Light in a Socio-Cultural Perspective Ronit Milano, 2018-04-18 The awareness of light as both a concept and a phenomenon existed long before it became a matter of scientific interest This volume investigates the many ways in which

light has been conceptualized throughout history Employing different methodological approaches derived from various disciplines in the humanities the essays gathered here situate the concept of light within discourses on gender religion intellectual life politics art and digital culture Through diverse perspectives light is defined in some cases synchronically as a physical phenomenon a visual tool and a philosophic idea This book combines the fields of intellectual studies religion literature and visual culture to explore the complexities of conceptual paradigms that represent various manifestations of the idea of light Through original readings the contributing authors present a range of scholarly perspectives offering new interpretations of the idea of light and its history within the humanities     The Jewish Encyclopedia Isidore Singer, Cyrus Adler, 1916     Holy Places in the Israeli-Palestinian Conflict Marshall J. Breger, Yitzhak Reiter, Leonard Hammer, 2009-12-16 This book addresses the major generators of conflict and toleration at shared holy places in Palestine and Israel Examining the religious political and legal issues the authors show how the holy sites have been a focus of both conflict and cooperation between different communities Bringing together the views of a diverse group of experts on the region Holy Places in the Israeli Palestinian Conflict provides a new and multifaceted approach to holy places giving an in depth analysis of relevant issues Themes covered include legal regulation of holy places nationalization and reproduction of holy space sharing and contesting holy places identity politics and popular legends of holy sites Chapters cover in detail how recognition and authorization of a new site come about the influence of religious belief versus political ideology on the designation of holy places the centrality of such areas to the surrounding political developments and how historical background and culture affect the perception of a holy site and relations between conflicting groups This new approach to the study of holy places and the Israeli Palestinian conflict has great significance for a variety of disciplines and will be of great interest in the fields of law politics religious studies anthropology and sociology     The Jewish Encyclopedia: Philipson-Samoscz Isidore Singer, 1905     The Jewish Encyclopedia: Philipson-Samoscz ,1925     The Encyclopedia Britannica Thomas Spencer Baynes, 1878     The Jewish Encyclopedia: a Descriptive Record of the History, Religion, Literature, and Customs of the Jewish People from the Earliest Times to the Present Day ,1907     Management Ethics and Talmudic Dialectics Nathan Lee Kaplan, 2014-07-08 Nathan Lee Kaplan develops a talmudic perspective on management ethics By analyzing the central ethical dilemmas of corporate managers in light of applicable traditions from the Oral Torah this book offers a critical bridge between the contemporary business corporation and rabbinic Judaism s foundational tradition The issues studied thereby include organizational culture fraud and corruption whistle blowing investor and employment relations executive compensation corporate social responsibility and environmental sustainability     Organ Donation and the Divine Lien in Talmudic Law Madeline Kochen, 2014-08-21 This book offers a new theory of property and distributive justice derived from Talmudic law illustrated by a case study involving the sale of organs for transplant Although organ donation did not exist in late antiquity this book posits a new way drawn from the Talmud to conceive of this modern means of giving to others Our common understanding of organ transfers as either a gift or sale is trapped in a dichotomy that is conceptually and philosophically limiting Drawing on Maussian gift theory this book suggests a different legal and cultural meaning for this property transfer It introduces the concept of the divine lien an obligation to others in need built into the definition of all property ownership Rather than a gift or sale organ transfer is shown to exemplify an owner s voluntary recognition and fulfilment of this latent property obligation The Jewish Encyclopedia: Chazars-Dreyfus Case Isidore Singer, 1903
