The Women's League Handbook and Guide Sarah Kussy,1947 Let It Glow Marissa Meyer,Joanne

Levy,2024-10-29 When Aviva Davis and Holly Martin meet at the holiday pageant tryouts for their local senior s center they think they must be seeing double While they both knew they were adopted they had no idea they had a biological sibling let alone an identical twin The similarities are only skin deep though because while Aviva has a big personality and even bigger Broadway plans Holly is more the quiet dreamer type who longs to become a famous author like her grandfather One thing the girls do have in common is their curiosity about how the other celebrates the holidays What better way to discover the magic of the holidays than to experience them firsthand The girls secretly trade lives planning to stage a dramatic reveal to their families Two virtual strangers swapping homes holidays and age old traditions what could possibly go wrong Find out in this sweet as a sugarplum and satisfying as a latke middle grade novel by Marissa Meyer 1 New York Times bestselling author of The Lunar Chronicles and Joanne Levy award winning author of Sorry for Your Loss and several other books for tweens Burning Lights Bella Chagall,2013-04-26 It is an odd thing a desire comes to me to write and to write in my faltering mother tongue which as it happens I have not spoken since I left the home of my parents Far as my childhood years have receded from me I now suddenly find them coming back to me closer and closer to me so near they could be breathing into my mouth I see myself so clearly a plump little thing a tiny girl running all over the place pushing my way from one door through another hiding like a curled up little worm with my feet up on our broad window sills My father my mother the two grandmothers my handsome grandfather my own and outside families the comfortable and the needy weddings and funerals our streets and gardens all this streams before my eyes like the deep waters of our Dvina My old home is not there any more Everything is gone even dead My father may his prayers help us has died My mother is living and God alone knows whether she still lives in an un Jewish city that Is quite alien to her The children are scattered In this world and the other some here some there But each of them in place of his vanished inheritance has taken with him like a piece of his father s shroud the breath of the parental home I am unfolding my piece of heritage and at once there rise to my nose the odours of my old home My ears begin to sound with the clamour of the shop and the melodies that the rabbi sang on holidays From every corner a shadow thrusts out and no sooner do I touch it than it pulls me Into a dancing circle with other shadows They jostle one another prod me in the back grasp me by the hands the feet until all of them together fall upon me like a host of humming flies on a hot day I do not know where to take refuge from them And so just once I want very much to wrest from the darkness a day an hour a moment belonging to my vanished home But how does one bring back to life such a moment Dear God it is so hard to draw out a fragment of bygone life from fleshless memories And what if they should flicker out my lean memories and die away together with me I want to rescue them I recall that you my faithful friend have often in affection begged me to tell you about my life in the time before you knew me So I am writing for you Books in Print ,1993-09 V 1
