

A large, stylized red cancer awareness ribbon is centered in the background. The ribbon is a vibrant red color with a slight gradient and a soft shadow, giving it a three-dimensional appearance. It is tied in a loop at the top, with the two ends crossing at the bottom. The background is a soft, out-of-focus image of what appears to be a person's face, with a warm, golden light illuminating the scene.

Lessons Learned From Cancer:

My Cancer Journey and Lessons Learned Linda Morgan Anderson, 2024-12-11 As I began coming to terms with my cancer diagnosis I started writing these devotions I felt God was leading me to do this and at times He would speak to me about writing several at a time then there would be dry times Those times came when I was more focused on worldly things than what God was wanting me to be focused on As I returned to listening to that small voice the subject and body of the devotion came dearer to me and I began writing again There are devotions directly related to my cancer journey with most relating to the lessons that I have learned or relearned Recently I was diagnosed with another cancer breast cancer After surgery and radiation treatments I feel the chance of reoccurrence is as low as it can be As I have gone through the diagnosis and treatment these devotions have proven be support to me even though I wrote them My prayer is that those reading this book will be inspired to have hope for the future even though they are going through or have gone through their own cancer journey

Cancer Stories David Michael Gregory, Cynthia Kay Russell, 1999. Each of us will be touched by cancer in the course of our lifetime as a person diagnosed with the disease or as a family member or friend who must witness its course in someone we love. For all of us, this encounter with cancer will entail an exploration of the margins of life and death. Too often, especially once the curative stage is passed, patients and their loved ones make this journey in silence and without the full support of a medical system whose chief mandate is to win the battle against cancer.

Faith, Hope and Healing Bernie Siegel, Jennifer Sander, 2009-03. Faith, hope, healing. Inspiring Lessons Learned from People Living with Cancer. Bernie Siegel is one of the greatest healers of our time. The mind is the most powerful tool you have for fighting back.
