and Mentoring , Let's Get Frank Robin Brunet,2018-02-17 Frank Palmer is a legend in the Canadian advertising world He not only developed Palmer Jarvis one of the country's most acclaimed marketing communications agencies and then became chairman and CEO of DDB Canada after selling Palmer Jarvis to the multinational ad giant he is also credited with changing the face of Canadian advertising He's the only Western Canadian ad man who went to Toronto and wound up owning the town says former employee and now friendly rival Chris Staples Fellow ad man Bob Bryant elaborates What Frank also did that no other agency owner was able to do was become a star No one else personified a company the way he did He became the iconic brand of his own business Palmer has earned a reputation for obtaining clients at any cost He has clawed his way to prominence with wit an uncanny knowledge of what constitutes effective advertising and a business acumen nothing short of encyclopedic Having started out as the boy last chosen for the baseball team by his peers he set his sights on living his life in the role of the chooser not the one waiting to be chosen Palmer is a fascinating study in contrasts Though he always took his role as an employer seriously at times his private life was a mess And while his bald head and thick neck give him the look of someone you wouldn't want to encounter on a dark street he's a notorious trickster be it by placing an octopus under a colleague's pillow or lacing a friend's coffee cup with dental anaesthesia. At the same time Palmer is almost as well known for his philanthropic work as for his business acuity and practical jokes. Brunet's wealth of interviews with the man himself and those who know him best get to the root of what it means to be Frank Palmer.
