Harbaugh,Rebecca Lee Brenneis,Rodney R. Hutton,1998-01-01 A team of experts in ministry and the Bible offer skills for the long haul They employ the Old Testament notion of covenant and ask ministers to enter a covenant both for their own self care and as a key to framing and enlivening their care for others in ministry True to life stories show how biblically based covenantal relationships with clear boundaries promote healthy relationships and are integral to faithful personal and pastoral care The Congregationalist ,1917 Enslaved Leadership in Early Christianity Dr. Katherine A. Shaner,2018-03-01 Enslaved persons were ubiquitous in the first and second century CE Roman Empire and early Christian texts reflect this fact Yet the implications of enslaved presence in religious practices are under examined in early Christian and Roman history Enslaved Leadership in Early Christianity argues that enslaved persons roles in civic and religious activities were contested in many religious groups throughout ancient cities including communities connected with Paul s legacy This power struggle emerges as the book examines urban spaces inscriptions images and literature from ancient Ephesos and its environs Enslaved Leadership breaks new ground in analyzing archaeology and texts asking how each attempts to persuade viewers readers and inhabitants of the city Thus this book paints a complex picture of enslaved life in Asia Minor a picture that illustrates how enslaved persons enacted roles of religious and civic significance that potentially upended social hierarchies privileging wealthy slave holding men Enslaved persons were religious specialists priests and leaders in cultic groups including early Christian groups Yet even as the enslaved engaged in such authoritative roles Roman slavery was not a benign institution nor were all early Christians kinder and more egalitarian to slaves Both early Christian texts such as Philemon 1 Timothy Ignatius letters and the archaeological finds from Asia Minor defend construct and clarify the hierarchies that kept enslaved persons under the control of their masters Enslaved Leadership illustrates a historical world in which control of slaves must continually be asserted Yet this assertion of control raises a question Why does enslaved subordination need to be so frequently re established particularly through violence the threat of social death and assertions of subordination

Biblical Theology in Outline Klaus Nürnberger,2004 The Bible is not a system of theological propositions but a series of witnesses to God s redemptive acts in response to need Recurring motifs such as the exodus covenant or messianic king have emerged in response to need and been adapted in different situations of need This process culminates in the Christ event
