L Oeuvre Au Noir:

Baroque Fictions Margaret Elizabeth Colvin, 2005-01-01 This volume is the first in depth study of the French novelist Marguerite Yourcenar's fiction to contend that the author's texts exhibit in unexpected ways numerous characteristics of the neobaroque This subversive postmodern aesthetic privileges extravagant artistic play flux and heterogeneity In demonstrating the affinity of Yourcenar's texts with the neobaroque the author of this study casts doubt on their presumed transparency and stability qualities associated with the French neoclassical tradition of the past century where the Yourcenarian oeuvre is most often placed Yourcenar's election to the prestigious tradition bound French Academy in 1981 as its first female immortal cemented her already well established niche in the twentieth century French literary pantheon A self taught classicist historian and modern day French moralist Yourcenar has been praised for her polished classical style and analyzed for her use of myth and universal themes While those factors at first seem to justify amply the neoclassical label by which Yourcenar is most widely recognized this study's close reading of four of her fictions reveals instead the texts opacity and subversive resistance to closure their rejection of stable interpretations and their deconstruction of postmodern Grand Narratives Theirs is a neobaroque logic which stresses the absence of theoretical assurances and the limitations of reason The coincidence of the new millennium which in so many ways reflects Yourcenar's disquieting vision and her centenary in 2003 affords not so much an excuse to reject the author's neoclassical label but rather the obligation to reassess it in light of contemporary discourses This study will be of interest to students of twentieth century French fiction and comparative literature especially that of the latter half of the twentieth century

A Constant Journey Erika Ostrovsky, 1991 From the creation of a neuter pronoun in her earliest work L'Opoponax to the confusion of genres in her most recent fiction Virgile non Monique Wittig uses literary subversion and invention to accomplish what Erika Ostrovsky appropriately defines as renversement the annihilation of existing literary canons and the creation of highly innovative constructs Erika Ostrovsky explores those aspects of Wittig's work that best illustrate her literary approach Among the countless revolutionary devices that Wittig uses to achieve renversement are the feminization of masculine gender names the reorganization of myth patterns and the replacement of traditional punctuation with her own system of grammatical emphasis and separation It is the unexpected quantity and quality of such literary devices that make reading Monique Wittig's fiction a fresh and rewarding experience Such literary devices have earned Wittig the acclaim of her critics and peers Marguerite Duras Mary McCarthy Alain Robbe Grillet Nathalie Sarraute and Claude Simon to name a few While analyzing the intrinsic value of each of Wittig's fictions separately Erika Ostrovsky traces the progressive development of Wittig's major literary devices as they appear and reappear in her fictions Ostrovsky maintains that the seeds of those innovations that appear in Wittig's most recent texts can be found as far back as L'Opoponax This evidence of progression supports Ostrovsky's theory that clues to Wittig's future endeavors can be found in her past

, Marguerite Yourcenar Jeanine S. Alesch, 2007 The Troubling

Play of Gender Maria Stadter Fox, 2001 Although these three modernist writers were not primarily playwrights as expatriates they were interested in the Euripidean theme of women in exile each independently chose to rewrite Euripides Hippolytus a play in which the protagonist is a woman in exile whose speech writing and passion are deeply problematic Each author approaches the Euripidean material in a different way Tsvetaeva focuses on gender in language Yourcenar explores the gendering of a self and H D performs the undoing of gendered oppositions BOOK JACKET Yourcenar Dramaturge Martine J. Kincaid, 2005 Theatre of ideas the theatre of Marguerite Yourcenar lets us foresee the philosophical fabric which implies its writing a vision of the world with lucid tragic and revolutionary time Order and measurement characterize the style of Yourcenar This s Ethical Issues in Twentieth Century French Fiction C. Davis, 1999-12-08 This book examines ethical problems raised by a number of key twentieth century theoretical and fictional texts by authors such as Levinas Sartre Beauvoir Yourcenar Duras and Genet It argues that even texts which apparently espouse ethical positions based on respect for and responsibility towards others frequently depict conflict as an insurmountable aspect of human relations This is reflected at an aesthetic level as these texts both describe the struggle for supremacy and replicate it in their relation to their readers The Reel Middle Ages Kevin J. Harty, 2015-08-13 Those tales of old King Arthur Robin Hood The Crusades Marco Polo Joan of Arc have been told and retold and the tradition of their telling has been gloriously upheld by filmmaking from its very inception From the earliest of Georges Melies s films in 1897 to a 1996 animated Hunchback of Notre Dame film has offered not just fantasy but exploration of these roles so vital to the modern psyche St Joan has undergone the transition from peasant girl to self assured saint and Camelot has transcended the soundstage to evoke the Kennedys in the White House Here is the first comprehensive survey of more than 900 cinematic depictions of the European Middle Ages date of production country of origin director production company cast and a synopsis and commentary A bibliography index and over 100 stills complete this remarkable work Magnificent Obsessions Jean Fornasiero, Rosemary Lloyd, 2014-08-11 This volume is a tribute to the life and work of Hazel Rowley internationally acclaimed biographer who died unexpectedly in March 2011 Her passions were many and varied biography politics questions of race and sexuality the ways in which couples negotiate the dilemmas posed by the need to retain their individuality while building a life as a couple the deleterious effects of imposing a corporate mentality on universities all these and more were subjects of intense interest to her This collection combines essays responding to many of those interests with creative writing to honour the complexity and variety of her own magnificent contribution Hazel Rowley whose life and work are honoured in this collection was the author of many articles and essays and four outstanding biographies Christina Stead A Biography Richard Wright The Life and Times T te T te Simone de Beauvoir and Jean Paul Sartre and Franklin and Eleanor An Extraordinary Marriage European Liberty P. Manent, R. Hausheer, W. Karpinski, W. Kaiser, 2012-12-06 This book has been published to mark the twenty fifth anniversary of the Erasmus Prize and underline the importance of the four laureates who received the Prize in the jubileum year Raymon

Aron Isaiah Berlin Leszek Kolakowski and Marguerite Yourcenar can be considered four outstanding representatives of the unique European intellectual tradition that is characterised by its critical sense and respect for freedom of the individual. It is for this reason that they have been awarded the Erasmus Prize. The essays included in this book are devoted to these four personalities: a Frenchman strongly influenced by the German philosophical tradition, a Russian who has settled in Oxford, a philosopher banned from his native Poland, and a Frenchwoman of Belgian origin living in America. Each has demonstrated in his or her own way that the ideas and ideals of European culture and tradition are of lasting value. Each recognizes that human values can only flourish in a pluralistic society, a society in which le juste milieu must constantly be sought. The temptation to succumb to monistic, dogmatic and intolerant tendencies that continue to threaten our civilisation, not only from the outside but also from within, must be continually resisted. The dignity of man reaches full maturity first and foremost in a society in which man is the moulder and maker of himself and freedom of the individual stands central.

Literature and Spirituality David Bevan, 2023-12-18 Encyclopedia of French Film Directors Philippe Rège, 2009-12-11 Cinema has been long associated with France, dating back to 1895 when Louis and Auguste Lumière screened their works, the first public viewing of films anywhere. Early silent pioneers Georges Méliès, Alice Guy Blaché and others followed in the footsteps of the Lumière brothers, and the tradition of important filmmaking continued throughout the 20th century and beyond. In Encyclopedia of French Film Directors Philippe Rège identifies every French director who has made at least one feature film since 1895. From undisputed masters to obscure one timers, nearly 3 000 directors are cited here, including at least 200 filmmakers not mentioned in similar books published in France. Each director's entry contains a brief biographical summary, including dates and places of birth and death, information on the individual's education and professional training, and other pertinent details such as real names when the filmmaker uses a pseudonym. The entries also provide complete filmographies, including credits for feature films, shorts, documentaries, and television work. Some of the most important names in the history of film can be found in this encyclopedia, from masters of the Golden Age, Jean Renoir and René Clair, to French New Wave artists such as François Truffaut and Jean-Luc Godard.

Marguerite Yourcenar Josyane Savigneau, 1993-10 One of the most respected writers in the French language and best known as the author of Memoirs of Hadrian and The Abyss, Yourcenar received countless literary honors and became the first woman to be elected to the Académie Française. An uncompromising and intimate portrait. 50 halftones.

L'Œuvre au noir Marguerite Yourcenar, 1968 Chronique alchimique se déroulant au Moyen Âge et dans laquelle l'rudition quoique exhaustive n'est jamais pesante

"We Met in Paris" Joan E Howard, 2018-05-31 Grace Frick introduced English language readers all over the world to the distinguished French author Marguerite Yourcenar with her award-winning translation of Yourcenar's novel Memoirs of Hadrian in 1954. European biographies of Yourcenar have often disparaged Frick and her relationship with Yourcenar, however. This work shows Frick as a person of substance in her own right and paints a portrait of both women that is at once intimate and scrupulously documented It contains a great deal of new information that will disrupt long held beliefs about Yourcenar and may even shock some of her scholars and fans

The Documentary Imagination in Twentieth-Century French Literature Alison James, 2020-09-03 The Documentary Imagination in Twentieth Century French Literature identifies a documentary impulse in French literature that emerges at the end of the nineteenth century and culminates in a proliferation of factual writings in the twenty first Focusing on the period bookended by these two moments it highlights the enduring concern with factual reference in texts that engage either with current events or the historical archive Specifically it considers a set of ideas and practices centered on the conceptualization and use of documents In doing so it contests the widespread narrative that twentieth century French literature abandons the realist enterprise and argues that writers instead renegotiate the realist legacy outside or at the margins of the fictional space of the novel Analyzing works by authors including Gide Breton Aragon Yourcenar Duras and Modiano the book defines a specific documentary mode of literary representation that records assembles and investigates material traces of reality The document is a textual visual or material piece of evidence repurposed through its visual insertion textual transcription or description within a literary work It is a fact but it also becomes a figure standing for literature s confrontation with the real The documentary imagination involves a fantasy of direct access to a reality that speaks for itself At the same time it gives rise to concrete textual practices that open up new directions for literature by interrogating the construction and interpretation of facts

"And that's true too" Pierre Iselin, François Laroque, 2009-10-02 This collection of provocative new essays mainly by French scholars on Shakespeare s great tragedy focuses on linguistic aesthetic and philosophical issues with specific attention paid to the dimension of early modern desire sexuality and gender relations King Lear is here re examined in the perspective of Lucrece Montaigne Renaissance medicine and anatomy the grotesque myth and imagery as well as negative theology It is hoped that this will serve to update our approaches to this elusive undecided play neither Christian nor as completely nihilistic as some critics have argued which nevertheless remains quite popular on French and English stages alike

Maine's Remarkable Women Kate Kennedy, 2016-05-01 Maine s Remarkable Women tells the stories of fifteen strong and determined women who broke through social cultural or political barriers Through their passions for art exploration literature politics music and nature these women made contributions to society that still resonate today Meet Marguerite Tante Blanche Thibodeau Cyr The Mother of Madawaska whose bravery and kindness during one brutal winter saved her frontier settlement botanist artist Kate Furbish who explored Maine s wilderness collecting classifying and painting all of its flowering plants and Florence Nicolay a Native American basketmaker who demanded and succeeded in gaining rights for her tribe the Penobscots Each of these women demonstrated courage compassion and an independence of spirit that is as inspiring now as it was then Read about their extraordinary lives in this collection of brief and absorbing biographies

Diffraction Patterns in Quantum Physics Birgit M. Kaiser, Kathrin Thiele, 2018-10-18 Diffraction patterns in quantum physics evidence the fact that the behavior of matter is the result of its entanglements with measurement or as Karen Barad suggests the entanglement of matter and meaning In this sense therefore phenomena including texts cultural agents or life forms are the results of their relational onto epistemological entanglements and not individual entities that separately pre exist their joint becoming As such diffraction proposes a new understanding of difference no longer a dualist understanding but one going beyond binaries Diffraction is about patterns constellations relationalities From this angle the book explores diffraction which has begun to impact critical theories and humanities debates especially via new materialist feminisms STS and quantum thought but is often used without further reflection upon its implications or potentials Doing just that the book also pursues new routes for the onto epistemological and ethical challenges that arise from our experience of the world as relational and radically immanent because if we start from the ideas of immanence and entanglement our conceptions of self and other culture and nature cultural and sexual difference our epistemological procedures and disciplinary boundaries have to be rethought and adjusted The book offers an in depth consideration of diffraction as a quantum understanding of difference and as a new critical reading method It reflects on its import in humanities debates and thereby also on some of the most inspiring work recently done at the crossroads of science studies feminist studies and the critical humanities This book was originally published as a special issue of Parallax

Francophone Film Lieve Spaas, 2000 Covering the rich film production of Belgium Switzerland Quebec the Caribbean North Africa and Sub Saharan Africa this book brings together films that might otherwise be divided by questions of race gender genre period or nation in a valuable comparative study of a diverse corpus Individual countries film makers and films are treated separately in order to emphasize their specific identities or those which are represented in their films and key films are examined within a well developed historical context Clearly written and accessible to the specialist and general reader alike this informative book is a valuable reference source
