Encyclopedia Of Literary Modernism:

Encyclopedia of Literary Modernism Paul Poplawski, 2003-12-30 Modernism is still widely acknowledged as perhaps the most important and influential artistic and cultural phenomenon of the 20th century Written by expert scholars from around the world and covering hundreds of different topics in a clear incisive and critical manner this reference maps the complex field of modernism in a fresh and original way The principal focus of the book is on English language literary modernism and the period 1890 1939 yet many entries extend beyond those parameters to include important precursors and successors of the movement The book also covers the crucial European and interdisciplinary dimensions of modernism and provides complementary comparative perspectives from countries and regions not usually included in traditional accounts of the subject Entries cite works for further reading and the volume closes with a selected general bibliography Literary

Research and the American Realism and Naturalism Period Linda L. Stein, Peter J. Lehu, 2008-12-12 The American Realism and Naturalism literary period lasted from roughly 1861 to 1914 It was characterized by its response to the political economic and technological changes that transformed the nation during the Civil War and postbellum years Some of the most well known authors in American history wrote during this time including Mark Twain Henry James Edith Wharton Charles W Chesnutt and Upton Sinclair Literary Research and the American Realism and Naturalism Period Strategies and Sources will help those interested in researching this era Authors Linda L Stein and Peter J Lehu emphasize research methodology and outline the best practices for the research process paying attention to the unique challenges inherent in conducting studies of national literature Each chapter covers a different type of resource general and literary reference books library catalogs print and online bibliographies scholarly journals publishing history sources contemporary journals and newspapers microform and digital collections manuscript and archival material and websites The book offers a coherent account of how contemporary research skills and resources can complement one another in helping scholars effectively deal with typical challenges they encounter in their work A History of Modernist Poetry Alex Davis, Lee M. Jenkins, 2015-04-27 A History of

Modernist Poetry examines innovative anglophone poetries from decadence to the post war period The first of its three parts considers formal and contextual issues including myth politics gender and race while the second and third parts discuss a wide range of individual poets including Ezra Pound T S Eliot W B Yeats Mina Loy Gertrude Stein Wallace Stevens William Carlos Williams and Marianne Moore as well as key movements such as Imagism Objectivism and the Harlem Renaissance This book also addresses the impact of both World Wars on experimental poetries and the crucial role of magazines in disseminating and proselytizing on behalf of poetic modernism The collection concludes with a wide ranging discussion of the inheritance of modernism in recent writing on both sides of the Atlantic The Cambridge Companion to Modernist

Poetry Alex Davis, Lee M. Jenkins, 2007-07-19 This Companion offers the most comprehensive overview available of modernist poetry its forms its major authors and its contexts The first part explores the historical and cultural contexts and sexual politics of literary modernism and the avant garde The chapters in the second part concentrate on individual authors and movements while the concluding part offers a comprehensive overview of the early reception and subsequent canonisation of modernist poetry As well as insightful readings of canonical poets the Companion features extended discussions of poets whose importance is now being increasingly recognised such as Mina Loy poets of the Harlem Renaissance and postcolonial poets in the Caribbean Africa and India While modernist poets are often thought of as difficult these essays will help students to understand and enjoy their experimental playful and fascinating responses to contemporary social and cultural change and their dialogue with the arts and with each other The Oxford Handbook of Modern Irish Fiction Liam Harte, 2020-10-15

The Oxford Handbook of Modern Irish Fiction presents authoritative essays by thirty five leading scholars of Irish fiction They provide in depth assessments of the breadth and achievement of novelists and short story writers whose collective contribution to the evolution and modification of these unique art forms has been far out of proportion to Ireland's small size The volume brings a variety of critical perspectives to bear on the development of modern Irish fiction situating authors texts and genres in their social intellectual and literary historical contexts The Handbook's coverage encompasses an expansive range of topics including the recalcitrant atavisms of Irish Gothic fiction nineteenth century Irish women's fiction and its influence on emergent modernism and cultural nationalism the diverse modes of irony fabulism and social realism that characterize the fiction of the Irish Literary Revival the fearless aesthetic radicalism of James Joyce the jolting narratological experiments of Samuel Beckett Flann O'Brien and Mairéad Ní Cadhain the fate of the realist and modernist traditions in the work of Elizabeth Bowen Frank O'Connor Seán O'Faoláin and Mary Lavin and in that of their ambivalent heirs Edna O'Brien John McGahern and John Banville the subversive treatment of sexuality and gender in Northern Irish women's fiction written during and after the Troubles the often neglected genres of Irish crime fiction science fiction and fiction for children the many hued novelistic responses to the experiences of famine revolution and emigration and the variety and vibrancy of post millennial fiction from both parts of Ireland Readably written and employing a wealth of original research The Oxford Handbook of Modern Irish Fiction illuminates a distinguished literary tradition that has altered the shape of world literature Fault Lines of Modernity Kitty Millet, Dorothy Figueira, 2018-09-20

This state of the art collection offers fresh perspectives on why intersections between literature religion and ethics can address the fault lines of modernity and are not necessarily the cause of modernity's faults From a diverse cohort of scholars from around the world with appointments in comparative literature and other disciplines the essays suggest that the imagined hegemony of a Judeo-Christian Western project is neither exclusively true nor productive However the essays also suggest that elements of the Western religious traditions are important vectors for understanding modernity's complicated relationship to the past

Olive Schreiner and African Modernism Jade Munslow Ong, 2017-10-20 This book works across established categories of modernism and postcolonialism in order to radically revise the periods places and topics traditionally associated with anti colonialism and aesthetic experimentation in African literature The book is the first account of Olive Schreiner as a theorist and practitioner of modernist form advancing towards an emergent postcolonialism The book draws on and broadens discussions in and around the blossoming field of global modernist studies by interrogating the conventionally accepted genealogy of development that positions Europe and America as the sites of innovation It provides an original examination of the relationships between metaphor postcolonialism and modernist experimentation by showing how politically and aesthetically innovative African forms rely on allegorical structures in contrast to the symbolism dominant in Euro American modernism An original theoretical concept of the role of primitivism and allegory within the context of modernism and associated critical theory is proposed through the integration of postcolonial Marxist and ecocritical approaches to literature The book provides original readings of Schreiner s three novels Undine The Story of An African Farm and From Man to Man in light of the new theory of primitivism in African literature by directly addressing the issue of narrative form This argument is contextualised in relation to the work of other Southern African authors in whose writings the impact of Schreiner s politics and aesthetics can be traced These authors include J M Coetzee Nadine Gordimer Doris Lessing Solomon T Plaatje and Zoe Wicomb amongst others This book brings the most current debates in modernist studies ecocriticism and primitivism into the field of postcolonial studies and contributes to a widening of the debates surrounding gender race empire and modernism

D. H. Lawrence In Context Andrew Harrison, 2018-11-15 This collection of original concise essays by leading international scholars draws closely on the Cambridge Edition of the Letters and Works of D H Lawrence to provide up to date insights into the key contexts to the author s life career and legacy It opens with an overview of Lawrence s life as it is explored in biographies and revealed in his letters and writing before reassessing his relationship to the contemporary literary marketplace and his response to and intervention in a range of literary cultural and social historical contexts It ends with sections on Lawrence s changing critical reception and his powerful legacy in the work of later authors and filmmakers The essays present a detailed and nuanced picture of Lawrence as an enterprising professional author with a truly cosmopolitan outlook who engaged deeply and strongly with his contemporary culture and with currents of thought across a range of disciplines

D. H. Lawrence, Technology, and Modernity Indrek Männiste, 2019-02-07 While the dehumanizing effects of technology modernity and industrialization have been widely recognized in D H Lawrence s works no book length study has been dedicated to this topic This collection of newly commissioned essays by a cast of international scholars fills a genuine void and investigates Lawrence's peculiar relationship with modern technology and modernity in its many and varied aspects Addressing themes such as pastoral vs industrial mining war robots ecocriticism technologies of the self film poetic devices of technology entertainment and many others these essays help to reevaluate Lawrence's complicated standing within the modernist literary tradition and reveal the true theoretical wealth of a writer whose whole life and work according to T S Eliot was an assertion of what the modern world has lost

Gothic Modernisms A. Smith, J. Wallace, 2001-05-04 This is the first full length exploration of the relationship between Gothic fiction and Modernism in fiction and film The Gothic's fascination with images of the fragmented self is echoed in the Modernist concern with the psyche and the paranoia of the everyday The contributors explore how the Gothic influences a range of writers including James Joyce D H Lawrence Virginia Woolf May Sinclair Elizabeth Bowen and Djuna Barnes

Postcolonialism Brian T. May, 2014-11-03 Brian T May argues that contrary to widely held assumptions of postcolonial literary criticism a distinctive subset of postcolonial novels significantly values and scrupulously explores a healthy individuality These extravagant postcolonial works focus less on collective social reality than on the intimate subjectivity of their characters Their authors most of whom received some portion of a canonical western education do not subordinate the ambitions of their fiction to explicit political causes so much as create a cosmopolitan rhetorical focus suitable to their western educated western trained audiences May pursues this argument by scrutinizing novels composed during the thirty year postindependence postcolonial era of Anglophone fiction a period that began with the Nigerian Chinua Achebe's Things Fall Apart and that ended many would say with the Ayatollah Khomeini's 1989 publication of the Rushdie Fatwa May contends that the postcolonial authors under consideration Naipaul Rushdie Achebe Rhys Gordimer and Coetzee inherited modernism and refashioned it His account of their work demonstrates how it reflects and transfigures modernists such as Conrad Eliot Yeats Proust Joyce and Beckett Tracing the influence of humanistic values and charting the ethical and aesthetic significance of individualism May demonstrates that these works of extravagant postcolonialism represent less a departure from than a continuation and evolution of modernism

Revisiting Modernism Maria-Ana Tupan, By shifting the centre of gravity from author to reader Roland Barthes had certainly prepared us for a Copernican turn in aesthetics yet Michael J Pearce's Art in the Age of Emergence still sounds unfamiliar two years after its publication While acknowledging the existence of homologues among the art objects of a cultural phase the Californian academic also launches an explanatory hypothesis I realized that in order to understand art instead of looking for the similarities between the paintings and the sculptures we have to look at the similarities between the people looking at them Art is better explained by looking at how the mind works than by looking at the products of mind XV The substitution of the phenomenology of mind for the phenomenology of the work of art can only have a partial contribution to the understanding of period terms yet not devoid of relevance The numerous studies in modernism published of late for instance are revisionary the changing views being motivated by the new historical context rather than by a new assessment of forms The mind turns out to be working according to the critical theory it has been exposed to or which it has freely embraced Relegated to the status of socio political movement without aesthetic significance since 1939 when Clement Greenberg associated it with kitsch to Renato Poggioli Peter Bürger or Christopher Butler Early Modernism Literature Music and Painting in Europe 1900 1916 1994 the avant garde came to be enshrined as the weightiest artistic phenomenon and the last post of modernism by Richard Sheppard in Modernism Dada Postmodernism 2000 who joined thus a new party of postmodern critics among whom Linda Hutcheon who see the historical avant garde as the generative matrix of the post war literature in the 50s and the 60s stretching the term to include the French nouveau roman or the Tel Quel Quoted by Sheppard on Marx's Communist Manifesto being the first great modernist work of art Marshall Berman All That Is Solid Melts into Air 1982 too welcomes modernism into the sixties and seventies Titles such as Avant Garde and After Rethinking Art Now by Brandon Taylor have tilted the scales measuring modernism against the avant garde into a more balanced position even if also the leads of the earlier twentieth century have been the object of New Historicist and culturalist approaches that corrected the Axel Castle icon of egocentric aloofness through readings that evinced the substantial presence of history in the writings of Woolf Joyce or D H Lawrence With interdisciplinarity the latest buzz word in the academic world lots of studies have been dedicated to the influence of Non Euclidian Geometry relativity and quantum physics on modernist art for instance Surrealism Art and Modern Science Relativity Quantum Mechanics Epistemology by Gavin Parkinson 2008 The most spectacular renovation has probably been undergone by no other than Charles Baudelaire the founding father who has been removed from his site with transcendent flavours and symbolic correspondences and inserted into the phantasmagoric pre cinematic media world Marit Grotta Baudelaire's Media Aesthetics The Gaze of the Flâneur and 19th Century Media If we travel back in time to get a feeling of what modernists saw in each other and compare their vision with such contemporary framing we realize to what extent the history of reception modifies the history of composition Mina Loy's ekphrasis of sculptor Brancusi's Golden Bird for instance conveys the modernist artist's infatuation with archetypes tropes of immaculate conception breast of revelation or hyperaesthesia the alchemy whereby the senses projected a secondary reality of mixed perceptions Is there a possibility to negotiate meanings when talking to the dead as Stephen Greenblatt has put it in the opening of Shakespearean Negotiations Used also by Ayendy Bonifacio in his essay on Hart Crane interliterariness is a middle European term for what Russian semioticians or French and American social critics or American New Historicists had already attempted to achieve an
