Guyana Fragile Frontier:

Guyana, Fragile Frontier Marcus Colchester, 1997 Guyana Barry Munslow, 2019-06-04 First published in 1998 this volume uses Guyana as an excellent comprehensive case study to examine various sectors operations effects upon the environment and the ways in which the sector can impact upon the vitality and development potential of other sectors The authors attempt to demonstrate how it is possible to adjust current sectoral activities for improved resource utilisation They begin in the interior looking at mining and forest resource exploitation Attention then moves towards the coast looking at agriculture fishing human settlement and service provision A review of industry transport and energy follows before examining biodiversity tourism and the Amerindian community Finally a detailed analysis is presented of the challenges to be faced in devising a sustainable development national strategy Tropical Forests of the Guiana Shield D. S.

Hammond, 2005 The Guiana Shield is an ancient geological formation located in the northern part of South America covering an area of one million square kilometres Despite its hostile environment it is home to many unusual and highly specialized plants and animals which constitute a rich area of biodiversity Chapters in this book include hydrology nutrient cycling forest phenology insect plant interactions forest microclimate plant distributions forest dynamics and conservation and management of flora and fauna It provides a comprehensive and detailed review of the ecology biology and natural history of the forests of the area Guyana Junction. Globalisation, localisation, and the production of East Indianness Johannes Gerrit de Kruijf, 2006 Extractivism and Labour in the Caribbean Dennis C. Canterbury, 2023-12-01 This book explores the impact of resource extraction and the dynamics of great powers competing for natural resources in the Caribbean The book analyzes labour capital relations between China the United States the European Union and Russia in the Caribbean as competition increases with the arrival of non traditional sources of foreign investments in infrastructure from the East Chapters assess these dynamics through varying historical and current forms of worker community and organization resistance in the Caribbean s extractive industries from the 1970s to the present In doing so the book critically analyzes the interplay of extractive capital with labour unions community organizations management and the state particularly regarding the struggle for higher wages improved working conditions and the broader issues of extractive capitalism and underdevelopment dispossession social exclusion and environmental degradation The first book on extractivism and labour in the Caribbean and a major contribution to critical development studies literature it will appeal to policymakers as well as students and scholars in the fields of development studies development economics sociology politics and international relations The Cultural and Political History of Guyana Ivan A. Ross, 2021-09-21 The history of the Indigenous people enslaved Africans indentured Portuguese Chinese and Indian laborers provides an in depth view of the evolution of the Guyanese people It provides evidence of their strong cultural identity and reveals their ambitions sense of direction and perseverance to strive for well being and happiness in the best possible life A chain of events began in 1953 when British

Guiana elected its first native born leader Dr Cheddi Jagan The British Prime Minister Winston Churchill suspended British Guiana's Constitution ordered the dissolution of the Government and imprisonment of the elected leader his wife and members of his cabinet as they were not compatible to Churchill's taste The United States of America had difficulty appreciating how different forms of government and economic systems are applied in different countries In 1961 President John F Kennedy ordered his Central Intelligence Agency to subvert the elected leader of British Guiana The leader fell and the CIA's men accomplishing their task moved on to another Thirty years later the fallen leader was again democratically elected to lead his country President Kennedy's ruthless subversion of democracy became the policy for subsequent elections of using the divisive concept of racial and ethnic segregations The racial and ethnic prejudices have affected the distribution of power opportunity and wealth and creating enduring social stratifications The children became adults with a poor understanding of how imperialism the ancestral slaves and indentured laborers influenced their lives and their country and the powerful and lasting effects they have Living at the Borderlines Cynthia Barrow-Giles, Don D. Marshall, 2003 The idea that the Caribbean could be devolving downward in wealth function and sovereignty has become a recurrent theme in both academic and popular literature By focusing on some of the current issues facing Caribbean nation states the editors and contributors to this volume hope to inform and contribute to the ongoing debate on the broad themes of Sovereignty and Development and the prospects for survival of Caribbean nation states in a globalised world While some of the papers seek to describe and analyse the range and complexity of the challenge to national sovereignty and public policy autonomy others focus on issues relating to small country size gender and ethnic tensions security constitutional reform and regional integration The result is a balanced perspective the contributors do not gloss over the problem faced by the region At the same time they do not present a hyper pessimistic picture of Caribbean development prospects What gives the collection a particular dynamism is the way in which the authors have challenged the terrain of political possibilities traditionally defined for small peripheral societies A World of Insecurity Thomas Hylland Eriksen, Ellen Bal, Oscar Salemink, 2010-02-02 Human security is a key element in the measure of well being and a hot topic in anthropology and development studies A World of Insecurity outlines a new approach to the subject The contributors expose a contradiction at the heart of conventional accounts of what constitutes human security namely that without taking non material considerations such as religion ethnicity and gender into account discussions of human security academically and in practical terms are incomplete inconclusive and deeply flawed A variety of compelling case studies indicate that in fact material security alone cannot adequately explain or fully account for human activity in a range of different settings and exposed to a variety of different threats This forceful book will expand and deepen the entire concept of human security in the process endowing it with political relevance It is an essential read for students of development studies and anthropology Challenges and Change in Middle America Katie Willis, Cathy McIlwaine, 2014-09-25 A comprehensive introduction to the important economic social and political processes and development issues in this extremely popular region The Central American nations and those of the Caribbean including Guyana Surinam and French Guiana on the mainland share many historical processes as well as experiencing similar development problems today These include European colonialism structural adjustment small size reliance on primary production influence of the United States and moves towards democratisation While Mexico is obviously a much larger country in area economy and population terms it is included in this volume because of its close ties to the other countries in the region through processes such as trade and migration

Introduction to the Pan-Caribbean

Tracey Skelton,2014-05-01 With its diverse histories of slavery plantations colonialism and independence the Caribbean is richly layered highly complex and a wonderful example of people s resistance The pan Caribbean region also provides an excellent geography through which to understand and analyse the complex processes of globalisation development migration tourism and social and cultural relations While the sea sun and sand representation is a true one some of the most beautiful places on earth are found in the Caribbean the pan Caribbean is much more intricate and fascinating than that Where else in the world do French Spanish Dutch and English speaking worlds co exist alongside indigenous peoples and cultures Where else have cultures of carnival music and dance become so integrated into national and regional identities The Caribbean is a crucible of diversity and semblance and a space that is both contradictory and harmonious Introduction to the Pan Caribbean has been written by people who are either from the region or have spent much of their working lives there It is an excellent introduction and is your map through one of the most extraordinary and remarkable parts of the world

Conservation and Mobile Indigenous Peoples Dawn Chatty,Marcus Colchester,2025-05-01 The second edition of this remarkable volume updates the immense advances in policy and soft international law with regards to the rights of mobile indigenous peoples in conservation The contributors to this book examine the interface between conservation and indigenous communities who are forced to move or settle elsewhere to accommodate environmental policies and biodiversity concerns The case studies investigate successful and not so successful community managed projects in Africa the Middle East South and SouthEastern Asia Australia and Latin America

The Social Organization of Policy Lauren E. Eastwood,2013-11-05 This book provides a specific case study based upon direct research with UN processes which enables the reader to situate larger theoretical arguments regarding civil society globalization and sustainable development within the context of the actual activities of practitioners working within the UN forest policy making arena

Advances in Geocomputation Daniel A. Griffith,Yongwan Chun,Denis J. Dean,2017-01-03 This book contains refereed papers from the 13th International Conference on GeoComputation held at the University of Texas Dallas May 20 23 2015 Since 1996 the members of the GeoComputation the art and science of solving complex spatial problems with computers community have joined together to develop a series of conferences in the United Kingdom New Zealand Australia Ireland and the United States of America The conference encourages diverse topics related to novel methodologies and technologies to enrich the future development of

GeoComputation research Healing Traditions Laurence J. Kirmayer, Gail Guthrie Valaskakis, 2009-05-01 Aboriginal peoples in Canada have diverse cultures but share common social and political challenges that have contributed to their experiences of health and illness This collection addresses the origins of mental health and social problems and the emergence of culturally responsive approaches to services and health promotion Healing Traditions is not a handbook of practice but a resource for thinking critically about current issues in the mental health of indigenous peoples Cross cutting themes include the impact of colonialism sedentarization and forced assimilation the importance of land for indigenous identity and an ecocentric self and processes of healing and spirituality as sources of resilience Our Forests, Our Future Emil Salim, Ola Ullsten, World Commission on Forests and Sustainable Development, 1999-04-15 Forests are extraordinary in their contribution to the basic human need for environmental stability and security as well as in their contribution to the livelihood of many The World Commission on Forests and Sustainable Development WCFSD through its unique makeup and independent nature has been able to address the most significant issues surrounding the world's forests in a manner not possible for any other body or institution By convening public hearings all over the world to give voice to those who depend on forests and by engaging itself in the politics of the issues at the highest levels the WCFSD has endeavored to address fundamental and serious concerns This report representing the culmination of these efforts discusses forest practices politics and policies and the social situations which they create or perpetuate and presents the Commission's findings conclusions and recommendations Lawful Conquest? Constanze Weiske, 2021-10-04 The global expansion of European colonization is commonly perceived as lawful according to the valid European colonial law of the time This book is substantially challenging this belief by uncovering its legal justifications based on discovery and terra nullius as retrospectively created legal fictions and demonstrating its untenability in practice Focused on the critical reconstruction of Spanish and Dutch colonization practices in northeastern South America Trinidad and Tobago between 1498 and 1817 the book offers an illuminating view on the European shadow of the colonial past in the Americas Based on the application of an innovative comparative spatio legal Global History approach to 1 770 excavated European colonial written sources from archives of both sides of the Atlantic in comparison to the colonial legal provisions of Europe's most influential legal writers the book moreover provides a substantial argument to the contemporary Caribbean European reparation debate in favor of the return of Indigenous Peoples historical territories Therefore the book calls for the extension of the traditional territory approach to reparations of the United Nations Declaration of the Rights of Indigenous Peoples UNDRIPs and the Inter American Court of Human Rights IACHR Communities and Conservation Peter J. Brosius, Anna Lowenhaupt Tsing, Charles Zerner, 2005-07-21 The distinguished environmentalists in this collection offer an in depth analysis and call to advocacy for community based natural resource management CBNRM Their overview of this transnational movement reveals important links between environmental management and social justice agendas for sustainable use of resources by local communities In this volume leaders who have been instrumental in creating and shaping CBNRM describe their model programs the countermapping movement and collective claims to land and resources legal strategies for gaining rights to resources and territories biodiversity conservation and land stabilization priorities and environmental justice and minority rights This book will be of value to instructors practitioners and activists in anthropology cultural geography environmental justice environmental policy political ecology indigenous rights conservation biology and CBNRM

The Rights of Indigenous Peoples and Maroons in Suriname Ellen-Rose Kambel, Fergus MacKay, 1999 This volume describes and analyses the Surinamese legal system as it relates to the rights of indigenous peoples and Maroons The rights of these peoples have not been systematically addressed in this context before nor have they ever been the subjects of extensive academic research The book provides a good starting point for discussions of the rights of indigenous peoples and Maroons hopefully leading to a full recognition of their rights in Suriname

Marxism, Postcolonial Theory, and the Future of Critique Sharae Deckard, Rashmi Varma, 2018-09-13 Using the aesthetic and political concerns of Parry's oeuvre as a touchstone this book explores new directions for postcolonial studies Marxist literary criticism and world literature in the contemporary moment seeking to re-imagine the field and alongside it new possibilities for left critique It is the first volume of essays focusing on the field-defining intellectual legacy of the literary scholar Benita Parry As a leading critic of the post-structuralist turn within postcolonial studies Parry has not only brought Marxism and postcolonial theory into a productive albeit tense dialogue but has reinvigorated the field by bringing critical questions of resistance and struggle to bear on aesthetic forms The book's aim is two-fold first to evaluate Parry's formative influence within postcolonial studies and its interface with Marxist literary criticism and second to explore new terrains of scholarship opened up by Parry's work It provides a critical overview of Parry's key interventions such as her contributions to colonial discourse theory her debate with Spivak on subaltern consciousness and representation her critique of post-apartheid reconciliation and neoliberalism in South Africa her materialist critique of writers such as Kipling Conrad and Salih her work on liberation theory resistance and radical agency as well as more recent work on the aesthetics of peripheral modernity The volume contains cutting-edge work on peripheral aesthetics the world literary system critiques of global capitalism and capitalist modernity and the resurgence of Marxism communism and liberation theory by a range of established and new scholars who represent a dissident and new school of thought within postcolonial studies more generally It concludes with the first ever detailed interview with Benita Parry about her activism political commitments and her life and work as a scholar

Cultures of Uneven and Combined Development, 2019-07-08 Cultures of Uneven and Combined Development seeks to explore and develop Leon Trotsky's concept of uneven and combined development In particular it aims to adapt the political and historical analysis which originated in Trotsky's Russia for use within the contemporary field of world literature As such it draws together the work of scholars from both the field of international relations and the field of literature and the arts This collection will therefore be of particular interest to anyone who is interested in new ways of understanding world literary texts or interested in new ways of applying Trotsky's revolutionary politics to the contemporary world order Contributors Alexander Anievas Gail Day James Christie Kamran Matin Kerem Nisancioglu Luke Cooper Michael Niblett Neil Davidson Nesrin Degirmencioglu Robert Spencer Steve Edwards
