Edgington, 2017-10-01 Fashioned Texts and Painted Books examines the folding fan s multiple roles in fin de si cle and early twentieth century French literature Focusing on the fan s identity as a symbol of feminine sexuality as a collectible art object and especially as an alternative book form well suited to the reception of poetic texts the study highlights the fan s suitability as a substrate for verse deriving from its myriad associations with coquetry and sex flight air and breath Close readings of St phane Mallarm s ventails of the 1880s and 1890s and Paul Claudel s Cent phrases pour ventails 1927 consider both text and paratext as they underscore the significant visual interest of this poetry Works in prose and in verse by Octave Uzanne Guy de Maupassant and Marcel Proust along with fan leaves by Edgar Degas douard Manet Berthe Morisot and Paul Gauguin serve as points of comparison that deepen our understanding of the complex interplay of text and image that characterizes this occasional subgenre Through its interrogation of the correspondences between form and content in fan poetry this study demonstrates that the fan was in addition to being a ubiquitous fashion accessory a significant literary and art historical object straddling the boundary between East and West past and present and high and low art Depersonalization and Creative Writing Matthew Francis, 2022-07-18 Depersonalization and Creative Writing Unreal City explores the common psychological symptom of depersonalization its influence on literature and the insights it can provide into the writing process Depersonalization is a distressing symptom in which sufferers feel detached from their own selves and the world Often associated with psychological disorders it can also affect healthy people at times of stress Beginning with a first hand account of the experience the book goes on to argue that many well known literary texts including Camus s The Outsider and Sartre s

Nausea evoke a similar psychological state It shows how a concept of depersonalized writing can be found in the work of literary theorists from widely different traditions including T S Eliot Roland Barthes and Viktor Shklovsky Finally it maintains that creative writers can make use of the lessons learned from a study of depersonalization to arrive at a deeper understanding of writing Given this knowledge the controversial writing teacher s maxim show don t tell so often misapplied or misunderstood can be repurposed as a practical instruction for taking students writing to a new level of sophistication and wisdom
