Buddhists have a special connection with Sikhism due to the belief that Guru Nanak was a manifestation of Guru Padmasambhava. It is with this curiosity that the idea for this book was conceived leading to the discovery of an astonishing number of similarities between the two spiritual traditions. This comparative study, the first major attempt of its kind, scoured the entire Sikh Scripture, Shri Guru Granth Sahib, and found numerous parallels with the Buddhist Canon, especially Pali, ranging from the life stories of the founding fathers of the two faiths, their social agenda and core tenets to articles of faith including religious symbolism. It is hoped that this research can in some way help to blur the divisions between religious labels and bring out pure spirituality devoid of fixation on religious externalities, which leads to much dissent, especially in this degenerate era. While acknowledging the rich diversity and uniqueness of each spiritual tradition, this book eventually comes to the conclusion that spirituality transcends religious labels. We have come to appreciate that although the externalities of religion may differ vastly, spiritual insights remain universal.

What emerges is a majestic and magisterial portrait of a great enlightener who not only founded one of the world's major religions but whose singular message of unity and hope has endured centuries after he first walked the earth. The First Sikh unites rigorous scholarship with a deep love for the subject, offering fascinating insights into Guru Nanak's life and times, even as it explores key facets of Sikhism. Moreover, it shows us how Guru Nanak continues to remain relevant in a twenty-first century reality.
