Caribbean Interfaces Lieven d' Hulst,2007 Contemporary research on Caribbean literature displays a rich variety of themes literary and cultural categories forms genres languages Still the concept of a unified Caribbean literary space remains questionable depending upon whether one strictly limits it to the islands enlarges it to adopt a Latin American perspective or even grants it inter American dimensions This book is an ambitious tentative to bring together specialists from various disciplines neither just French Spanish English or Comparative studies specialists nor strictly Caribbean literature specialists but also theoreticians cultural studies scholars historians of cultural translation and of intercultural transfers The contributions tackle two major questions what is the best possible division of labor between comparative literature cultural anthropology and models of national or regional literary histories how should one make use of transversal concepts such as

memory space linguistic awareness intercultural translation orature or hybridization Case studies and concrete projects for integrated research alternate with theoretical and historiographical contributions This volume is of utmost interest to students of Caribbean studies in general but also to anyone interested in Caribbean literatures in Spanish English and French as well as to students in comparative literature cultural studies and transfer research Cubanthropy Iván de la Nuez,2023-11-07 Cuban art critic and curator Iván de la Nuez explores the effects of the policies that have tried to constrain or liberate Cuba in recent decades in these sparkling essays of cultural criticism Essays on Cuba and the Cuban diaspora on racism and Big Data Guantánamo and Reggaeton soccer and baseball Obama and the Rolling Stones Europe and Donald Trump de la Nuez approaches his criticism with singularity of purpose In Cubanthropy he does not set out to explain Cuba to the world but rather to put the world into a Cuban context Nothing explains our vexed world quite like Cuba and no one anywhere writes more brilliantly more prophetically more impossibly than Iván de la Nuez As in all of his finest work Cubanthropy delivers you beyond your old horizons into a realm of startling possibilities Do not miss this extraordinary book or this extraordinary warlock of a writer Junot Díaz author of This Is How You Lose Her Cubanthropy may just be the smartest writing on Cuba and beyond I've read in ages Insightful unsparing funny and with an unerring eye for the paradoxical Iván de la Nuez has written the definitive compilation on 21st century Cuba Essential reading for all who care about how the past present and future are disturbingly converging on the island and off Cristina García author of forthcoming Vanishing Maps Cuban-American Literature and Art Isabel Alvarez Borland,Lynette M. its cultures than through literature For millennia literature from a wide variety of geocultural areas has gathered knowledge about life about survival and about living together without either falling into discursive or disciplinary specializations or functioning as a regulatory mechanism for cultural knowledge Literature is able to offer its readers knowledge through direct participation in the form of step by step intellectual and affective experiences Through this ability it can reach and affect audiences across great spatial and temporal distances Literature what different times and cultures have been able to understand as such in a broad sense has always been characterized by its transareal and transcultural origins and effects It is the product of many logics and it teaches us to think polylogically rather than monologically Literature is an experiment in living and living in a state of experimentation About the author Ottmar Ette has been Chair of Romance Literature at the University of Potsdam Germany since 1995 He is Honorary Member of the Modern Language Association of America MLA elected in 2014 member of the Berlin Brandenburg Academy of Sciences and Humanities elected in 2013 and regular member of the Academia Europaea since 2010 Cuba in the Special Period A.
