Malice Erika Bornman, 2021-08-01 In the 1980s Erika Bornman's family join and ultimately move to KwaSizabantu a Christian mission based in KwaZulu Natal which is touted as a nirvana founded on egalitarian values But something sinister lurks beneath the place where people are helped Life at KwaSizabantu is hard Christianity is used to justify harsh punishments and congregants are forced to repent for their sins Threats of physical violence ensure adherence to stringent rules Parents are pitted against children Friendships are discouraged Isolated and alone Erika lives in constant fear of eternal damnation At 16 her grooming at the hands of a senior mission counsellor begins For the next five years KwaSizabantu wages emotional psychological and sexual warfare on her until finally she manages to break free and escape at the age of 21 Escaping a restrictive religious community is difficult but rehabilitation into normal life after a decade of ritual humiliation brainwashing and abuse is much more painful as Erika soon discovers She cannot ignore her knowledge of the grievous human rights abuses being committed at KwaSizabantu and so she embarks on a quest to expose the atrocities Mission of Malice My Exodus from KwaSizabantu chronicles Erika's journey from a fearful young girl to a fierce activist determined to do whatever it takes to save future generations and find personal redemption and self acceptance
