Commercial Culture Leo Bogart,2017-09-29 American mass media are the world s most diverse rich and free Their dazzling resources variety and influence arouse envy in other countries Their failures are commonly excused on the grounds that they are creatures of the market that they give people what they want Commercial Culture focuses not on the glories of the media but on what is wrong with them and why and how they may be made better This powerful critique of American mass communication highlights four trends that sound an urgent call for reform the blurring of distinctions among traditional media and between individual and mass communication the increasing concentration of media control in a disturbingly small number of powerful organizations the shift from advertisers to consumers as the source of media revenues and the growing confusion of information and entertainment of the real and the imaginary The future direction of the media Leo Bogart contends should not be left to market forces alone He shows how the public s appetite for media differs from other demands the market is left to satisfy because of how profoundly the media shape the public s character and values Bogart concludes that a world of new communications technology requires a coherent national media policy respectful of the American tradition of free expression and subject to vigorous public scrutiny and debate Commercial Culture is a comprehensive analysis of the media as they evolve in a technological age It will appeal to general readers interested in mass communications as well as professionals and scholars studying American mass media Anne Morrow Lindbergh Susan Hertog,2000-10-17 An illuminating portrait of Anne Morrow Lindbergh loyal wife devoted mother pioneering aviator and critically acclaimed author of the bestselling Gift from the Sea Anne Morrow Lindbergh has been one of the most admired women and most popular writers of our time Her Gift from the Sea is a perennial favorite But the woman behind the public person has remained largely unknown Drawing on five years of exclusive interviews with Anne Morrow Lindbergh as well as countless diaries letters and other documents Susan Hertog now gives us the woman whose triumphs struggles and elegant perseverance riveted the public for much of the twentieth century The Zhivago Affair Peter Finn,Petra

Couvée,2015-04-28 The Zhivago Affair is the dramatic never before told story drawing on newly declassified files of how a forbidden book became a secret CIA weapon in the ideological battle between East and West In May 1956 an Italian publishing scout went to a village outside Moscow to visit Russia s greatest living poet Boris Pasternak He left carrying the manuscript of Pasternak s only novel suppressed by Soviet authorities From there the life of this extraordinary book entered the realm of the spy novel The CIA published a Russian language edition of Doctor Zhivago and smuggled it into the Soviet Union Copies were devoured in Moscow and Leningrad sold on the black market and passed from friend to friend Pasternak s funeral in 1960 was attended by thousands who defied their government to bid him farewell and his example launched the great tradition of the Soviet writer dissident First to obtain CIA files providing proof of the agency s involvement Peter Finn and Petra Couv e take us back to a remarkable Cold War era when literature had the power to stir the world With 8 pages of black and white illustrations Changing the System: The Music of Christian Wolff Stephen Chase,2016-04-08

Christian Wolff is a composer who has followed a distinctive path often at the centre of avant garde activity working alongside figures such as John Cage Merce Cunningham and Cornelius Cardew In a career spanning sixty years he has produced a significant and influential body of work that has aimed to address in a searching and provocative manner what it means to be an experimental and socially aware artist This book provides a wide ranging introduction to a composer often overlooked despite his influence upon many of the major figures in new music since the 1950s from Cage to John Zorn to the new wave of experimentalists across the globe As the first detailed analysis of the music of this prolific and highly individual composer Changing the System The Music of Christian Wolff contains contributions from leading experts in the field of new and experimental music as well as from performers and composers who have worked with Wolff The reception of Wolff s music is discussed in relation to the European avant garde and also within the context of Wolff s association with Cage and Feldman Music from his earliest compositions of the 1950s the highly indeterminate scores the politically inspired pieces up to the most recent works are discussed in detail both in relation to their compositional techniques general aesthetic development and matters of performance The particular challenges and aesthetic issues arising from Wolff's idiosyncratic notations and the implications for performers are a central theme Likewise the ways in which Wolff's political persuasions which arguably account for some of the notational methods he chooses have been worked out through his music are examined With a foreword by his close associate Michael Parsons this is a valuable addition to experimental music literature

Stop Reading! Look! Pepper Stetler, 2015-12-07 In the second half of the Weimar period 1918-33 photographers produced books consisting almost entirely of sequenced images The subjects ranged widely from plants and nature to the modern metropolis from exotic cultures to the German Volk from anonymous workers to historical figures While many of the books were created by key practitioners and theorists of modern photography scholars have rarely addressed the significance of the book format to modern conceptions of photographic meaning The term photo essay implies that these photographic books were equivalent to literary endeavors created by replacing text with images but such assumptions fail to explore the motivations of the books makers Stop Reading! Look! argues that Weimar photographic books stood at the center of debates about photography's ability to provide uniquely visual forms of perception and cognition that exceed the capacity of the textual realm Each chapter provides a sustained analysis of a photographic book while also bringing the cultural social and political context of the Weimar Republic to bear on its relevance and meaning

Four Novels in Jung's 1925 Seminar Matthew A. Fike, 2020-01-27 C. G. Jung believed that popular fiction often conveyed unvarnished psychological truths In this volume Matthew A. Fike skillfully analyzes the novels under consideration in Jung's 1925 seminar on analytical psychology corrects Jung's ill-informed perspectives and sheds light on a neglected area of Jungian literary studies Jung originally planned to discuss several novels about the anima Henry Rider Haggard's She, Pierre Benoit's L'Atlantide and Gustav Meyrink's The Green Face At the request of his participants he dropped Meyrink and included a text about the animus Marie Hay's The Evil Vineyard Fike demonstrates that Haggard's She and Benoit's L'Atlantide portray anima possession the visionary and psychological modes and traditional versus Jungian approaches to history Meyrink's smorgasbord of Jungian theory and religion makes The Green Face a fictional counterpart to The Red Book and both Meyrink and Hay depict states of higher consciousness that transcend the archetypes The distinction between archetypal and spiritual possession demonstrates that The Evil Vineyard is a ghost story and the study concludes with Hay's dozens of allusions which provide important metacommentary Four Novels in Jung's 1925 Seminar the first comprehensive study of all four texts complements seminal works by Cornelia Brunner and Barbara Hannah critiques the seminar discussion recorded in William McGuire's edition of Analytical Psychology: Notes of the Seminar Given in 1925 by C. G. Jung and incorporates Jung's own comments on the four novels in The Collected Works Thus it provides an essential addition to Jungian literary studies and will appeal both to students and practitioners of Jungian analytical psychology and to scholars of British, French, and German literature every successive life Jung becomes shrouded in an ever increasing web of rumour gossip innuendo and fantasy We may ask why Jung biographies are so filled with shortcomings How did Jung become a fiction This book addresses these issues It demonstrates the pitfalls and fallacies of such works and sets out how his life and work should be approached on a historical basis drawing on decades of archival investigation and new documentation It surveys attempts to write Jung's biography from during his own lifetime until the present shows how Memories Dreams Reflections came to be falsely perceived as his autobiography and why his Collected Works was never completed Thus this work lays out an agenda for future studies and discussions of Jung the reception of his work and its impact on contemporary culture German Expressionism Museum of Modern Art (New York, N.Y.), Starr Figura, Peter Jelavich, 2011 Catalog of an exhibition held at the Museum of Modern Art New York Mar 27 July 11 2011 Lindbergh A.
