CCNY Made Ronnyjane Goldsmith, 2023-10-02 Everyone loves an underdog who succeeds against the odds. CCNY Made: Profiles in Grit is the story of City College of New York alumni who beat the odds to reach the pinnacle of their professions and in the process transformed our world. Here are just a few: Andrew Grove, hearing impaired and a survivor of Nazi occupation and Communist rule, became the visionary CEO of Intel Corporation, the manufacturer of the semiconductor chip found in most personal computers today. Yip Harburg, the son of immigrants, wrote the lyrics to countless music standards including Somewhere Over the Rainbow, one of the most celebrated songs of all time. Jonas Salk, facing antisemitism and the rebuke of the scientific community, developed the Salk Vaccine that eradicated polio from the face of the earth. Felix Frankfurter, who came to America at 12 speaking no English, would be appointed a U.S. Supreme Court Justice and help write the unanimous opinion in Brown v. the Board of Education, declaring school segregation in the United States illegal. In CCNY Made: Profiles in Grit the stories of CCNY alumni are recounted who exemplify the promise of Townsend Harris, founder of CCNY, and the Ephebic Oath affirmed by graduating students every year: We will strive unceasingly to quicken the public's better of civic duty and thus in all these ways we will strive to transmit this city not only not less but greater, better, and more beautiful than it was transmitted to us.

Who Gets In and Why Jeffrey Selinger, 2020-09-15 From award winning higher education journalist and New York Times bestselling author Jeffrey Selinger comes a revealing look from inside the admissions office one that identifies surprising strategies that will aid in the college search Getting into a top ranked college has never seemed more impossible with acceptance rates at some elite universities dipping into the single digits In Who Gets

In and Why journalist and higher education expert Jeffrey Selinger dispels entrenched notions of how to compete and win at the admissions game and reveals that teenagers and parents have much to gain by broadening their notion of what qualifies as a good college Hint it's not all about the sticker on the car window Selinger who was embedded in three different admissions offices a selective private university a leading liberal arts college and a flagship public campus closely observed gatekeepers as they made their often agonizing and sometimes life changing decisions He also followed select students and their parents and he traveled around the country meeting with high school counselors marketers behind the scenes consultants and college rankers While many have long believed that admissions is merit based rewarding the best students Who Gets In and Why presents a more complicated truth showing that who gets in is frequently more about the college's agenda than the applicant In a world where thousands of equally qualified students vie for a fixed number of spots at elite institutions admissions officers often make split second decisions based on a variety of factors like diversity money and ultimately whether a student will enroll if accepted One of the most insightful books ever about getting in and what higher education has become Who Gets In and Why not only provides an unusually intimate look at how admissions decisions get made but guides prospective students on how to honestly assess their strengths and match with the schools that will best serve their interests
