Encyclopedia Of Love A Memoir:

An Encyclopedia of Love M. Scheil, 1998-12-15 In encyclopedia form the utterly original captivating story of two people in love A memoir like no other in encyclopedic entries a love affair comes to life with details that range from Abilities Baking to Passions Keaton B to Transport Bicycle In alphabetical rather than chronological order we see the joy of two people meeting in middle age and falling quickly deeply in love only to learn within two years that the man has an incurable fatal disease He was a British artist she is an American playwright but we never learn more of their specifics or even their names instead we witness the details large and small that make up a life and a romance from a first date to food preferences to gardening to jokes With a subtly funny warm and lively touch the author pulls off an improbably delightful and engaging feat to draw an unforgettable and universal portrait of enduring love Encyclopedia of Love, 19?? Encyclopedia of Life Writing
