La Calaca Review Alurista, 2003 A bellwether work of literary importance students of United States literature will recognize in La Revista Calaca a parallel to 1969's El Espejo The Mirror that introduced the genre of Chicano Literature launching several important literary careers Michael Sedano La Calaca Review is Literary Highlight of 2003 Aquí Estamos--ya Nos Vamos Francisco J. Bustos, Michael Cheno Wickert, 2006 This book is a collection of poetry and prose that explores the unique relationship between people and the places they inhabit in the San Diego Tijuana metropolitan area Although the act of physically crossing the border is ever present the San Ysidro Port of Entry is after all the most crossed border in the world many other aspects compose the lives of border dwellers While food music and architecture mix the concrete world language mythology and culture mix in the psyche and the soul of those who cross the line This is a book which resides on the fence split yet more complete because it works to unify where others work diligently to divide The Chicano Latino Literary Prize Stephanie Fetta, 2008-01-01 David is mine Mrs Renteria shouts out to her neighbors gathered about the dead but handsome young man found in the dry riverbed next to their homes in a Los Angeles barrio David Tiburcio asked Since when is his name David He looks to me more like a Tiburcio glanced at the man's face a Luis Mrs Renteria's neighbors call out a litany of names that better suit the mysterious corpse Roberto Antonio Henry Enrique Miguel Roy Rafael The very first winner of the Chicano Latino Literary Prize in 1974 Ron Arias The Wetback uses dark humor to reflect on the appearance of a dead brown man in their midst This landmark collection of prize winning fiction poetry and drama paints a historical and aesthetic panorama of Chicana o and Latina o letters over a twenty five year period beginning in 1974 and ending in 1999 Most but not all of the winning entries are featured in this anthology which also includes second and third place winners as well as honorable mentions Now entering its thirty first year the award has recognized a wide variety of writers from established ones such as Juan Felipe Herrera Michael Nava and Helena Maria Viramontes to those that are lesser known Many of the pieces in this anthology are considered to be foundational texts of Chicana o and Latina o literature and those that are not as widely recognized deserve more serious study and attention Presented in chronological order the selected writings are primarily in English although some are written in Spanish and others in Spanglish Some like Francisco X Alarcon's poem Raices Roots appear in both languages Mis raices las cargo siempre conmigo enrolladas me sirven de almohada I carry my roots with me all the time rolled up I use them as my pillow In addition to the diverse array of authors styles and genres the works included in this collection cover a wide range of themes from more political issues of ethnic gender and class The Pennsylvania Review, 1994 Alternative Publishers of Books in North America Byron Anderson, 2006 This directory is a unique reference tool that gathers information on significant alternative presses 126 U S presses 19 Canadian and 18 international presses having either a North American address or distributor Thirty three presses are new to this edition Falling Angels Olga Angelina García Echeverría, 2008 Poetry Fiction Latino Latina Studies
