Lessons in Ndebele J. N. Pelling, Pamela Pelling, 2007? Zimbabwean Transitions Mbongeni Z. Malaba, Geoffrey V. Davis, 2007 This collection of essays on Zimbabwean literature brings together studies of both Rhodesian and Zimbabwean literature spanning different languages and genres It charts the at times painful process of the evolution of Rhodesian Zimbabwean identities that was shaped by pre colonial colonial and post colonial realities The hybrid nature of the society emerges as different writers endeavour to make sense of their world Two essays focus on the literature of the white settler The first distils the essence of white settlers alienation from the Africa they purport to civilize revealing the delusional fixations of the racist mindset that permeates the discourse of the white man s burden in imperial narratives The second takes up the theme of alienation found in settler discourse showing how the collapse of the white supremacists dream when southern African countries gained independence left many settlers caught up in a profound identity crisis Four essays are devoted to Ndebele writing They focus on the praise poetry composed for kings Mzilikazi and Lobengula the preponderance of historical themes in Ndebele literature the dilemma that lies at the heart of the modern Ndebele identity and the fossilized views on gender roles found in the works of leading Ndebele novelists both female and male The essays on English language writing chart the predominantly negative view of women found in the fiction of Stanley Nyamfukudza assess the destabilization of masculine identities in post colonial Zimbabwe evaluate the complex vision of life and reality in Charles Mungoshi s short stories as exemplified in the tragic isolation of many of his protagonists and explore Dambudzo Marechera s obsession with isolated threatened individuals in his hitherto generally neglected dramas The development of Shona writing is surveyed in two articles the first traces its development from its origins as a colonial educational tool to the more critical works of the post 1980 independence phase the second turns the spotlight on written drama from 1968 when plays seemed divorced from the everyday realities of people s lives to more recent work which engages with corruption and the perversion of the moral order The volume also includes an illuminating interview with Irene Staunton the former publisher of Baobab Books and now of Weaver Press Ndebele Victoria Lotridge, 2002 Translations on Sub-Saharan Africa United States. Joint Publications Research Service, 1978 Zambezia , 1980 Language Science and Language technology in Africa Steve Ndinga-Koumba-Binza, Sonja E Bosch, 2012-10-01 This book provides a broad overview of current work on South African languages language resources and language technologies While it provides a fairly comprehensive overview it also ties together the most recent knowledge state here and is therefore truly innovative The book is therefore informed by current international trends in the respective fields of science and feeds back into them There is absolutely no doubt that the book has an academic peer audience and is directed at specialists in the field Prof Axel Fleisch University of Helsinki Finland The Classroom as Privileged Space Tapo Chimbganda, 2017-07-28 The Classroom as Privileged Space Psychoanalytic Paradigms for Social Justice in Pedagogy examines the psychic and emotional effects of the dehumanization of children based on social discrimination and difference within schooling Used as a tool to critique the current state of social justice within education psychoanalysis allows for a focus on the individual within the social context of schooling It highlights the emotional structures that can develop in children and learners through the oft repeated trauma of racism and homophobia This book draws from the articulated experiences of three writers and urges the reader to approach the work of the writers and this book as a witness and as one who is enabled to respond through acquiring knowledge and acting on it Drawing from scholars in psychoanalysis sociology and education Tapo Chimbhanda posits that perhaps the safe space education has been touting is not what is necessary to cultivate diversity equity and inclusion in classrooms Rather privilege re imagined through psychoanalytic technique can make possible the elements of social justice that have long frustrated silenced and escaped the classroom

Zimbabwean Literature in African Languages Emmanuel Chiwome, Zifikile Mguni, 2012 The scope of this book is Ndebele and Shona literature with emphasis on post independence publications African literature in English has received more critical attention than literature in indigenous languages The former has occupied centre stage as representing national literature while modern literature in indigenous languages occupies the intermediate lower stratum that is accorded to national languages in the colonial and post independence eras The objective of the study is to combine some of the different genres of literature in indigenous languages in an attempt to understand them on the basis of their common history and culture While colonialism has promoted and interpreted differences among Zimbabwean ethnic communities as evidence of polarisation the authors here view African language literatures as parts of one great whole

Ndebele Lessons W. J. Ndlovu, 194? Learning Zulu Mark Sanders, 2019-06-04 Why are you learning Zulu When Mark Sanders began studying the language he was often asked this question In Learning Zulu Sanders places his own endeavors within a wider context to uncover how in the past 150 years of South African history Zulu became a battleground for issues of property possession and deprivation Sanders combines elements of analysis and memoir to explore a complex cultural history Perceiving that colonial learners of Zulu saw themselves as repairing harm done to Africans by Europeans Sanders reveals deeper motives at work in the development of Zulu language learning from the emergence of the pidgin Fanagalo among missionaries and traders in the nineteenth century to widespread efforts in the twentieth and twenty first centuries to teach a correct form of Zulu Sanders looks at the white appropriation of Zulu language music and dance in South African culture and at the association of Zulu with a martial masculinity In exploring how Zulu has come to represent what is most properly and powerfully African Sanders examines differences in English and Zulu language press coverage of an important trial as well as the role of linguistic purism in xenophobic violence in South Africa Through one person s efforts to learn the Zulu language Learning Zulu explores how a language s history and politics influence all individuals in a multilingual society The Minority Language as a Second Language Jasone Cenoz, Durk Gorter, 2023-12-22 This innovative collection is the first of its kind to showcase global perspectives on learning minority languages as second languages offering unique insights into their acquisition and specific characteristics and raising greater awareness around other languages and contexts where SLA occurs The volume examines how minority languages are acquired as second languages across a range of geographic settings where these languages are unique minorities that is they are spoken in one or more states where they have a minority status International case studies explore particular features of these languages as well as the challenges of teaching and learning them including standardization legal recognition at all educational levels the dissemination of printed and digital materials and more or less limited language use in the local community Highlighted languages include Ashaninka Basque Frisian Hawaiian Irish Isthmus Zapotec Quechua Chanka Tonga and Welsh Each chapter adopts a consistent structure with a brief introduction to the sociolinguistic landscape followed by sections on language use in education research studies reflections and discussions related to the learning of minority languages as second languages and the implication of these processes for the revitalization of minority languages Breaking new ground in second language acquisition research this book is an indispensable resource for advanced students and researchers in SLA multilingual education bilingualism and sociolinguistics Readings from Reading Herbert Ekwe-Ekwe, 2011 The essays here underscore Herbert Ekwe-Ekwe s continuing optimism about the possibilities of Africans constructing post Berlin states as the launch pad to transform the topography of the African renaissance Readings from Reading is a timely publication coming on the eve of the historic January 2011 referendum in south Sudan in which the people of the region will choose to vote to restore their national independence or get stuck hopelessly in the Sudan the first of the Berlin states that Africans tragically inherited in January 1956 Ekwe-Ekwe insists that the contemporary Africa state imposed on Africans by a band of European conqueror states and currently run by what the author describes as a shard of disreputable African regimes to exploit and despoil the continent s human and material resources cannot serve African interests The legacy as this study demonstrates has indeed been catastrophic The African overseers pushed the states into even deeper depths of genocidal and kakistocratic notoriety in the past 54 years as the grim examples of particularly Nigeria the Democratic Republic of the Congo and the Sudan depressingly underscore 15 million Africans have been murdered by African led regimes in these states and elsewhere

African Churches Ministering 'to and with' Persons with Disabilities Nomatter Sande, 2022-08-30 This book engages with Christian church traditions and disability issues in Africa focusing on Zimbabwe in particular It critically reflects on how the church has not done much to intentionally minister to and with persons with disabilities In the context of this volume ministering to is concerned with creating worshipping space for persons with disabilities while ministering with is connecting and identifying with persons with disabilities to meet their needs from the material life of the church The author considers a stewardship model of disability as an appropriate ministerial response to transform lives in poverty stricken postcolonial contexts The argument put forth is that the church is a living organism endowed with spiritual and material resources and that these resources should be appropriated to marginalised stakeholders

Literary Transactions in South Africa Michael Chapman, 2025-04-03 A representative overview of some of the most pressing concerns in contemporary literary criticism in South Africa demonstrating literary form s shaping power in the interpretation of politically contentious content Rather than pressing literature into the service of a political cause or programme this study s purpose its politics of interpretation is to open literature to the potential of human experience in both the personal and the public life The society of focus South Africa is a society of political contestation Instead of prioritizing the what of contestation however Michael Chapman explores contestation through the how of the literary work In sharp transactions between an intransitivity of form and a compulsion to communicate the book elucidates an ethics of aesthetics in J M Coetzee and Nadine Gordimer and the best of modernism and the worst of modernism in Roy Campbell s poetry It also asks Can Themba s style of the shebeens in the 1950s be re visited in a contemporary context of gender based abuse Why or how are Ellen Kuzwayo and Mtutuzeli Matshoba writing in the struggle years of the 1970s simultaneously less than artists and more than artists Has the interpretative frame of the postcolonial best served fiction after apartheid What language of interpretation best releases the voices of contemporary
