Dancing with the Gods Essays in Ga Ritual explores cosmological concepts and ritual actions of the Ga people of southeastern Ghana through case studies of calendrical agricultural rites social status transition rites and redressive rites Based on fieldwork in the 1960s the essays present descriptive analyses of verbal and non verbal ritual action While verbal ritual actions specify ideas pertinent to a particular rite non verbal ritual actions express more general concepts Kilson s analyses show how the same motifs of non verbal ritual action recur in sacred and secular Ga rites Whenever and wherever such motifs occur they convey the same basic underlying Ga concepts thereby creating a unified conceptual network of belief that is the foundation of the Ga ritual system The essays in this collection previously appeared in Anthropos Journal of African Studies Journal of Religion in Africa Parabola and Sextant An Introduction to Theology in Africa and the Kpelelogical Foundations of Christian Theology Charles Amarkwei, 2021-10-12 In this book African Christian theology is introduced as a Kpelelogical reflection about life in the context of Africa which exists in the context of the cosmos Kpelelogy is the ontological mode of being grasped by the agape of God in Christ by grace through faith in the power of the Holy Spirit By this mode African theology is introduced by way of a definition a principle of paradox and a description as well as a critical view of the works of African theologians It examines the issues of method criteria and sources of doing theology in Africa and introduces the method of Kpelelogy as an African theological method This is explored further as a holistic theological method that is conscious of its being in existence and its life in history that is driven by faith in the triune God in a pneumatic experience that has been termed in this book as the Kpelelogical ontological mode The book is ecumenical in view of its engagement with Christian tradition It presents a Kpelelogical theology that is concretely African and universally Christian in the Okpelejen Wulormor the cosmic Jesus Christ who is and was but beyond the munus triplex Priest King and Prophet threefold office of Jesus Christ that is to come Hence it is a theology which embraces elements of Reformed Lutheran Methodist Pentecostal Charismatic Roman Catholic and Eastern Orthodox theological insights in the African context THE OUTDOORING, DEDICATION AND NAMING OF AN AFRICAN CHILD VOLUME 1 Ernest H. C. Tetteh, 2016-03-22 The Outdoring Dedication and Naming of an African Child Ganyobi Kpojiemo History and Origin of the GaDangme people of Ghana A Black Intellectual's Odyssey Martin Kilson, 2021-07-06 In 1969 Martin Kilson became the first tenured African American professor at Harvard University where he taught African and African American politics for over thirty years In A Black Intellectual s Odyssey Kilson takes readers on a fascinating journey from his upbringing in the small Pennsylvania milltown of Ambler to his experiences attending Lincoln University the country s oldest HBCU to pursuing graduate study at Harvard before spending his entire career there as a faculty member This is as much a story of his travels from the racist margins of twentieth century America to one of the nation s most prestigious institutions as it is a portrait of the places that shaped him He gives a sweeping sociological tour of Ambler as a multiethnic working class company town while sketching the social economic and racial elements that marked everyday life From narrating the area s history of persistent racism and the racial politics in the integrated schools to describing the Black church s role in buttressing the town s small Black community Kilson vividly renders his experience of northern small town life during the 1930s and 1940s At Lincoln University Kilson s liberal political views coalesced as he became active in the local NAACP chapter While at Lincoln and during his graduate work at Harvard Kilson observed how class political and racial dynamics influenced his peers political engagement diverse career paths and relationships with white people As a young professor Kilson made a point of assisting Harvard s African American students in adapting to life at a white institution Throughout his career Kilson engaged in pioneering scholarship while mentoring countless students A Black Intellectual s Odyssey features contributions from three of his students a foreword by Cornel West and an afterword by Stefano Harney and Fred Moten

Pathways in Christian Music Communication Roberta R. King, 2009-01-01 Life is a pilgrimage For the Senufo of C te d Ivoire life consists of following the kologo that is the path the road or the way As such kologo is a key Senufo term that speaks of the directions people choose to follow in life A central aspect of following the Christian pathway among Senufo believers occurs through music Music serves as a major communication vehicle that speaks profoundly into the people s lives Thus Pathways in Christian Music Communication addresses the problem of contextualization of Christianity in Africa via the use of a people s indigenous music It focuses on the significance of culturally appropriate songs for effective communication of the Gospel within the African context In providing a history of the development of Christian songs among the Senufo a musical analysis of the songs and music culture identifying communication theory at work within the music making process and a content analysis of an emerging Senufo lyric theology King shows the pivotal role that a people s cultural music plays in integrating a people s worldview and daily lives with biblical teaching Finally King examines the influence and effect of songs in communicating the Gospel by showing how the pathway of a song leads to changes of allegiance to the living God and transformed lives Although set in West Africa essential principles and guidelines for doing ethnomusicological studies within missiology lies at the heart of this work
