The Letter of Violence I. Avelar, 2017-03-15 This book traces the theory of violence from nineteenth century symmetrical warfare through today's warfare of electronics and unbalanced numbers Surveying such luminaries as Walter Benjamin Frantz Fanon Hannah Arendt Paul Virilio and Jacques Derrida Avelar also offers a discussion of theories of torture and confession the work of Roman Polanski and Borges and a meditation on the rise of the novel in Colombia

The Colonial Art of Demonizing Others Esther Lezra, 2014-03-21 The Colonial Art of Demonizing Others examines European mistranslations and misrepresentations of black freedom dreams and self activity as monstrous in the period of modern imperial consolidation roughly from 1750 to 1848 This book argues that Europe's archives of self understanding are haunted by the traces of Black radical resistance Just as Europe's economy came to depend upon the raw materials markets and labor it secured from the colonies European culture came to be based on fantasies and phobias derived from the unruly and unmanageable aftershocks of colonial violence and counter insurgency Rather than assert that European nationalist and abolitionist discourses are on the side of emancipatory movements the book shows the limits of the promise of that discourse and the continuation of those limitations that makes the continued pursuit of that promise a questionable activity This book does not wish to salvage the emancipatory promises of European discourse but considers the more difficult and uncomfortable question of why emancipatory movements represented the struggles of anticolonial and radical blackness the way they did The Colonial Art of Demonizing Others privileges the political reading not only of literary texts but also of historical documents and visual culture
