Korean Pop Music , 2021-11-15 Korean popular music has in the last decade become a significant model for youth culture throughout Asia Yet although the Korean music industry is both vibrant and massive this is the first book length work devoted to the subject to appear in English The book offers a comprehensive account written by thirteen scholars of Korean Studies ethnomusicology and popular culture charting Korean pop from the 1930s to the present day from genres imitative of early twentieth century European and Japanese styles trot and yuhaengga to contemporary punk clubs rap bands and music television shows Consideration is given to South Korean singers who catered for US troops in the aftermath of the Korean War to acoustic guitar songs and their use in the 1970s student protest movements against military dictatorship to state propaganda pop and to the explosion of global styles that marked the 1990s Lyrics and dance media packaging and stage costumes song rooms and singing doctors highway songs and new folksongs as well as the impact of the Internet are all explored The book also includes extensive discussion of North Korean popular music and chapters on the Korean wave that swept Taiwan and the Chinese mainland at the start of the new millennium Gender and Labour in Korea and Japan Ruth Barraclough, Elyssa Faison, 2009-09-10 This book explores gender labour and class in Korea and Japan both during the twentieth century and today It shows how sexuality is inscribed in working class identities demonstrating that sexual and labor relations have been crucial factors in shaping the cultures of industrialization in both Japan and Korea Making Megacities in Asia Du Huynh, 2019-10-19 This book analyses and compares the development paths of five major cities in East and Southeast Asia since the early 1960s including Ho Chi Minh City Jakarta Manila Seoul and Shanghai In examining these five cases through a carefully crafted conceptual framework the author excavates an understanding of the dynamics that have enabled Seoul and Shanghai to become highly competitive as major engines of economic growth while simultaneously accounting for why the other three cities have faced numerous problems in terms of meeting their development goals Presenting both quantitative and qualitative data to trace the course of changes between 1960 and 2015 the case studies curate six possible explanations for the different cities developmental trajectories The book considers the national development strategy matters to the development of cities and positions the share of budget revenue retained for cities expenditure as critical The author demonstrates that consistently pursuing long term strategies is important and that public entrepreneurship with powerful supporting coalitions is vital The book illustrates how master plans have played limited roles in the building of cities and that fragmented governments are often at the root of the problems facing a city s development This book will be highly relevant to researchers in international and Asian urban development Entrepreneurial States Yves Tiberghien, 2018-07-05 In Entrepreneurial States an innovative examination of the comparative politics of reform in stakeholder systems Yves Tiberghien analyzes the modern partnership between the state and global capital in attaining structural domestic change The emergence of a powerful global equity market has altered incentives for the state and presented political leaders with a golden bargain the infusion of abundant and cheap capital into domestic stock markets in exchange for reform of corporate governance and other regulatory changes Drawing on extensive archival research and interviews with policy and corporate elites in Europe and East Asia Tiberghien asks why states such as Korea and France have embraced this opportunity and engaged in far reaching reforms to make their companies more attractive to foreign capital whereas Japan and Germany have moved forward much more grudgingly Interest groups and electoral institutions have their impacts but by tracing the unfolding dynamic of reform under different constraints Tiberghien shows that the role of political entrepreneurs is critical Such policy elites act as mediators between global forces and national constraints As risk takers and bargain builders Tiberghien finds they use corporate reform to reshape their political parties and to stake out new policy ground The degree of political autonomy available to them and the domestic organization of bureaucratic responsibility determine their ability to succeed New Korean Cinema Chi-Yun Shin, Julian Stringer, 2005 A wide ranging analysis of modern South Korean cinema South Korean Film Hyon Joo Yoo, 2021-01-01 South Korean Film Critical and Primary Sources is an essential three volume reference collection representing three distinct phases in the development of South Korean national cinema foregrounding how epochal characteristics inform the way in which the national cinema represents the penetrating thematic concern of auteur ship genre spectatorship gender and nation as well as the way in which these themes find expression in distinct visual styles and forms
