the morass of advice of varying quality it can be hard to separate the wheat from the chaff In 2017 I wrote the Unboxed books a series of four books about how to publish sustainably and by that I mean in a manner so that you can keep doing it long term and how to use your mailing list to set up a self perpetuating sales vehicle While the strategies haven't changed many of the peripheral situations have In short we have far more and better tools but far more competition not only from other authors on the sales front but also from services that entice us to spend ever more money before we publish This book is my ultimate guide to what you need what you can try and what is likely to be a waste of your money and time Over more than 500 pages I talk about the unvarnished experience of self publishing and selling books while keeping control of my catalogue and not funding anyone's private jet in advertising costs I wrote this book to pay it forward to the community I don't sell courses I don't do affiliate marketing I have no vested interest in anyone's self publishing journey Except for this I want you to enjoy it

HEADZ-zIne: Vol. 1, 'REGIONS-UK', BRISTOL SPECIAL EDITION, Issue 3 Dr Adam de Paor-Evans, Dr James McNally, 2021-04-10 HEADZ zIne is a periodical output of the HEADZ Project Taking the form of the fanzine with a critical edge it challenges the convention of academic knowledge production and dissemination HEADZ zIne seeks to capture the personal local and communal histories of hip hop HEADZ zIne is foremost interested in the stories of its participants and through a series of in depth interviews and complimentary analysis of the artefacts and archives of hip hop reveals a set of previously untold stories HEADZ zIne is created with much the same immediacy as a zine It is produced within a period of weeks is self published and designed using standard domestic hardware and software Although the topic addressed is historical participants reflections illustrate the immediacy and closeness of this material to their current lives True to the aims of the fanzine HEADZ zIne illuminates the histories of music culture which have previously been largely undocumented These histories are told through the personal and collective stories of their participants HEADZ zIne is freely distributed and the inaugural issue has been manufactured with a print run of only 200 copies in addition to being available in an expanded edition online The zine presents a continued engagement with questions of knowledge production and dissemination HEADZ zIne has been developed in collaboration with practitioners and seeks to foreground their histories thoughts and ideas We are interested in how hip hop offers practitioners a way of engaging with and knowing the world through music artistic and dance practices In this we take hip hop seriously as a cultural form through which practitioners and fans learn share and archive knowledge Hip hop practitioners are both the creators of and thinkers about hip hop they are local intellectuals The principal focus of this zine is on the voices of hip hop practitioners themselves as they not only tell but theorise hip hop history As accumulators of vinyl records flyers posters photographs and magazines ourselves we are interested in what these artefacts and archives can reveal to us about the creative acts of curating and remembering cultural history We are interested in exploring how involvement in hip hop culture shaped the lives of practitioners and provided a space for creatively imaginatively and intellectually engaging with the world around them

Kyle Lance Proudfoot, 2014 Evolutionary Essays Evolutionary Essays are essays which I started to write at York University in Toronto Canada and finished the FREE Drafts on 05/02/2012 They are in the genres of Philosophy Psychology Politics Economics Religion Culture History and Evolution with a good dosage of Humor and Intellect Evolutionary Essays is what I see as positive for this Planet and what is wrong especially in the Modern Western Civilization's This is not just pure optimism and will use sound logical argumentational and factual structures This is also to dispel highly prevalent pessimisms and reveal realities to regain constructive positivism which we have lost so many times nullifying our productivity life is a sine wave it is not about your success and failures but the fact you keep getting up again it is not if you win or lose but how you fight your battles it is not how you die but how you lived your life Debts not paid in this one are incurred in the next one This is to try and bring clarity and solutions from Observation and Experience the distinct realm of Philosophy This is a philosophical discourse description and narration using logic reason reduction deduction facts and argumentation to provide a point of view with constructive criticism and suggestions for improvement which may be adopted and or applied to Citizen's Government's or Corporation's A Philosopher's position is to ask questions not per se answer anything or be a Guide but rather point in the correct direction of the past present and future giving no more than a Guideline for you can only find your own will and way Where possible though it is highly relative one can try and reveal Truth Like Light versus Shadow it will always win in the end Truth is Commonality Regional Interests and Regional Actors Jörg Mathias, 2004-06-01 The question of how to organize and manage sustainable regional development has recently come to the fore in many places across the industrialized countries of Central and Western Europe and especially within the European Union EU This book looks at the home grown natural economic and social socio political political and administrative conditions which policy makers face while also being subjected to numerous external influences Political actors in less important EU regions attempt to create and implement strategies of regional development in the context of regional policy making by EU institutions national governments and the globalization process
