Gustav Klutss and Valentina Kulagina Margarita Tupitsyn, International Center of Photography, 2004 In depth study of the groundbreaking work of Gustav Klutss the pioneer of photomontage in the Soviet Union and a central figure in the transition from the formalism of the early Soviet avant garde to the increasingly state sponsored art production of the 1930s Also presented is the work of Klutss s wife and colleague Valentina Kulagina and innovative poster book and exhibition designer Publisher back cover The Soviet Photograph, 1924-1937 Margarita Tupitsyn, 1996-01-01 Tupitsyn challenges the view that the Soviet avant garde peaked in the 1920s and was subsequently forced to conform with Bolshevik politics Instead she asserts that photography during this period represented the last great experiment in the search for the most effective ways to connect art radical politics and the masses Investigating the means by which the new visual tools for disseminating revolutionary messages were adapted to the needs of Stalinist propaganda Tupitsyn relates major examples of single frame photography and photomontage to such events as the implementation of the New Economic Policy Lenin s death and Stalin s first and second Five Year Plans and to mounting censorship of the arts She also establishes a link between the writings of critics and the development of photography and photomontage at this time The book presents previously unpublished material from Klutss s letters Rodchenko s public lectures Lissitzky s late writings on the mass media and Kulagina s personal diaries as well as many previously unknown photographs Constructing Modernity Martin Hammer, Professor Christina Lodder, Naum Gabo, Christina Lodder, 2000-01-01 Naum Gabo 1890 1977 whose eventful life took him from his native Russia to Berlin Paris London and finally the United States achieved renown as one of the most inventive and controversial figures in twentieth century sculpture This book is the first comprehensive account of Gabo s life career and artistic theory and practice Martin Hammer and Christina Lodder explore in detail the evolution of the artist s work and his aesthetic concerns creative processes assimilation of such new materials as plastic and approach to public sculpture The authors also examine his response to the scientific and political revolutions of his age and trace the origins and development of Gabo s utopian conviction that Constructivist art was profoundly in tune with modernity social progress and advances in science and technology Drawing on Gabo s extensive and largely unpublished archives of letters diaries notebooks models and sketchbooks Hammer and Lodder discuss the sculptor s work in the context of his relations with other avant garde artists architects and critics including his brother Antoine Pevsner They also situate his aesthetic theory and practice within the Constructi A Dictionary of the Avant-Gardes , 2013-05-13 A Dictionary of the Avant Gardes recognizes that change is a driving force in all the arts It covers major trends in music dance theater film visual art sculpture and performance art as well as architecture science and culture Emblematic Tendencies in the Art and Literature of the Twentieth Century Anthony John Harper, Ingrid Höpel, Susan Sirc, 2005 Stalin's Architect Deyan Sudjic, 2022-06-14 The story of Boris Iofan designer of the iconic but unbuilt Palace of the Soviets whose buildings came to define the language of Soviet architecture

What would an architect do for the chance to build the tallest building in the world What would he sacrifice to stay alive in the midst of Stalin's murderous purges This is the first major publication on the remarkable life and career of Boris Iofan 1891-1976 state architect to Joseph Stalin Iofan's story is an insight into the troubled relationship of all successful architects with power A gifted designer and a committed Communist Iofan became the Soviet Union's most celebrated architect after Alexei Rykov Lenin's successor persuaded him to return to Moscow from Rome with his aristocratic wife Olga Sasso Ruffo Iofan was at the heart of political life in the Soviet Union and his work is key to understanding its official culture When Stalin's henchmen crushed the architectural avant garde it was Iofan who created the new national style from the grand projects he realized including the House on the Embankment a megastructure of 505 homes for the Soviet elite to even more ambitious unbuilt projects in particular the Palace of the Soviets a baroque Stalinist dream whose image was reproduced throughout the Soviet Union His career took him to New York and Paris and to the destroyed city of Stalingrad He was a friend of Frank Lloyd Wright a rival of Le Corbusier Walter Gropius and Erich Mendelsohn and an enemy of Hitler's architect Albert Speer whose Nazi pavilion faced Iofan's Soviet one at the Paris Expo in 1937 He kept silent when Stalin executed his friends including Rykov he also sacrificed his own talent by following the dictator's instructions to the letter in creating the regime's landmarks Generously illustrated with a wide range of previously unpublished material this book is an exploration of architecture as an instrument of statecraft It is an insight into the key moments of 20th century politics and culture from a unique perspective and the personal story of a remarkable individual who witnessed many of the most dramatic turning points of modern history

The Artist as Producer Maria Gough, 2005-05-02 The Artist as Producer confronts the problem of making a politics with art Gough's balanced rigor in mining obscure archives on the one hand while performing brilliant readings of recalcitrant artworks on the other gives her account of Constructivism's utopian promise and less than utopian outcome great texture She has produced something very rare an art historical study that not only adds to our knowledge but captures the intense poignancy of modern art's serious ambition to undertake a revolution of and with form David Joselit Professor History of Art Yale University To see a sculptor plunging into the politics and the cultural politics of the factory floor is a rare sight indeed in art history It takes immense historical discipline to do it justice Maria Gough takes the author as producer question dear to Marxist aesthetics think of Walter Benjamin but think also of Trotsky of Gramsci and raises it into new relevance The question always was and is a motor This book shows us beautifully how and why Molly Nesbit Professor of Art Vassar College The Artist as Producer is a remarkable and impressive piece of scholarship which challenges existing assumptions about Soviet Constructivism and demands that we rethink the movement in its entirety Christina Lodder author of Russian Constructivism
