calling or serving in your own leadership role is challenging While serving as mentors counselors advisors and even cheerleaders women carry numerous responsibilities Lori Wilhite and Brandi Wilson know about this first hand as the wives of two well known pastors in America Everyone has an image in their mind of what they think a pastor s wife should be The trouble with this picture is that it has never been and never will be accurate Ministry wives and female ministry leaders face the same real life struggles as their church members but have the added stress of sharing in everyone s burdens as well They are held to impossible standards by those they serve and the more this ideal of women in leadership is expected the more we turn up the intensity in the pressure cooker that is life in ministry In Leading and Loving It Lori Wilhite and Brandi Wilson offer a support system to help women make connections to get the encouragement that sustains them and become equipped for the ministry God has called them to pursue They give readers tools for understanding that external pressures and expectations are only important if they fall in line with what God intends for your life and ministry and they give answers for how to deal with criticism isolation finding your personal calling and what happens when you reach a place of burn out and more

Someone said that 50 percent of new pastors give up after their first year In my humblest opinion many who feel they are called to be a pastor have never been properly mentored They are not prepared for the various seasons that will take place within their ministry Someone needs to tell them about pastoral fluctuations the bitters and the sweets the unpredictability of membership and finances betrayals apathy childishness and the perpetual delays that come with growing a church By writing this workbook I have officially accepted the assignment to be that someone In this age of mega churches with multi million dollar programs it is easy for pastors of small churches to feel like failures we don t measure up This workbook provides practical information to help pastors successfully navigate through various pastoral seasons This workbook is divided into fourteen sections A few sections are What to Expect as a New Pastor The Danger of Being a Carbon Copy of Someone Else s Ministry What Do You Do When the Pews Are Not Full and Members Say and Do the Strangest Things At the end of each section there is a Fireside Chat Various questions will be asked and I invite you to daily RELAX R Rest and renew E Eat healthy foods L Laugh a lot A Ask God pray always and X Xercise your body and mind There is also a space provided called My Journal Write whatever you want This is a practical handbook that should be given to every new pastor
