Hadith Literature Muhammad Zubair Siddiqi,2006 Hadith serves as a source of information for the history of pre Islamic Arabia and of early Islam and for the development of Islamic Thought in general and Islamic law in particular It has played

The Development of Exegesis in Early Islam Herbert Berg, 2013-04-03 The most important debate in Islamic origins is that of the reliability of the lists of transmitters isnads that are said to guarantee the authenticity of the materials to which they are attached Many scholars have come to the conclusion that most traditions hadiths which claim to preserve the words and deeds of Muhammad and early Muslim scholars are spurious Other scholars defend hadiths and their isnads arguing for an early continuous written transmission of these materials The first purpose of this study is to summarize and critique the major positions on the issue of the authenticity of hadiths in general and exegetical hadiths in particular The second purpose is to devise a means of evaluating isnads that does not rely on circular arguments and to use it to determine if the hadiths in the Tafsir of al Tabari attributed to Ibn Abbas are genuine

Constructive Critics, Hadith Literature, and the Articulation of Sunnī Islam Scott Lucas, 2004-05-01 Demonstrating the central role of third ninth century ad th scholars in the articulation of Sunn Islam this book bases its findings largely upon the analysis of multiple biographical dictionaries such as al Dhahab s Tadhkirat al uff Ibn Sa d s Kit b al abaq t al kab r and collections of the critical comments of Ibn Ma n and Ibn anbal Part I establishes conceptual and historical frameworks for the study of Sunn ad th scholarship Part II examines in detail the three foundational principles of Sunn Islam 1 the collective probity of the a ba 2 the discipline of ad th transmitter criticism and 3 a historical vision of the authoritative channels by which ad th traversed the two centuries between the life of the Prophet Mu ammad and the first major ad th books

Hadith Harald Motzki, 2016-12-05 Hadith is understood here in its broader meaning as the bulk of the texts which contain information on the prophet Muhammad and his Companions having the form of transmissions from them The reliability of this material as a source for early Islam is still a highly debated issue This selection of articles presents the different points of view in this debate and the varying methodological approaches with which scholars trained in modern secular sciences have tried to find a solution to the problem

Reading Spiritualities Dawn Llewellyn, 2016-04-01 The phenomenon of sacred text has undergone radical deconstruction in recent times reflecting how religion has broken out of its traditional definitions and practices and how current literary theories have influenced texts inside the religious domain and beyond Reading Spiritualities presents both commentary and vivid examples of this evolution engaging with a variety of reading practices that work with traditional texts and those that extend the notion of text itself The contributors draw on a range of textual sites such as an interview Caribbean literature drama and jazz women s writings emerging church blogs Neopagan websites the reading practices of Buddhist nuns empirical studies on the reading experiences of Gujarati Christian and post Christian women Chicana short stories the mosque cinema modern art and literature These examples open up understandings of where and how sacred texts are emerging and being reassessed within contemporary religious and spiritual contexts and make room for readings where the spiritual resides not only in the textual

but in other unexpected places Reading Spiritualities includes contributions from Graham Holderness Ursula King Michael N Jagessar David Jasper Anthony G Reddie Mich le Roberts and Heather Walton to reflect and encourage the interdisciplinary study of sacred text in the broad arena of the arts and social sciences It offers a unique and well focused snapshot of the textual constructions and representations of the sacred within the contemporary religious climate accessible to the general reader as well as more specialist interests of students and researchers working in the crossover fields of religious theological cultural and literary studies

Islam Solomon A. Nigosian,2004-01-29 This compact introduction to Islam describes the essential aspects of Islam as a living religion and social force The book is organized around seven topics the life of Muhammad Islamic political development and territorial expansion the important groupings of Islamic believers Sunni Shi ite and Sufi the Qur an the Holy Book of Islam Sunnah Hadith the record of the Prophet s actions and sayings and Shari ah the compilation of Islamic law the five Articles of Faith and the so called Five Pillars of Islam that govern faith and action and other binding religious observances and festivals The presentation of these seven aspects of Islam strikes a balance between fact tradition current interpretation and commentary S A Nigosian underscores two fundamental points that to understand Islam properly it is necessary to see it as a major faith tradition with Muhammad as the last of a series of messengers sent by God and that to grasp the spirit of Islam one must recognize its emphasis on an uncompromising monotheism with strict adherence to certain social political and religious practices as taught by the Prophet and elaborated by tradition The Penguin Dictionary of Islam Azim Nanji,2008-04-24 Islam today is a truly global faith yet it remains somewhat of an enigma to many of us Each and every day our newspapers are saturated with references to Islam Quran Taliban Hijab Fatwa Allah Sunni Jihad Shia the list goes on But how much do we really understand Are we in fact misunderstanding The Penguin Dictionary of Islam provides complete impartial answers It includes extensive coverage of the historical formations of the worldwide Muslim community and highlights key modern Muslim figures and events Understanding Islam is vital to understanding our world and this text is the definitive authority designed for both general and academic readers Exploring Islam Salih Sayilgan,2021-09-21 Exploring Islam is a comprehensive yet accessible introduction to the foundations of the Islamic faith including its history theology and spiritual practice The book also deals with issues such as jihad the status of women and the various sectarian divisions in Islam Most distinctive about this work is its analysis of the lived experience of Muslims in modern American life The book explores questions such as What are the foundations of Islam How do Muslims relate to and interpret the Qur an Who is the Prophet Muhammad What does Shari a law really mean What are the major themes of Islamic theology What are the theological and political issues that led to divisions among Muslims Do Muslims and Christians believe in the same God How do Muslims practice Islam in America What are the challenges and opportunities for American Muslims In addressing these questions Sayilgan offers readers a perspective that is scholarly judicious and engaging Crescent and Dove Qamar-ul Huda,2010 Crescent and Dove looks at the relationship between contemporary Islam and peacemaking by tackling the diverse interpretations concepts and problems in the field of Islamic peacemaking It addresses both theory and practice by delving into the intellectual heritage of Islam to discuss historical examples of addressing conflict in Islam and exploring the practical challenges of contemporary peacemaking in Arab countries Turkey Iran Pakistan and Indonesia Islam's Perfect Stranger Edward Thomas,2010-11-23 Can Sudan one of Africa s most diverse countries function as an Islamic state Mahmud Muhammad Taha posed an original answer to this question Taha was the charismatic leader of the Republican Brothers and Sisters a small group of Sudanese nationalists who called for a mystical inclusive reinterpretation of Islam that ended traditional legal discriminations against women and non Muslims Taha s followers pitched his sometimes controversial mix of law and mysticism on Sudanese street corners in the 1970s Sudanese Islamist politicians who used a more divisive interpretation of Islam opposed him vigorously When they gained control of the state in the chaotic 1980s Taha was executed

In Taha's first biography Edward Thomas explores the life and ideas of an important Sudanese reformer who has become a symbol for resistance, tolerance and human rights. Islam and Evolution Shoaib Ahmed Malik, 2021-05-03 This book attempts to equip the reader with a holistic and accessible account of Islam and evolution. It guides the reader through the different variables that have played a part in the ongoing dialogue between Muslim creationists and evolutionists. This work views the discussion through the lens of al-Ghazali (1058-1111), a widely known and well-respected Islamic intellectual from the medieval period. By understanding al-Ghazali as an Ash'arite theologian, a particular strand of Sunni theology, his metaphysical and hermeneutic ideas are taken to explore if and how much Neo-Darwinian evolution can be accepted. It is shown that his ideas can be used to reach an alignment between Islam and Neo-Darwinian evolution. This book offers a detailed examination that seeks to offer clarity, if not agreement, in the midst of an intense intellectual conflict and polarity amongst Muslims. As such, it will be of great interest to scholars of Science and Religion, Theology, Philosophy of Religion, Islamic Studies and Religious Studies more generally. Winner of the International Society for Science Religion (ISSR) book prize 2022 academic category. The Oxford Handbook of Islam and Women Asma Afsaruddin, 2023 The Oxford Handbook of Islam and Women offers authoritative contributions from well-known scholars whose sophisticated and cutting-edge research explores the diversity of Muslim women's lives and their accomplishments, challenging common stereotypes that are particularly prevalent in the West.
