sounds that left a lasting impression on me during the years that I fought to survive there is no doubt that the sounds I experienced while we huddled on the gazebo are the ones that will forever haunt me Even now I cannot hear the sound of leaves scraping on the sidewalk or the bricks of my apartment without flashing back to the time that we huddled on that old gazebo and that eerie sound of dead leaves and vines added to the sheer terror that I was feeling More than a story of survival this is a tale of good triumphing over evil and one man's battle to make a difference in the lives of children With a new lease on life he now promotes tolerance through education on two continents and tells his remarkable story so that the children will know
