A Companion to British and Irish Cinema John Hill,2019-05-07 A stimulating overview of the intellectual arguments and critical debates involved in the study of British and Irish cinemas British and Irish film studies have expanded in scope and depth in recent years prompting a growing number of critical debates on how these cinemas are analysed contextualized and understood A Companion to British and Irish Cinema addresses arguments surrounding film historiography methods of textual analysis critical judgments and the social and economic contexts that are central to the study of these cinemas

Twenty nine essays from many of the most prominent writers in the field examine how British and Irish cinema have been discussed the concepts and methods used to interpret and understand British and Irish films and the defining issues and debates at the heart of British and Irish cinema studies Offering a broad scope of commentary the Companion explores historical cultural and aesthetic questions that encompass over a century of British and Irish film studies from the early years of the silent era to the present day Divided into five sections the Companion discusses the social and cultural forces shaping British and Irish cinema during different periods the contexts in which films are produced distributed and exhibited the genres and styles that have been adopted by British and Irish films issues of representation and identity and debates on concepts of national cinema at a time when ideas of what constitutes both British and Irish cinema are under question A Companion to British and Irish Cinema is a valuable and timely resource for undergraduate and postgraduate students of film media and cultural studies and for those seeking contemporary commentary on the cinemas of Britain and Ireland

Multilingualism and Language Diversity in Urban Areas Peter Siemund, Ingrid Gogolin, Monika Edith Schulz, Julia Davydova, 2013-05-31 This state of the art volume provides an interdisciplinary overview of current topics and research foci in the areas of linguistic diversity and migration induced multilingualism and aims to lay the foundations for interdisciplinary work and the development of a common methodological framework for the field Linguistic diversity and migration induced multilingualism are complex multi faceted phenomena that need to be studied from different complementary perspectives The volume comprises a total of fourteen contributions from linguistic educationist and urban sociological perspectives and highlights the areas of language acquisition contact and change multilingual identities urban spaces and education Linguistic diversity can be framed as a result of current processes of migration and globalization As such the topic of the present volume addresses both a general audience interested in migration and globalization on a more general level and a more specialized audience interested in the linguistic repercussions of these large scale societal developments

Exile, Non-Belonging and Statelessness in Grangaud, Jabès, Lubin and Luca Greg Kerr, 2021-06-07 At least since the Romantic era poetry has often been understood as a powerful vector of collective belonging The idea that certain poets are emblematic of a national culture is one of the chief means by which literature historicizes itself inscribes itself in a shared cultural past and supplies modes of belonging to those who consume it But what then of the exiled migrant or translingual poet How might writing in a language other than one's mother tongue complicate this picture of the relation between poet language and literary system What of those for whom the practice of poetry is inseparable from a sense of restlessness or unease suggesting a condition of not being at home in any one language even that of their mother tongue These questions are crucial for four French language poets whose work is the focus of this study Armen Lubin 1903-74 Ghérasim Luca 1913-94 Edmond Jabès 1912-91 and Michelle Grangaud 1941 Ranging across borders within and beyond the Francosphere from Algeria to Armenia to Egypt to Romania this book shows how a poetic practice inflected by exile statelessness or non belonging has the potential to disrupt long held assumptions of the relation between subjects the language they use and the place from which they speak     Subject Guide to Books in Print ,1971     Chemical Analysis in Cultural Heritage Luigia Sabbatini,Inez Dorothé van der Werf,2020-02-24 Chemical Analysis provides non invasive and micro analytical techniques for the investigation of cultural heritage materials The tools and techniques discussed by experts in the field are of universal sensitive and multi component nature     Philosophy of Ecology ,2011-05-16 The most pressing problems facing humanity today over population energy shortages climate change soil erosion species extinctions the risk of epidemic disease the threat of warfare that could destroy all the hard won gains of civilization and even the recent fibrillations of the stock market are all ecological or have a large ecological component in this volume philosophers turn their attention to understanding the science of ecology and its huge implications for the human project To get the application of ecology to policy or other practical concerns right humanity needs a clear and disinterested philosophical understanding of ecology which can help identify the practical lessons of science Conversely the urgent practical demands humanity faces today cannot help but direct scientific and philosophical investigation toward the basis of those ecological challenges that threaten human survival This book will help to fuel the timely renaissance of interest in philosophy of ecology that is now occurring in the philosophical profession Provides a bridge between philosophy and current scientific findings Covers theory and applications Encourages multi disciplinary dialogue     Quill & Quire ,2002
