Momentum ,1993-02 The Church's Guide for Reading Paul Brevard S. Childs,2008 The Church's Guide for Reading Paul is the final work of a prolific and beloved biblical scholar Brevard Childs here turns his sharp scholarly eye to the works of the apostle Paul and makes an unusual argument the New Testament canon's formation was above all a hermeneutical exercise in which its anonymous apostles and postapostolic editors collected preserved and theologically shaped the material in order for the evangelical traditions to serve successive generations of Christians BOOK JACKET Reading Guide to Moving into the Ecumenical Future Loyes Spayd,2025-07-11 The goal of this guide is to assist Catholic parishioners priests students seminarians members of ecumenical groups and any interested Christians with some of the history of ecumenicism and the progress accomplished over the last two centuries Most importantly though is not only to read Fr Crossin's book Moving into the Ecumenical Future but also to gather with other Christians to learn pray grow spiritually and listen to the Holy Spirit Fr John strongly recommends the latter and to discern how best to move forward to make Fr John's dream of Christian unity a reality No doubt this is a huge daunting task but great and often difficult events happen when a community listens to and cooperates with the wisdom and grace of the Holy Spirit This guide and the book can be used in parish book clubs discussion clubs adult faith formation or prayer groups It can also be used as a course in the curriculum of Catholic high schools Catholic colleges and universities seminaries and divinity schools ecumenical groups diocesan groups professional ecumenists and for any community interested in the pursuit of Christian unity The Living Church ,1956

,2001 Participation and Covenant Dick Moes,2024-03-13 In Participation and Covenant Contours of a Theodramatic Theology Moes develops a theological framework that has participation in the life of God in Christ through the Spirit as its integrative center In doing so he enters into conversation with covenant or federal theology particularly as it has been presented by Michael Horton in which the integrative center is the concept of the covenant He argues that God s fundamental relationship with humanity does not entail a covenant ontology a fundamentally legal and ethical relationship to God as we find in Horton s presentation but rather an ontology of participating in God s loving presence in Christ through the Holy Spirit For this relationship we were created and this participation is therefore natural to us Accordingly a theodramatic framework that incorporates a reframed understanding of divine human covenants and that has participation in the life of God in Christ by the Spirit as its integrative center is better able to give direction for clearly communicating the gospel in our secular culture and for properly shaping our Christian identity and practice in the face of the secularism that affects the church too than Horton s framework of covenant theology
