sources Collected Works, Volume I Adolf Grünbaum, 2013-09-12 This volume is a collection of Adolf Grünbaum's most discussed essays on Scientific Rationality. It covers the problem of what it takes for a theory to be called scientific and asks whether it is plausible to draw a clear distinction between science and non science as was famously proposed by Karl Popper.

Light as Experience and Imagination from Paleolithic to Roman Times David S. Herrstrom, 2017-09-26 This book is an interdisciplinary synthesis and interpretation about the experience of light as revealed in a wide range of art and literature from Paleolithic to Roman times. Humanistic in spirit and in its handling of facts, it marshals a substantial body of scholarship to develop an explication of light as a central even dramatic reality of human existence and experience in diverse cultural settings. David S. Herrstrom underscores our intimacy with light not only its constant presence in our life but its insinuating character. Focusing on our encounters with light and ways of making sense of these, this book is concerned with the personal and cultural impact of light, exploring our resistance to and acceptance of light. Its approach is unique. The book's true subject is the individual's relationship with light rather than the investigation of light's essential nature. It tells the story of light seducing individuals down through the ages. Consequently, it is not concerned with the progress of scientific inquiries into the physical properties and behavior of light, optical science, but rather with subjective reactions to it as reflected in art. Paleolithic through Roman architecture, Egyptian, Grecian, Roman mythology and religion, Paleolithic Egyptian and literature, e.g. Akhenaten, Plato, Aeschylus, Lucretius, John the Evangelist, Plotinus, and Augustine. This book celebrates the complexity of our relation to light's character. No individual experience of light is truer than any other, none improves on any previous experience of light's tidal pull on us. And the wondrous variety of these encounters has yielded a richly layered tapestry of human experience. By its broad scope and interdisciplinary approach, this pioneering book is without precedent.

Esalen Jeffrey J. Kripal, 2011-09-07 Jeffrey Kripal here recounts the spectacular history of Esalen, the institute that has long been a world leader in alternative and experiential education and stands today at the center of the human potential movement. Forged in the literary and mythical leanings of the Beat Generation, inspired in the lecture halls of Stanford by radical scholars of comparative religion, the institute was the remarkable brainchild of Michael Murphy and Richard Price. Set against the heady backdrop of California during the revolutionary 1960s, Esalen recounts in fascinating detail how these two maverick thinkers sought to fuse the spiritual revelations of the East with the scientific revolutions of the West, or to combine the very best elements of Zen Buddhism, Western psychology, and Indian yoga into a decidedly utopian vision that rejected the dogmas of conventional religion. In their religion of no religion, the natural world was just as crucial as the spiritual one; science and faith, not only commingled but became staunch allies, and the enlightenment of the body could lead to the full realization of our development as human beings. An impressive new book, Kripal has written the definitive intellectual history of the ideas behind the institute San Francisco Chronicle Kripal examines Esalen's extraordinary history and evocatively describes the breech birth of Murphy and Price's brainchild His real achievement though is effortlessly synthesizing a dizzying array of dissonant phenomena Cold War espionage ecstatic religiosity incongruous pairings Darwinism Tantric sex and otherwise schizy ephemera psychedelic drugs spaceflight into a cogent satisfyingly complete narrative Atlantic Monthly Kripal has produced the first all encompassing history of Esalen its intellectual social personal literary and spiritual passages Kripal brings us up to date and takes us deep beneath historical surfaces in this definitive elegantly written book Playboy Conversing on Gender G. G. Bolich, 2007-08 Conversing on Gender is as its subtitle indicates a primer for entering the broad conversation on gender that can be found both inside and outside of academic circles The book considers the relation of gender to sex and sexuality reviews prominent theories of gender and covers basic gender issues The Origins of the World's Mythologies Michael Witzel, 2012 Michael Witzel persuasively demonstrates the prehistoric origins of most of the mythologies of Eurasia and the Americas Laurasia Bulletin Östasiatiska museet, 2000 Sacred Dan Jason S. Bray, 2006-06-05 An introduction reviews previous scholarship and concludes that the cultic aspects of Judges 17-18 have not been examined in any depth It then goes on to deal with the historical and redactional issues which previous scholars have found interesting The issues of provenance and dating are then examined with the conclusion that the text was written down in the immediate aftermath of the Assyrian conquest of Dan in an attempt to preserve its sacred traditions The text therefore reflects the self understanding of the priests of Dan in the period immediately prior to its fall The text of Judges 17-18 is then subjected to a rhetorical critical examination followed by a more traditional form critical study The next section is a comparison of similar cultic foundation stories from other cultures Three major chapters examine the three major cultic issues raised by the text itself images priests and divination Each chapter draws on evidence from the Hebrew Bible and its environment in an attempt to clarify the nature of the cult of Dan Broadly each chapter concludes that although there were some features peculiar to the cult reflected by Dan in general the Danite cult was not greatly different from that of its neighbours A final chapter deals with what the text says about the tribe of Levi with the conclusion that according to Judges 17-18 there was once a secular tribe of Levi The conclusion draws a brief picture of cultic life in Dan in its final years John Dee's Occultism Gyorgy E. Szonyi, 2010-07-02 Delving into the life and work of John Dee Renaissance mathematician and conjurer to Queen Elizabeth Gyrgy E Szonyi presents an analysis of Renaissance occultism and its place in the chronology of European cultural history Culling examples of magical thinking from classical medieval and Renaissance philosophers Szonyi revisits the body of Dee's own scientific and spiritual writings as reflective sources of traditional mysticism Exploring the intellectual foundations of magic Szonyi focuses on the ideology of exaltatio the glorification or deification of man He argues that it was the desire for exaltatio that framed and tied together the otherwise varied thoughts and activities of John Dee as well Myth and Religion in Mircea Eliade Douglas

Scoffing at Scripture Frank Bolger Kelly,2011-02 A former Roman Catholic Frank Bolger Kelly has long wondered why thinking humans as a whole in the 21st century have not yet been able to disenthral themselves from the demonstrable falsehoods and sectarian nonsense of organized religion A few years ago Kelly decided to sit down with the sacred scriptures of several of the world's major religions the alleged bedrocks of these various creeds in a last ditch effort to achieve holy inspiration Instead he became wholly disenchanted and Scoffing at Scripture A Commoner Reads the World's Holy Writ and Rejects Traditional Religion is the result Far from representing that all elusive Word of God creedal scripture the world over it seems to Kelly merely cloaks the tribal agendas and cultural designs of the world's priestly and virtually all-male elites With the general reader in mind the author has grouped together a series of compact discussions of religion and scripture for cross cultural comparative reference Kelly's intent is to facilitate critical analysis of the world's holy writ and in particular to encourage younger skeptical readers of a secular mind to confront the doctrinal scriptural and ritual absurdities of those faiths into which they were born and continue to be indoctrinated Frank Bolger Kelly grew up in an Irish Catholic family in the Bronx New York matriculated to a noted Jesuit college in New England and subsequently did time at a prestigious non sectarian institution of higher learning in the Midwest It was during his enlightening time at the latter that Kelly first began seriously to question not only his own religious upbringing but the scriptural bases of all the world's major religions Kelly was quickly convinced that the vast majority of the faithful the world over commoners like himself just might reconsider their religious roots and motivations in a new light if they actually bothered to immerse themselves for a time in their own sacred scriptures rather than merely fake familiarity with them Actually to read scripture in all its antiquated tendentious sectarian absurdity Kelly reasoned is to take a first giant step in renouncing irrational creeds of all kinds Thus was born Scoffing at Scripture A Commoner Reads the World's Holy Writ and Rejects Traditional Religion a book from which the author hopes the open minded reader will draw a secularly pure spiritual sustenance
