Essentials of Geriatric Psychiatry Lawrence W. Lazarus, 1988 National Library of Medicine Current Catalog
National Library of Medicine (U.S.), Current Catalog National Library of Medicine (U.S.), First multi year cumulation covers six years 1965-70 Principles and Practice of Geriatric Psychiatry Marc E. Agronin, Gabe J. Maletta, 2006
Written by noted authorities in geriatric psychiatry this volume is a clinically oriented guide to the diagnostic workup and treatment of psychiatric and neuropsychiatric disorders in elderly patients. The book describes in detail the neurologic and neuropsychiatric patient assessment and the use of all treatment modalities both psychotherapeutic and pharmacologic in elderly patients. Chapters discuss the treatment of disorders in all clinical settings: inpatient, outpatient, emergency, primary care, assisted living, and long-term care. Algorithms for workup and treatment are included, as well as case studies and personal accounts by patients and care providers. Appendices provide drug information and additional resources.

Resource Directory for Older People, 1989 Resource Directory for Older People National Institute on Aging, 1989
List of over 200 national organizations that offer health information, legal aid, self-help programs, educational opportunities, social services, consumer advice, or other assistance. Intended for professional personnel and others with an interest in the field of aging. Covers government agencies, professional societies, voluntary programs, and private groups. Recommendations and endorsements are not implied. Arranged alphabetically by organizations. Each entry gives mission, services, and publications. Index. Essential Guide to Neurodegenerative Disorders Wael Mohamed, 2024-11-24
Handbook of Neurodegenerative Disorders: Mechanism, Diagnostic and Therapeutic Advances provides a comprehensive review on the current biomedical studies aimed at identifying the underlying causes of neurodegeneration. This book reviews the most recent developments in molecular and cellular processes altered during neurodegeneration. Divided into four parts, the first covers the mechanism of cell death in neurodegeneration. The second section reviews the recent progress in gene and gene products in neurodegeneration, including Huntington's disease, Parkinson's disease, Friedreich's ataxia, and spinal muscular atrophy. The final sections cover the current and future diagnostic techniques of neurodegenerative disorders along with therapeutic approaches. Reviews big data and neurodegeneration disorders including gene mapping. Examines the structural basis of protein assembly into amyloid filaments in neurodegenerative disease. Covers the progress and challenges of pharmacotherapy of neurodegenerative disorders. The Mentally Impaired Elderly Ellen D. Taira, 1991
Provide effective support and sensitive care for the most vulnerable segment of the elderly population: those with mental impairment. With the helpful methods and practical strategies outlined in this invaluable new book, because of the increasing number of older persons with memory impairments, mental health problems, and Alzheimer's disease, it is clear that interventions to delay the loss of function in mentally impaired older adults are desperately needed. The Mentally Impaired Elderly offers optimistic guidelines for caregivers of the mentally impaired elderly and demonstrates, through the use of theoretical models, research and clinical evidence that persons with dementia can participate in activities and family life longer than previously thought Interventions are demonstrated for maintaining the function level of the mentally impaired elderly by focusing on controlling the environment to increase the patients self care ability resulting in lower care costs and an improved level of mental health for the patient Beginning with the description of a theoretical model this helpful volume provides a framework on which to base work with the mentally impaired elderly and to offer hope and encouragement to those involved with the task of caring for older persons Important research is emphasized including the role of temporal adaptation in self care the relationship between apraxia and dressing skills and a positive view of efforts to enrich the daily lives of institutional residents using program enhancement Those who care for mentally impaired elderly adults in the home as well as gerontologists occupational therapists physical therapists nurses social workers psychologists and therapeutic recreation specialists will greatly benefit from the helpful strategies outlined in this volume Resource Directory for Older People ,1989
