With the rate of new business start ups being unaffected by the recession, more than a quarter of a million people in the UK start a business from home each year and four times that number giving it serious consideration. Entrepreneurs need little more than a laptop and a telephone line to start off with, but when the new business starts to expand they face the challenge of staying at home without sacrificing their growth potential. Starting a Business from Home identifies business opportunities, gives advice on preparation and set up and how you run, control and manage its growth. Now with extra exercises and end of chapter advice, this new edition includes researching the market, business ownership and title issues, raising the money and managing finances, building and operating a website, bringing a product to market and starting up overseas. With appendices giving home based business ideas and sources of help as well as advice on research, getting the business started and an indication of how much money could be made out of each business. Starting a Business from Home is an invaluable practical guide for the aspiring entrepreneur. More Jury Trials in the Classroom Betty M. See, Diane Elizabeth See, 2007-11 Kids will love exploring the justice system with the fun characters and stories found in More Jury Trials in the Classroom, the long awaited companion book to the best selling Jury Trials in the Classroom. Four new trial simulations are introduced, including a modern day version of the tortoise and the hare story and a reenactment of a trial featuring Susan B. Anthony. The simulations in this book let students delve into criminal and civil law with motivating cases that mirror situations in history, folklore and literature. In the roles of attorneys, members of the jury, defendants, witnesses and courtroom personnel, students prepare and conduct cases. They also will learn to use statements of fact and witness affidavits to determine guilt or innocence.
