The Construction of Secret Hiding Places Charles Robinson, 1981 Have you ever needed to hide something where no one could find it Well this is the book for you Over 60 pages of clever hiding places large enough for guns jewelry and just about anything you can think of 5 5 x 8 5 63 pages illus softcover The Soul Sucker Albert Reneer, 2021-09-23 This book is about a horrific murder No one deserves to be slaughtered like this victim was and again like most evildoings it was over money The love of money is the root of all evil I never thought this adage to be completely true until this murder case and my eyes were opened It is true The house where this murder occurred is cursed and haunted to this day For some reason possibly because of my religious beliefs I have not had any spiritual problems during and after the serving of four search warrants at this house but several other officers and crime scene personnel did I cannot stress the fact enough that this house is evil I don t know the reason why but many others have sensed the evil in this property especially the house and they refuse to do any more searches with me in this house And I have decided to never give the location of this house ever because I have witnessed what it has done to other people s souls Legendary Trials Daniel J. Lanahan J.D., 2019-03-30 In an effort to show that history really does repeat itself and highlight great issues of our times this book captures the essence of certain trials that took place in the history of the United States and reminds us that many issues of old are still with us yet unresolved and subject to great continuing public interest The author argues that public perceptions of guilt or innocence are often wrong and could have actually affected the results of famous trials Celebrity murders governmental manipulation death penalty and civil rights issues provide some of the backdrop for discussions The guilt of famous accused ax murderers Lizzi Borden a white churchgoing maiden from New England is compared with the terrorists Sacco and Vanzetti The murder of a child by other youths Leopold and Loeb creates a forum to discuss the death penalty as argued by famous trial lawyer Clarence Darrow The death penalty as applied to minors was only recently decided by the US Supreme Court The Civil Rights Movement developed from the Scottsboro Boys trial and World War II is analyzed Military commissions and tribunals and the treatment of prisoners of war and enemy combatants are issues that arise out of the Nuremburg trial Social and religious debates are dealt with in the Scopes Monkey trial The right of choice developed in Roe vs Wade and the special college admission case of Bakke vs the Regents of the University of California are all discussed Finally the impeachments and trials of Clinton and Johnson are compared This review of the last one hundred years in the courts wherein major issues many still with us is enlightening and thought provoking
