

The background of the book cover is a painting of a stone bridge over a river. The bridge has a low wall and a railing. In the distance, a monk in a brown robe is walking across the bridge. The scene is set in a lush, green landscape with trees and foliage. The overall tone is peaceful and contemplative.

Essential Monastic Wisdom Writings On The Contemplative Life:

Essential Monastic Wisdom Hugh Feiss, 1999 For everyone seeking to experience some of the deep tranquility of contemplative life this artfully crafted guide brings together concise selections from the great writings of the tradition from Saint Benedict to Thomas Merton It explores all the essential ingredients of monastic life in brief chapters on such themes as speech humility discernment patience longing and love By providing a brief account of how monastic life evolved and the best examples of monastic writing through the centuries from the desert fathers to the medieval nuns Julian and Hildegard to John Chittister today Father Hugh Feiss offers a rich treasury of monastic wisdom on living a full life      Secular

Monasticism Jane Fitz-Gibbon, Andrew Fitz-Gibbon, 2012-09 Like an underground river the monastic tradition keeps on resurging in a host of unexpected times and places Secular Monasticism A Journey describes one of its most recent incarnations The founders and members of the Lindisfarne Community share with us their bold attempt to be a secular monastic religious order open to the exigencies of the contemporary world Age old wisdom once again reveals its perennial relevance in helping us learn how to be followers of Christ in God s today Brother John Taiz In the first five pages I thought of ten people I know who should read this book young people old people all people tired of taken for granted spirituality Devour this book Let it help you dream up a way of joining or creating a micro community of prayer and action that frees you to experiment in following the ways of Christ That s what these folks have done This story helps us imagine ourselves out of the boxes and buildings Christianity has become The Rev Dr Dori Baker Scholar in Residence The Fund for Theological Education Lindisfarne Community has graciously accepted God s call to dance with the radical and sometimes wearying changes of our time Like the Celts they find meaning in their ongoing spiritual evolution through poetry and story through a willingness to navigate the waters of the soul while remaining fiercely loyal to the good earth that bore us and nurtures us Like the Celts this family of secular monastics hungers more for mystical union with the Divine Mystery than for any trappings of earthly renown or success Carl McColman author and blogger from the foreword      The Cloud of Unknowing , 2009-04-14 This anonymous fourteenth century text is the glory of English mysticism and one of the most practical and useful guides to finding union with God ever written Carmen Acevedo Butcher s new translation is the first to bring the text into a modern English idiom while remaining strictly faithful to the meaning of the original Middle English The Cloud of Unknowing consists of a series of letters written by a monk to his student or disciple instructing him or her in the way of Divine union Its theology is presented in a way that is remarkably easy to understand as well as practical providing advice on prayer and contemplation that anyone can use Previous translations of the Cloud have tended to veil its intimate even friendly tone under medieval sounding language Carmen Butcher has boldly brought the text into language as appealing to modern ears as it was to its original readers more than five hundred years ago Also included in the volume is the companion work attributed to the same anonymous author The Book of Privy Counsel which contains further advice for approaching God in a way that emphasizes real experience rather than human knowledge

The Routledge International Handbook of Education, Religion and Values James Arthur, Terence Lovat, 2013-08-21 The academic fields of religion and values have become the focus of renewed interest in contemporary thinking about human activity and its motivations The Routledge International Handbook of Education Religion and Values explores and expands upon a range of international research related to this revival The book provides an authoritative overview of global issues in religion and values surveying the state of the academic area in contributions covering a wide range of topics It includes emerging controversial and cutting edge contributions as well as investigations into more established areas International authorities Arthur and Lovat have brought together experts from across the world to examine the complexity of the field of study The handbook is organised around four key topics which focus on both the importance of religion and values as broad fields of human enquiry as well as in their application to education inter agency work and cross cultural endeavours The Conceptual World of Religion and Values Religion and Values in Education Religion and Values in Inter agency Work Religion and Values in Cross cultural Work This comprehensive reference work combines theoretical and empirical research of international significance and will be valuable reading for students researchers and academics in the field of education

At Home in this Life Jerusalem Jackson Greer, 2017-05-01 In the midst of beauty and mess chaos and monotony celebrations and mourning Jerusalem Greer tells her story of finding redemption in what is rather than what could be by practicing the presence of God through rediscovering ancient contemplative teachings and practices solitude study work prayer and service and pairing them with domestic arts baking gardening sewing Jerusalem writes with a raw honesty that reassures readers they are not alone in feeling not good enough not wise enough not Christian enough to figure out God s plans At Home in this Life is the story of how everything I thought would make me happy came undone and then how I found a way to make myself at home in this beautiful messy amazingly tender completely unbalanced life by imperfectly practicing one spiritual discipline at a time smack in the middle of raising kids mending the sweaters and burning the bread Jerusalem Jackson Greer In addition to being a writer Jerusalem is also a crafter former pastor and blogger She lives with her husband and two sons in Greenbrier Arkansas As a family they are attempting to live a slower version of the modern life Sometimes it works sometimes it doesn't Jerusalem is active on Facebook and Pinterest and regularly posts on her blog Slow Living in a Fast World where she records what she calls her beautymess attempts at living a sacramental life

A Benedictine Reader Hugh Feiss, Ronald E. Pepin, Maureen M. O'Brien, 2019-04-15 A Benedictine Reader 530 1530 has been more than twenty years in the making A collaboration of a dozen scholars this project gives as broad and deep a sense of the reality of the first one thousand years of Benedictine monasticism as can be done in one volume using primary sources in English translation The texts included are drawn from many different genres and from several languages and areas of Europe The introduction to each of the thirty two chapters aims to situate each author and text and to make connections with other texts and studies within and outside the Reader The general introduction summarizes the main ideas and practices that are present in the Rule of Saint Benedict and in the first thousand years of Benedictine monasticism while suggesting questions that a reader might bring to the texts

On Being a Person Todd H. Speidell, 2002-12-02 From the Introduction The approach of this text will be multidisciplinary psychologists philosophers theologians and ethicists grappling with what it means to be a person This volume will not attempt to provide a comprehensive history of psychology but will instead focus on selected representatives of various paradigms of psychology from the first systematic psychologist Aristotle through psychology's development as an empirical science and to recent developments in family systems theory It will especially emphasize a social relational spiritual view of the self namely human relations to God and to others are essential to humanity

Struggle and Ascent Joel Rippinger, OSB, 2020 The history of Mount Angel Abbey as the history of a pilgrim Church a steady and transformative sign of God's kingdom on earth

Simplifying the Soul Paula Huston, 2011-12-19 Award winning author and Benedictine oblate Paula Huston invites readers to de clutter their minds hearts relationships and souls in a book of daily Lenten practices woven from the gospels the Desert Fathers and the author's own wealth of spiritual experience What are you giving up for Lent this year It's the expected question amongst Christian friends each spring In Simplifying the Soul Lenten Practices to Renew Your Spirit Huston asks her readers a deeper alternative sort of question How will you rid your life of excess this Lent She encourages readers to see Lent as a time to seek out silence and free themselves of stuff and to acknowledge the connections between what they pray about and what they do With honesty vulnerability and grace Huston challenges readers to move outward and act showing them how everyday actions like cleaning out a junk drawer giving away something no longer used or spending fifteen minutes in silence can be surprisingly powerful ways of experiencing a more meaningful Lent and a simpler life Whether cutting up a credit card visiting someone at the hospital or forgiving someone with whom they are angry readers experience under Huston's gentle and expert care how such practices lead to a more authentic Christian faith
