Damning Words Hart, D. G.,2016 Recounts a famously outspoken agnostic s surprising relationship with Christianity H L Mencken 1880 1956 was a reporter literary critic editor author and a famous American agnostic From his role in the Scopes Trial to his advocacy of science and reason in public life Mencken is generally regarded as one of the fiercest critics of Christianity in his day In this biography D G Hart presents a provocative iconoclastic perspective on Mencken s life Even as Mencken vividly debunked American religious ideals says Hart it was Christianity that largely framed his ideas career and fame Mencken s relationship to the Christian faith was at once antagonistic and symbiotic Using plenty of Mencken s own words Damning Words superbly portrays an influential figure in twentieth century America and at the same time casts telling new light on his era

The Midwestern Ascendancy in American Writing Ronald Weber,1992 For a half century from Edward Eggleston s pioneering novel The Hoosier Schoolmaster in 1871 through the dazzling early work of Hart Crane F Scott Fitzgerald and Ernest Hemingway in the 1920s Midwestern literature was at the center of American writing In The Midwestern Ascendancy in American Writing Ronald Weber illuminates the sense of lost promise that gives rise to the elegiac note struck in many Midwestern works he also addresses the deeply divided feelings about the region revealed in the contrary desires to abandon and to celebrate The period of Midwestern cultural ascendancy was a time of tremendous social and technological change Midwestern writing was a reflection of these societal changes it was American literature

Textual Studies and the Common Reader Alexander Pettit,2000 Textual Studies and the Common Reader collects eleven original essays by editors of literary texts and theorists concerned about the implications of what such editors do The volume s organizing theme is textual studies the domain of which in one contributor s words is the genesis transmission and editing of texts The contributors seek to extend the discussion about textual studies beyond any narrow professional scope thus none of the essays assumes any training in textual studies Also the focus of the book is on the literary genre most familiar to most readers the novel Authors discussed include Willa Cather Joseph Conrad Theodore Dreiser William Faulkner D H Lawrence William Makepeace Thackeray and Mary Wollstonecraft Shelley Many people read literary works but few do so with a steady sense of their constructedness as texts of the ways in which genesis transmission and editing have shaped them as conveyors of meaning This book shows that the experience of reading is more rewarding for such awareness

Southscapes Thadious M. Davis,2011-11-21 In this innovative approach to southern literary cultures Thadious Davis analyzes how black southern writers use their spatial location to articulate the vexed connections between society and environment particularly under segregation and its legacies Basing her analysis on texts by Ernest Gaines Richard Wright Alice Walker Natasha Trethewey Olympia Vernon Brenda Marie Osbey Sybil Kein and others Davis reveals how these writers reconstitute racial exclusion as creative black space rather than a site of trauma and resistance Utilizing the social and political separation epitomized by segregation to forge a spatial and racial vantage point Davis argues allows these writers to imagine and represent their own subject matter and aesthetic concerns Focusing particularly on Louisiana and Mississippi Davis deploys new geographical discourses of space to expand analyses of black writers relationship to the South and to consider the informing aspects of spatial narratives on their literary production She argues that African American writers not only are central to the production of southern literature and new southern studies but also are crucial to understanding the shift from modernism to postmodernism in southern letters A paradigm shifting work Southscapes restores African American writers to their rightful place in the regional imagination while calling for a more inclusive conception of region
