Staging art and Chineseness Jane Chin Davidson, 2019-12-17 This book addresses the politics of borders in the era of global art by exploring the identification of Chinese artists by location and exhibition Focusing on performative body oriented video works by the post 1989 generation it tests the premise of genealogical inscription and the ways in which cultural objects are attributed to the artist's residency homeland or citizenship rather than cultural tradition style or practice Acknowledging historical definitions of Chineseness including the orientalist assumptions of the past and the cultural mixing of the present the book's case studies address the paradoxes and contradictions of representation An analysis of the historical matrix of global expositions reveals the structural connections among art culture capital and nation

Perspecta 56 Guillermo Acosta Navarrete, Gabriel Gutierrez Huerta, 2024-07-23 Exploring architecture as a form of concealment and obfuscation in engendering new ways of understanding conceptualizing and reshaping the world Architecture is the perfect form of camouflage As buildings recede into the background of everyday life the myriad forces that shape our natural social and political landscapes hide in plain sight Embedded within the spatial and material organizations of the built environment are ideas of value hierarchy and control that tilt the ground and influence perception in the name of endless competing interests Operating across multiple scales and mediums architectural camouflage gives familiar form to obscure objectives Design transforms and encodes our shared environments from domestic domains to digital territories through its material practices aesthetics and discourses Immanent in the periphery architecture's images are internalized as forms for understanding and reshaping the world Camouflage in turn dwells in the architecture of our collective subconscious Latent within architecture's deceptions is a profound capacity to reflect the elusive intentions and surreal ambiguities of our ecological entanglements In masking hierarchies and shifting sensitivities to what escapes perception architecture can engender vital questions around the agency and significance of its world making practices Mediating with and within the background architecture can awaken new modes of attention to material and social layers previously unimagined or hidden and engage directly with the mirrored frameworks that define reality This issue of Perspecta considers the complexities and potentialities of architectural concealment obfuscation and mimicry of the power inherent in architecture s expanding capacity as media In the veiled extents of our physical and digital worlds what is still not found Contributors APRDELESP and Xavier Nueno Guitart Ashley Bigham and Erik Herrmann Esther M Choi feminist architecture collaborative Marianela D Aprile and Douglas Spencer Theo Deutinger and Christopher Clarkson DESIGN EARTH David Freeland and Brennan Buck Linda Gordon Noah Kalina Dana Karwas Andrew Economos Miller M C Overholt and Alex Whee Kim Trevor Paglen Lukas Pauer Nina Rappaport David Sadighian Matthew Soules Jerome Tryon Michael Young
