La amortajada María Luisa Bombal, 1968 A Companion to Modern Spanish American Fiction Donald Leslie Shaw, 2002

With such figures as Jorge Luis Borges Miguel Ángel Asturias and Gabriel García Márquez both the latter Nobel Prize winners Spanish American fiction is now unquestionably an integral part of the mainstream of Western literature This book draws on the most recent research in describing the origins and development of narrative in Spanish America during the nineteenth and twentieth centuries tracing the pattern from Romanticism and Realism through Modernismo Naturalism and Regionalism to the Boom and beyond It shows how while seldom moving completely away from satire social criticism and protest Spanish American fiction has evolved through successive phases in which both the conceptions of the writer's task and presumptions about narrative and reality have undergone radical alterations DONALD SHAW holds the Brown Forman Chair of Spanish American literature in the University of Virginia

Antigone's Daughters Marta L. Wilkinson, 2008 Antigone's Daughters presents various readings of the classical myth of Antigone as interpreted through modern feminist and psychoanalytic literary theories Topics such as femininity education and establishing selfhood amidst the restrictions of the patriarchal society presented by Sophocles provide the foundation for the modern novel This study serves as a model for the comparative interpretation of literary works of the nineteenth and twentieth centuries including the writings of George Sand Indiana Karolina Pavlova A Double Life Nikolai Chernyshevsky What Is to Be Done Emile Zola L'Assommoir and Nana Mar

María Luisa Bombal La amortajada and Isabel Allende The House of the Spirits Each chapter isolates an aspect of Antigone's struggle within both the public and domestic spheres as she negotiates her independence and asserts her voice A valuable tool for the study of modern literature the universality of Antigone presented in this study prompts the investigation of many classical motifs while providing a thorough study of various national literatures within their own contemporary contexts

La escritora en la sociedad latinoamericana Luisa Ballesteros Rosas, 1997 A Companion to Latin American Literature Stephen M. Hart, 2007

The evolution of Latin American literature A Companion to Latin American Literature offers a lively and informative introduction to the most significant literary works produced in Latin America from the fifteenth century until the present day It shows how the press and its product the printed word functioned as the common denominator binding together in different ways over time the complex and variable relationship between the writer the reader and the state The meandering story of the evolution of Latin American literature from the letters of discovery written by Christopher Columbus and Vaz de Caminha via the Republican era at the end of the nineteenth century when writers in Rio de Janeiro as much as in Buenos Aires were beginning to live off their pens as journalists and serial novelists until the 1960s when writers of the quality of Clarice Lispector in Brazil and García Márquez in Colombia suddenly burst onto the world stage is traced chronologically in six chapters which introduce the main writers in the main genres of poetry prose the

The Lyrical Vision of María Luisa Bombal Celeste Kostopulos-Cooperman, 1988 This volume contains an examination of what are described as the most poetic examples of Chilean prose written in the 20th century By adopting Ralph Freedman's conceptual definition of lyrical narrative and using it as her point of departure Professor Kostopulos Cooperman argues that the protean and magical nature of Bombal's lyrical prose transcends the causal temporal and spatial movement that characterizes conventional fiction In her view Bombal's work is rather a narrative that arises in the poetic imagination of a narrator who creates a tapestry of expanding musical and pictorial patterns frequently reflecting the inner lives of her protagonists alienated heroines who withdraw into an illusory world of dreams fantasies and idealized realities where the conflict between self and other is rendered through a suggestive and contemplative network of subjective associations
