Conversations About History, Volume 3 Howard Burton,2021-05-24 Conversations About History Volume 3 includes the following 5 carefully edited Ideas Roadshow Conversations featuring leading historians This collection includes a detailed preface highlighting the connections between the different books Each book is broken into chapters with a detailed introduction and questions for discussion at the end of each chapter 1 Eating One's Own Examining Civil War A Conversation with intellectual historian David Armitage the Lloyd C Blamie Professor of History at Harvard University This conversation covers David Armitage's extensive research on the history of ideas of civil war from Ancient Rome to the present A salient feature of his work is a strong focus on etymology as it relates to our understanding of how people interpreted or misinterpreted and perceived events in history which results in a fascinating exploration of how our understanding of various concepts has been prejudiced by past societies and past beliefs that we might not even be aware of and how they in turn go on to influence other societies and how this cumulative process frames our understanding of these ideas 2 China Up Close and Personal A Conversation with Karl Gerth Hwei Chih and Julia Hsiu Chair in Chinese Studies and Professor of History at UC San Diego This wide ranging conversation covers the emerging American style consumer culture of China which is revolutionizing the lives of hundreds of millions of Chinese how it has transformed its economy and lifestyle and has the potential to reshape the world 3 Sheathing the Bodkin Combating Suicide A Conversation with poet author and historian Jennifer Michael Hecht After intriguing details about how she combines writing poetry doing scholarly history and public writing this wide ranging conversation movingly embellishes upon Jennifer Michael Hecht s book Stay A History of Suicide and the Philosophies Against It which is an intellectual and cultural history of the most persuasive arguments against suicide from the Stoics and the Bible to Dante Shakespeare Wittgenstein and such twentieth century writers as Albert Camus 4 For the Love of History A Conversation with Margaret MacMillan Professor of History at the University of Toronto and emeritus Professor of International History and the former warden of St Antony s College at the University of Oxford This wide ranging conversation examines her research on patriotism and nationalism which are essential themes of her lifelong work on 19th and 20th history 5 The Epicurean Republic A Conversation with award winning author and independent scholar Matthew Stewart In his later years Thomas Jefferson referred to the revolutionary part of the American Revolution which for him meant the founding ideals that would serve as a model for the world on how to build a modern state as opposed to an incidental squabble between one country and its former colonists This wide ranging conversation explores how many of these ideals that Jefferson referred to are part of an intellectual thread that passes through key Enlightenment thinkers such as Spinoza and can be traced all the way back to Epicurus Howard Burton is the founder and host of all Ideas Roadshow Conversations and was the Founding Executive Director of Perimeter Institute for Theoretical Physics He holds a PhD in theoretical physics and an MA in philosophy

A Political History of the Bible in America Paul D. Hanson, 2015-08-24 Biblical history enriched by many religious and cultural traditions flows into and is intertwined with our nation s epic both for better and for worse To ignore that history is to cut ourselves off from our roots and to deny the ancestral experiences that forged our individual and collective identity from the prologue This substantial work explores the interplay of religion and politics throughout the history of the United States Paul D Hanson traces American history back to colonial times paying close attention to the role that biblical tradition has played in shaping the national story of the United States He then presents a detailed study of politics in the Bible that is framed by the challenges and crises in American history Students will learn how deeply religion has influenced both domestic and international policy and contributed to the nation s sense of identity and purpose After laying these biblical historical foundations Hanson considers a method of biblical interpretation that can speak to the diverse nation of today He proposes an inclusive form of public moral discourse that invites full participation by members of all religious and philosophical groups Catalog of Copyright Entries Library of Congress. Trailblazer Farooq Kathwari, 2019-09-03 Farooq Kathwari s extraordinary life began in politically divided Kashmir where his family was separated by government decree He had to leave home as a refugee helped his mother survive shock therapy joined student activists in street demonstrations and faced down a gun wielding security officer all by the age of seventeen Forced to become self reliant Kathwari journeyed to the United States talked his way into a bookkeeping job and earned a degree from NYU graduate school He launched his first entrepreneurial venture selling Kashmiri crafts out of his Brooklyn apartment When Kathwari s best customer the iconic furniture maker Ethan Allen needed fresh leadership he was asked to become its president He transformed the company and become one of America s most successful and admired CEOs Meanwhile spurred by the tragic loss of his teenaged son in war Kathwari dedicated himself to the cause of peace in Kashmir and around the world He hosted meetings with diplomats shuttled messages between heads of state and worked with global leaders on issues from human rights to refugee resettlement Brimming with drama insight and unexpected humor Trailblazer recounts a unique life story offering readers not just an engrossing journey but also the wisdom of an exceptional leader From Trailblazer When the American journalist told me he hoped to report the truth about the Kashmir uprising I decided to help The government people won t let you see what is really happening I said Why not let me take you around It was foolish of me to make such an offer I knew I was risking retribution by the security forces But I was a headstrong independent young man I wanted the truth to get out and I would do what I could to help that happen
