Krzysztof Kiesloski We Are What Weve Absorbed:

The Films of Krzysztof Kieslowski Joseph Kickasola, 2004-06-22 Perhaps the greatest European director of the last 30 years Krzysztof Kieslowski created a remarkable body of work in a relatively short period of time His films are loved around the world for their dramatic power and consummate artistry Kieslowski's cinematic style stands apart in several important respects his mastery of abstract imagery his innovative use of sound and his deliberate circumvention of standard cinematic codes Unlike many other art directors who often fail to rise above commentary on the medium itself Kieslowski uses these stylistic liberties to explore his philosophical concerns fate God suffering and love Through close analysis of films like The Decalogue The Double Life of Veronique Blue White and Red Joe Kickasola identifies the unique qualities and artistic legacy of this great director Krzysztof Kieslowski Marek Zydowicz, Danusia Stok, 2000 Krzysztof Kieslowski Renata Bernard, Steven Woodward, 2016-03-14 Krzysztof Kieslowski's untimely death came at the height of his career after his Three Colors trilogy of films garnered international acclaim and an Oscar nomination and he had been proclaimed Europe's most important filmmaker by many critics Born in 1941 he was only fifty four years old when he died Kieslowski himself tried to tell the story of his life and career in the 1993 book Kieslowski on Kieslowski This collection by contrast reveals the shifting voice of a filmmaker who was initially optimistic about his social and cultural role then felt himself buffeted by the turbulent politics and events of the People's Republic of Poland As described in the chronology in this book he found himself subject to the economic censorship of post Communist filmmaking How Kieslowski responded at each moment of his life what he tried to achieve with each of his films is finely detailed in thirty five selections These pieces bring together his thesis from the famous Lodz film school a manifesto written just before the dark days of martial law in Poland diary entries from the first time he was working outside Poland and numerous rare interviews from Polish French and English language sources The New Yorker Theater and Other Scenes from a Life at the Movies Toby Talbot, 2009 In this irresistible memoir Toby Talbot co owner and proud matron of the New Yorker Theater reveals the story behind Manhattan's wild and wonderful affair with art house film With her husband Dan Talbot showcased a range of eclectic films introducing French New Wave and New German cinema along with other groundbreaking genres and styles As Vietnam protests and the struggle for civil rights raged outside the Talbots also took the lead in distributing political films such as Bernard Bertolucci's Before the Revolution and documentaries such as Shoah and Point of Order Irrationality Justin Smith-Ruiu, 2020-12-01 From sex and music to religion and politics a history of irrationality and the ways in which it has always been with us and always will be In this sweeping account of irrationality from antiquity to the rise of Twitter mobs and the election of Donald Trump Justin Smith argues that irrationality makes up the greater part of human life and history Ranging across philosophy politics and current events he shows that throughout history every triumph of reason has been temporary and reversible and that rational schemes often result in their polar opposite Illuminating unreason at a moment when the world appears to have gone mad again Irrationality is timely provocative and fascinating The Double Life of Veronica by Krzysztof Kieślowski Simone Malacrida,2023-10-21 Decades after its release The Double Life of Veronica is wrongly considered an interlude film between Krzysztof Kieślowski's two most famous works The artistic refinement the delicate style the magnificent interpretation of Irene Jacob and the exuberant music of Zbigniew Preisner make on the contrary this work completely unique and unrepeatable A little jewel that we will try to explore in this book always keeping in mind the never fully revealed mystery that surrounds this film production Remember, Repeat, Inhabit Ronojoy Sircar,2021-12-30 Remember Repeat Inhabit looks at three questions in relation to the idea of the viewer What happens when one reads someone else's reading of someone else What happens when something repeats itself in Kieslowski's work Is there a possibility of an ontology of space The book attempts to understand the idea of viewing from the inside not simply as an ontological premise but definitely affected by it Three differing contexts are looked at a French madman's notion of the self a Polish filmmaker's notion of the everyday and an Indian performance artist's notion of memory Through these on the surface contrasting artists and texts a particular idea of a viewer emerges This viewer is the key to an understanding of something almost elemental in the nature of the idea of viewing in the contemporary context of twenty first century Delhi Politics, Art and Commitment in the East European Cinema D.W. Paul,1983-06-18 Spanish Meta-Art and Contemporary Cinema Guillermo Rodríguez-Romaguera,2023-08-10 Can cinema reveal its audience's most subversive thinking Do films have the potential to project their viewers innermost thoughts making them apparent on the screen This book argues that cinema has precisely this power to unveil to the spectator their own hidden thoughts It examines case studies from various cultures in conversation with Spain a country whose enduring masterpieces in self reflexive or meta art provide insight into the special dynamic between viewer and screen Framed around critical readings of Miguel de Cervantes Don Quixote Diego Velázquez Las meninas and Luis Buñuel's Un chien andalou this book examines contemporary films by Víctor Erice Carlos Saura Bigas Luna Alejandro Amenábar Lucrecia Martel Krzysztof Kieslowski David Lynch Pedro Almodóvar Spike Jonze Andrzej Zulawski Fernando Pérez Alfred Hitchcock Wes Craven and David Cronenberg to illustrate how self reflexivity in film unbridles the mental repression of film spectators It proposes cinema as an uncanny duplication of the workings of the brain a doppelgänger to human thought The World is Watching Dennis Redmond,2004 This text explores the origins and implications of the powerful visual medium of video crossing national cultural and political boundaries to present provocative tales Dennis Redmond's study is rooted in close readings of three video efforts The Prisoner 1967 The Decalogue 1988 and Neon Genesis Evangelion 1995 The New Yorker ,2007 Reel Views 2 James Berardinelli,2005 Thoroughly revised and updated for 2005 Includes a new chapter on the best special edition DVDs and a new chapter on finding hidden easter egg features Australian Journal of French Studies ,1999 The Blue Box Frances Restuccia,2012-03-01 Looks at films that map the spectator's private fantasy onto the one being played out on the screen following Kristeva's sparse but revolutionary film
