WEINER,1990
Anime Interviews Trish Ledoux,1997-09-22 In this book the first collection of its kind you will hear insights directly from the mouths and minds of the anime and manga creators themselves in interviews with are often the only ones on record in English some of these creators are larger than life legends in their native Japan some are up and coming young talents but all have a lot to say on the subject of their work Film Review ,1994 History Wars and The Classroom Tony Taylor,Robert Guyver,2012-03-01 The book is entitled History Wars in the Classroom Global Perspectives and examines how ten separate countries have experienced debates and disputes over the contested nature of the subject for example the Black Armband and Whitewash factions in Australia who adopt opposingly celebratory or denigratory views of Australian history especially when evaluating episodes of poor racial relations There are also tensions between traditional patriotic views of history teaching and reformed or new history There are issues of political control of the curriculum and parallel issues of who writes it very topical in England at the moment over two expat big picture historians who work at Harvard and Columbia Niall Ferguson and Simon Schama Religion and Violence in Western Traditions André Gagné,Jennifer Guyver,Gerbern S. Oegema,2021-09-16 This book examines the connection between religion and violence in the Western traditions of the three Abrahamic faiths from ancient to modern times It addresses a gap in the scholarly debate on the nature of religious violence by bringing scholars that specialize in pre modern religions and scriptural traditions into the same sphere of discussion as those specializing in contemporary manifestations of religious violence Moving beyond the question of the authenticity of religious violence this book brings together scholars from a variety of disciplines Contributors explore the central role that religious texts have played in encouraging as well as confronting violence The interdisciplinary conversation that takes place challenges assumptions that religious violence is a modern problem that can be fully understood without reference to religious scriptures beliefs or history Each chapter focuses its analysis on a particular case study from a distinct historical period Taken as a whole these chapters attest to the persistent relationship between religion and violence that links the ancient and contemporary worlds This is a dynamic collection of explorations into how religion and violence intersect As such it will be a key resource for any scholar of Religious Studies Theology and Religion and Violence as well as Christian Jewish and Islamic Studies

American Book Publishing Record ,1984 Do development projects crowd out private-sector activities? Lambrecht, Isabel,Ragasa, Catherine,2016-12-02 Contract farming CF is attractive as a possible private sector led strategy for improving smallholder farmers welfare Yet many CF schemes suffer from high turnover of participating farmers and struggle to survive So far the dynamics of CF participation have remained largely unexplored We employ duration analysis to examine factors affecting entry into and exit from different maize CF schemes in northern Ghana focusing specifically on the impact of development projects on CF entry and exit We find that agricultural development projects reduce the likelihood of scheme entry and increase the likelihood of exit Our findings confirm concerns that if interventions are not planned in accordance with relevant private sector actors private sector initiatives can be hindered by competing development projects
