New Perspectives on Safavid Iran Colin P. Mitchell,2011-03-03

Dedicated to the renowned Safavid historian Roger Savory this book brings together a collection of studies on the Safavid state of Iran 1501-1722 from the perspectives of political, social, literary and artistic history. Savory, a doyen of Safavid studies in the 1960s and 1970s, was responsible for expanding and popularizing the study of Iran in the 16th and 17th century. To celebrate this legacy, well-established scholars of medieval and early modern Iran have contributed specific studies reflecting an array of research interests and specializations which include critical re-examinations of issues of gender, literature, art and architecture, cultural and linguistic currents, illustrated historical chronicles and courtly and administrative practices under the Safavid dynasty. This unique compilation is indicative of a growing interest in Iran and Iranian studies in both the academic and public spheres and as such contains a number of new perspectives which will serve to supplement and re-interpret the existing corpus of Safavid scholarly literature to date. It will be an important text for scholars of world history and Middle East studies as well as to historians in general.

Baghdad and Isfahan Elaheh Kheirandish, 2021-04-22. Renowned as great centres of learning, the cities of Baghdad and Isfahan were at the heart of the Islamic civilization as rich capital cities and centres of intellectual thought. Their distinct cultural voices inspired a unique historical dialogue which finds new expression in Baghdad and Isfahan, the story of how knowledge was transmitted and transformed within Islamic lands and then spread across Europe. Capturing the history of Baghdad and Isfahan from 750 to 1750, Elaheh Kheirandish draws on the voices of court astronomers, mathematicians, scientists, mystics, jurists, statesmen and Arabic and Persian translators and scholars to document the extensive and lasting contribution of sciences from Islamic lands to the history of science. Kheirandish bases her narrative on a unique medieval manuscript and other historical sources and the result is more than a thousand-year tale of two cities: it is a city-by-city and century-by-century look at what it took to change the world. In a feat of travelogue and time travel, this unique book creates parallel stories with modern and historical characters crossing cities worldwide and capturing changes through time. Interweaving multiple narratives, histories and futures, she charts the possible paths, formalized and serendipitous, lost and recovered, by which knowledge itself is translated and transmitted across time and cultures.
