Encounters With Remarkable People And Extreme Landscapes:

Encounters Rob Torkildson, 2005-07 ENCOUNTERS takes the reader on a wild and zany journey full of mystery lunatic spiritualism and one monster hangover the following morning Jon Turk author of In the Wake of the Jomon I've heard wildly exaggerated versions of these stories before while swilling bruised red wine over a roaring camp fire in the Canadian Rockies and sipping sake in a noisy Japanese Izakaya bar It's about time Tork got off his butt and committed them to paper Now the world can get a glimpse into his remarkable life and the lives of those that he's recognized greatness in Pat Morrow author of Beyond Everest

Meetings with Remarkable Manuscripts Christopher de Hamel, 2019-11-12 An extraordinary and beautifully illustrated exploration of the medieval world through twelve manuscripts from one of the world's leading experts Winner of The Wolfson History Prize and The Duff Cooper Prize A San Francisco Chronicle Holiday Book Gift Guide Pick Meetings with Remarkable Manuscripts is a captivating examination of twelve illuminated manuscripts from the medieval period Noted authority Christopher de Hamel invites the reader into intimate conversations with these texts to explore what they tell us about nearly a thousand years of medieval history and about the modern world too In so doing de Hamel introduces us to kings queens saints scribes artists librarians thieves dealers and collectors He traces the elaborate journeys that these exceptionally precious artifacts have made through time and shows us how they have been copied how they have been embroiled in politics how they have been regarded as objects of supreme beauty and as symbols of national identity and who has owned them or lusted after them and how we can tell From the earliest book in medieval England to the incomparable Book of Kells to the oldest manuscript of the Canterbury Tales these encounters tell a narrative of intellectual culture and art over the course of a millennium Two of the manuscripts visited are now in libraries of North America the Morgan Library in New York and the Getty Museum in Los Angeles Part travel book part detective story part conversation with the reader Meetings with Remarkable Manuscripts allows us to experience some of the greatest works of art in our culture to give us a different perspective on history and on how we come by knowledge

Extreme Landscapes of Leisure Patrick Lavolette, 2016-04-15 In recent years there has been an increased engagement throughout the social sciences with the study of extreme places and practices Dangerous games and adventure tours have shifted from being marginal exotic or mad to being more than merely acceptable They are now exemplary mainstream even there are a variety of new types increasing numbers of people are doing them and they are being appropriated and have infiltrated more and more contexts This book argues that hazardous sports and adventure tourism have become rather paradoxical As a set of activities where players and holidaymakers are closer to death or danger than they would otherwise be they are the complete opposite of normal games or vacations Adventure sports and tours reverse the general definition of a holiday as being an escape from the seriousness of everyday life as in most cases they are innately serious requiring as they do life or death decision making Beginning with the rise in colonial explorations and moving on to consider the Dangerous Sports Club of

Oxford this book examines the increasing phenomena of adventure sports such as bungee jumping cliff jumping or tombstoning surfing and parkour within a framework of positive risk It explores how certain assumptions about knowledge agency the body and nature are beginning to coalesce around newly developing spheres of social relations Additionally extreme games have become activities that are germane to the dawning of green social thought and so the book also addresses issues that deal with the intimate connections that exist between pleasure and the moral responsibility towards the environment

Brief Encounters Bill Long,1999 This is a fascinating unpretentious and highly readable memoir of Irishman Bill Long's serendipitous meetings with a host of kindred spirits including some of the most famous writers of our time In this collection of essays written with rich humour
Foundations of Scenario Planning Thomas Chermack,2017-02-03 Pierre Wack was head of scenario planning at Royal Dutch Shell Oil in London for just over ten years He died in 1997 He was a pioneer of what we know today as scenario planning an alternative and complement to strategic planning Scenarios explore a variety of possible futures for examining decisions in organizational planning Pierre was a unique man with interests in Indian and Japanese cultures and traditions He travelled extensively and led a unique life that involved long periods of visiting gurus in India and extended sabbaticals in Japan His experiences with Eastern thought no doubt shaped his ability to evolve the scenario method at Shell and as a result he was able to lead a team that foresaw the oil crises of the 1970s and 80s This new volume will cover the basic context of his life timeline and attach it to the development of his thinking about scenario planning over the course of his career After his death Wack's materials papers and documents were collected by Napier Collyns and have recently been made available at the University of Oxford where the Pierre Wack Memorial Library has been established These documents contain a variety of clues and stories that reveal more about who Pierre Wack was how he thought and will provide details about scenario planning that have never been seen or published They also reveal a curious man and include a timeline written by his wife Eve which details their relationship over the course of 40 years Written for management and business historians and researchers this book will uncover unseen contributions by a scenario planning pioneer shaped by significant events in his personal life that helped him to see the world differently Encountering China Duncan Campbell,Brian Moloughney,2022-12-01 December 2022 is the fiftieth anniversary of formal diplomatic relations between the People's Republic of China and New Zealand This collection of 50 texts written by diplomats and poets politicians and academics students and businesspeople reflects on personal experiences of China over the last half century It offers a unique insight into the changing face of what is now one of the world's great powers and our relationship with it Contributors include Hone Tuwhare Nina Mingya Powles John McKinnon James Ng Alison Wong Murray Edmond Meng Foon and Pauline Keating
Spinoza-Machiavelli Encounter Vittorio Morfino,2018-11-14 Vittorio Morfino draws out the implications of the dynamic Spinoza Machiavelli encounter by focusing on the concepts of causality temporality and politics This allows him to think through the relationship between ontology and politics leading to an understanding of history as a complex and plural

interweaving of different rhythms Encounters with Jesus Adriana Destro,2011 A candid compelling portrait of the man who has proved so significant and so controversial in Western culture by two of Europe's best known pioneers of the anthropological study of early Christianity Destro and Pesce bring the fruit of years of scholarship to bear on a radical figure in Roman Galilee his encounters with others and the movement those encounters inspired Lewis and Clark National Forest (N.F.), Rocky Mountain Front Mineral Withdrawal, Great Falls ,2000 Legitimate Daughter: Encounter Devil Prince Zi Yeyuni,2020-03-26 On the day of the wedding An Lingge was poisoned to death by her own little sister Until the reappearance of such a fortuitous encounter her hard and cold heart had cracked The first time they met she had saved him but he had treated her like a pair of lovebirds The second time he had helped her get away from it and after that he had met Qingcheng once again and from then on he would be wrong for life Landscapes of Investigation Miriam Godoy Penteado,Ole Skovsmose,2022-12-09 Creating landscapes of investigation is a primary concern of critical mathematics education It enables us to organise educational processes so that students and teachers are able to get involved in explorations guided by dialogical interactions It attempts to address explicit or implicit forms of social injustice by means of mathematics and also to promote a critical conception of mathematics challenging the assumption that the subject represents objectivity and neutrality Landscapes of Investigation provides many illustrations of how this can be done in primary secondary and university education It also illustrates how exploring landscapes of investigation can contribute to mathematics teacher education programmes This edited volume is the result of a collaboration established through the Colloquium in Research in Critical Mathematics Education which took place in 2016 2018 and 2019 in Brazil Its twenty eight contributors are young researchers from Brazil Chile Colombia India Mexico and the USA who are dedicated to the further development of critical mathematics education Organised in eighteen chapters the volume presents examples of engaging students from a diversity of social and economic backgrounds age ranges and abilities across different countries The chapters present original findings on the social aspects of all levels of mathematics education Landscapes of Investigation is of particular relevance to those with an interest in the potential of mathematics education to challenge social injustices

Native Americans, Christianity, and the Reshaping of the American Religious Landscape Joel W. Martin,Mark A. Nicholas,2010 The essays here explore a variety of post contact identities including indigenous Christians mission friendly non Christians and ex Christians thereby exploring the shifting world of Native white cultural and religious exchange Rather than questioning the authenticity of Native Christian experiences these scholars reveal how indigenous peoples negotiated change with regard to missions missionaries and Christianity This collection challenges the pervasive stereotype of Native Americans as culturally static and ill equipped to navigate the roiling currents associated with colonialism and missionization pub desc Encountering the City Jonathan Darling, Helen F. Wilson, 2016-07-15 Encountering the City provides a new and sustained engagement with the concept of encounter Drawing on cutting edge theoretical work classic writings on the city and rich empirical examples this volume demonstrates why encounters are significant to urban studies politically philosophically and analytically Bringing together a range of interests from urban multiculture systems of economic regulation security and suspicion to more than human geographies soundscapes and spiritual experience Encountering the City argues for a more nuanced understanding of how the concept of encounter is used This interdisciplinary collection thus provides an insight into how scholars writing on and in the city mobilise theorise and challenge the concept of encounter through empirical cases taken from Africa Asia Australia Europe North America and South America These cases go beyond conventional accounts of urban conviviality to demonstrate how encounters destabilise rework and produce difference fold together complex temporalities materialise power and transform political relations In doing so the collection retains a critical eye on the forms of regulation containment and inequality that shape the taking place of urban encounter Encountering the City is a valuable resource for students and researchers alike

African Palaeoenvironments and Geomorphic Landscape Evolution Jörgen Runge, 2010-11-01 This 30th jubilee volume 2010 of Palaeoecology of Africa looks back and reflects the state of the art of what is actually known on former African climates and ecosystems in the format of review articles authored by specialists in the field New research articles on climate and ecosystem dynamics as well as applied topics on geomorphic ha

Assyria Eckart Frahm, 2023-04-04 A new history of Assyria the ancient civilization that set the model for future empires At its height in 660 BCE the kingdom of Assyria stretched from the Mediterranean Sea to the Persian Gulf It was the first empire the world had ever seen Here historian Eckart Frahm tells the epic story of Assyria and its formative role in global history Assyria's wide ranging conquests have long been known from the Hebrew Bible and later Greek accounts But nearly two centuries of research now permit a rich picture of the Assyrians and their empire beyond the battlefield their vast libraries and monumental sculptures their elaborate trade and information networks and the crucial role played by royal women Although Assyria was crushed by rising powers in the late seventh century BCE its legacy endured from the Babylonian and Persian empires to Rome and beyond Assyria is a stunning and authoritative account of a civilization essential to understanding the ancient world and our own

The Athenaeum, 1854 Encounters that Changed the World Rodney Castleden, 2020-07-01 Empress Josephine grew up in a well off white Creole sugar plantation owning family in Martinique But a hurricane destroyed the plantation along with her family's fortunes In 1795 she met Napoleon Bonaparte and a legendary romance developed Her hair was dark and silky her voice was low and beautifully modulated Napoleon need no encouragement and they married in 1796 Napoleon's passionate infatuation with his new wife was evident for all to see

Read about the romance between Napoleon and Josephine along with many other great encounters that changed the world

Scott, Byron and the Poetics of Cultural Encounter S. Oliver, 2015-12-04 Scott Byron and the Poetics of Cultural Encounter is an innovative study of Scott's and Byron's poetical engagement with borders actual and metaphorical and the people living on and around them The author discusses Scott's edited collection of Border Ballads Minstrelsy of the Scottish Border and his narrative poetry and Byron's Childe Harold's Pilgrimage cantos 1 and 2 his Eastern Tales and his late utopian South Sea poem The Island This fascinating study provides a detailed exegesis of the importance of borders to these leading poets and the public during the early years of the Nineteenth Century with an emphasis on reciprocal literary influences and on attitudes towards cultural instability

The Top Books of the Year Encounters With Remarkable People And Extreme Landscapes The year 2023 has witnessed a noteworthy surge in literary brilliance, with numerous engrossing novels enthralling the hearts of readers worldwide. Lets delve into the realm of top-selling books, exploring the engaging narratives that have captivated audiences this year. The Must-Read : Colleen Hoover's "It Ends with Us" This touching tale of love, loss, and resilience has captivated readers with its raw and emotional exploration of domestic abuse. Hoover skillfully weaves a story of hope and healing, reminding us that even in the darkest of times, the human spirit can prevail. Encounters With Remarkable People And Extreme Landscapes : Taylor Jenkins Reid's "The Seven Husbands of Evelyn Hugo" This intriguing historical fiction novel unravels the life of Evelyn Hugo, a Hollywood icon who defies expectations and societal norms to pursue her dreams. Reid's compelling storytelling and compelling characters transport readers to a bygone era, immersing them in a world of glamour, ambition, and self-discovery. Encounters With Remarkable People And Extreme Landscapes : Delia Owens "Where the Crawdads Sing" This mesmerizing coming-of-age story follows Kya Clark, a young woman who grows up alone in the marshes of North Carolina. Owens spins a tale of resilience, survival, and the transformative power of nature, captivating readers with its evocative prose and mesmerizing setting. These top-selling novels represent just a fraction of the literary treasures that have emerged in 2023. Whether you seek tales of romance, adventure, or personal growth, the world of literature offers an abundance of compelling stories waiting to be discovered. The novel begins with Richard Papen, a bright but troubled young man, arriving at Hampden College. Richard is immediately drawn to the group of students who call themselves the Classics Club. The club is led by Henry Winter, a brilliant and charismatic young man. Henry is obsessed with Greek mythology and philosophy, and he quickly draws Richard into his world. The other members of the Classics Club are equally as fascinating. Bunny Corcoran is a wealthy and spoiled young man who is always looking for a good time. Charles Tavis is a quiet and reserved young man who is deeply in love with Henry. Camilla Macaulay is a beautiful and intelligent young woman who is drawn to the power and danger of the Classics Club. The students are all deeply in love with Morrow, and they are willing to do anything to please him. Morrow is a complex and mysterious figure, and he seems to be manipulating the students for his own purposes. As the students become more involved with Morrow, they begin to commit increasingly dangerous acts. The Secret History is an exceptional and gripping novel that will keep you speculating until the very end. The novel is a warning tale about the dangers of obsession and the power of evil.
