Haim Steinbach, 1988 Haim Steinbach Haim Steinbach, Jean-Louis Froment, Germano Celant, Elisabeth Lebovici, John Miller, 1988 Documents of Utopia Paolo Magagnoli, 2015-05-12 This timely volume discusses the experimental documentary projects of some of the most significant artists working in the world today Hito Steyerl Joachim Koester Tacita Dean Matthew Buckingham Zoe Leonard Jean Luc Moul ne Ilya and Emilia Kabakov Jon Thomson and Alison Craighead and Anri Sala Their films videos and photographic series address failed utopian experiments and counter hegemonic social practices This study illustrates the political significance of these artistic practices and critically contributes to the debate on the conditions of utopian thinking in late capitalist society arguing that contemporary artists interest in the past is the result of a shift within the temporal organization of the utopian imagination from its futuristic pole toward remembrance The book therefore provides one of the first critical examinations of the recent turn toward documentary in the field of contemporary art New York Magazine, 1988-05-30 New York magazine was born in 1968 after a run as an insert of the New York Herald Tribune and quickly made a place for itself as the trusted resource for readers across the country With award winning writing and photography covering everything from politics and food to theater and fashion the magazine s consistent mission has been to reflect back to its audience the energy and excitement of the city itself while celebrating New York as both a place and an idea New York Magazine, 1993-06-14 New York magazine was born in 1968 after a run as an insert of the New York Herald Tribune and quickly made a place for itself as the trusted resource for readers across the country With award winning writing and photography covering everything from politics and food to theater and fashion the magazine s consistent mission has been to reflect back to its audience the energy and excitement of the city itself while celebrating New York as both a place and an idea Art on the Edge and Over Linda Weintraub, Arthur C. Danto, Thomas McEvilly, 1996 Linda Weintraub recognizes that art at the end of the 20th century changes too quickly and is too multifaceted to be quickly and easily understood Here she explains the intractably avant garde art of the 1970s 80s and 90s by searching for art s meaning within the context of popular culture and the common trends that have led to new forms of artistic expression Art History, After Sherrie Levine Howard Singerman, Sherrie Levine, 2012 For this in depth examination of artist Sherrie Levine Howard Singerman surveys a broad range of sources to assess an artist whose work was understood from the outset to oppose the values of the art world in the 1980s but who by the end of the decade was exhibiting in some of the most successful commercial galleries in New York Hot Art, Cold War - Western and Northern European Writing on American Art 1945-1990 Claudia Hopkins, Iain Boyd Whyte, 2020-09-17 Hot Art Cold War Northern and Western European Writing on American Art 1945 1990 is one of two text anthologies that trace the reception of American art in Europe during the Cold War era through primary sources With the exception of those originally published in English the majority of these texts are translated into English for the first time from eight languages and are introduced by scholarly essays They offer a representative selection of the diverse responses to American art in Great Britain Ireland France Belgium the Netherlands West Germany FRG Austria Switzerland Denmark Norway Sweden and Finland There was no single European discourse as attitudes to American art were determined by a wide range of ideological political social cultural and artistic positions that varied considerably across the European nations This volume and its companion Hot Art Cold War Southern and Eastern European Writing on American Art 1945 1990 offer the reader a unique opportunity to compare how European art writers introduced and explained contemporary American art to their many and varied audiences Whilst many are fluent in one or two foreign languages few are able to read all twenty five languages represented in the two volumes These ground breaking publications significantly enrich the fields of American art studies and European art criticism This book together with its companion volume Hot Art Cold War Southern and Eastern European Writing on American Art 1945 1990 is a joint initiative of the Terra Foundation for American Art and the editors of the journal Art in Translation at the University of Edinburgh The journal launched in 2009 publishes English language translations of the most significant texts on art and visual cultures presently only available only in their source language It is committed to widening the perspectives of art history making it more pluralist in terms of its authors viewpoints and subject matter

Curating Under Pressure Janet Marstine, Svetlana Mintcheva, 2020-07-14 Curating Under Pressure breaks the silence surrounding curatorial self censorship and shows that it is both endemic to the practice and ubiquitous Contributors map the diverse forms such self censorship takes and offer creative strategies for negotiating curatorial integrity This is the first book to look at pressures to self censor and the curatorial responses to these pressures from a wide range of international perspectives The book offers examples of the many creative strategies that curators deploy to negotiate pressures to self censor and gives evidence of curators political acumen ethical sagacity and resilience over the long term It also challenges the assumption that self censorship is something to be avoided at all costs and suggests that a decision to self censor may sometimes be politically and ethically imperative Curating Under Pressure serves as a corrective to the assumption that censorship pressures render practitioners impotent It demonstrates that curatorial practice under pressure offers inspiring models of agency ingenuity and empowerment Curating Under Pressure is a highly original and intellectually ambitious volume and as such will be of great interest to students and academics in the areas of museum studies curatorial and gallery studies art history studio art and arts administration The book will also be an essential tool for museum practitioners

Sculpture from the Sheldon Memorial Art Gallery Karen O. Janovy, Daniel A. Siedell, 2005-01-01 All of the 90 pieces selected from more than 350 works in the collection are presented here in full color each accompanied by a brief discussion of the artist and his or her work by leading scholars in the field as well as authorities on the collection The essays examine the works of sculptors represented in the Sheldon s collection including Barlach Brancusi Calder Duchamp Moore and Rodin and present a concise yet comprehensive overview of pertinent scholarship that will be of value to both students and experts in the field BOOK JACKET The Troubles With Postmodernism Stefan Morawski, 2013-06-17 In this original and eye opening study Stefan Morawski sheds light on the often confused debate about postmodernism postmodernity and human values It is an indispensable guide to our understanding of contemporary literature Memento Mori in Contemporary Art Taylor Worley, 2019-11-28 This book explores how four contemporary artists Francis Bacon Joseph Beuys Robert Gober and Damien Hirst pursue the question of death through their fraught appropriations of Christian imagery Each artist is shown to not only pose provocative theological questions but also to question the abilities of theological speech to adequately address current attitudes to death When set within a broader theological context around the thought of death Bacon's works invite fresh readings of the New Testament's narration of the betrayal of Christ and Beuys' works can be appreciated for the ways they evoke Resurrection to envision possible futures for Germany in the aftermath of war Gober's immaculate sculptures and installations serve to create alternative religious environments and these places are both evocative of his Roman Catholic upbringing and virtually haunted by the ghosts of his excommunication from that past Lastly and perhaps most problematically Hirst has built his brand as an artist from making jokes about death By opening fresh arenas of dialogue and meaning making in our society and culture today the rich humanity of these artworks promises both renewed depths of meaning regarding our exit from this world as well as how we might live well within it for the time that we have As such it will be a vital resource for all scholars in Theology the Visual Arts Material Religion and Religious Studies The Gastronomica Reader Darra Goldstein, 2010 Rarefied but unpretentious each issue is an artfully curated collection of essays poems art and journalistic reportage Gastronomica's fare never fails to nourish us Saveur magazine I am so impressed with this journal It indicates an accuracy and diversity of information and style that will inspire and encourage people to pay attention to what they are eating Alice Waters Food even more than sex is the basis for human relationships and if Brillat Savarin's Tell me what you eat and I will tell you who you are is right Gastronomica The Journal of Food and Culture will enhance your life and improve your relationships with your family and your friends Jacques P pin Gastronomica deserves the food world's attention Paul Levy A food journal of high standards that takes on substantive food issues Patricia Unterman Interacting with so many disciplines Gastronomica will assure a fine intellectual menu and reinvigorate the worlds of food and culture with ever higher standards of scholarship Anne Willan One of my top food favorites from 2008 A delightful study of all things food even those that touch the world of food in a peripheral way The Zest food blog The Tears of Things Peter Schwenger, 2006 We surround ourselves with material things that are invested with memories but can only stand for what we have lost Physical objects such as one's own body situate and define us yet at the same time they are fundamentally indifferent to us The melancholy of this rift is a rich source of inspiration for artists Peter Schwenger deftly weaves together philosophical and psychoanalytical theory with artistic practice Concerned in part with the act of collecting The Tears of Things is itself a collection of exemplary art objects literary and cultural attempts to control and possess things including paintings by Georgia O'Keeffe and Ren Magritte sculpture by Louise Bourgeois and Marcel Duchamp Joseph Cornell's boxes Edward Gorey's graphic art fiction by Virginia Woolf Georges Perec and Louise Erdrich the hallucinatory encyclopedias of

Jorge Luis Borges and Luigi Serafini and the corpse photographs of Joel Peter Witkin However these representations of objects perpetually fall short of our aspirations Schwenger examines what is left over debris and waste and asks what art can make of these What emerges is not an art that reassembles but one that questions what it means to assemble in the first place Contained in this catalog of waste is that ultimate still life the cadaver where the subject object dichotomy receives its final ironic reconciliation Peter Schwenger is professor of English at Mount St Vincent University in Halifax Nova Scotia He is the author of Fantasm and Fiction On Textual Envisioning Letter Bomb Nuclear Holocaust and the Exploding Word and Phallic Critiques Masculinity and Twentieth Century Literature Lichtenstein in New York Mark P. Bernardo, 2017-03-28

Pop Art an entirely new and defiantly American style of painting and sculpture was all the rage among the cultural cognoscenti in the turbulent 1960s and New York City was the unquestioned epicenter of Pop Art No artist embodies this groundbreaking movement more than Roy Lichtenstein the only Pop Artist born in the city and whose life and experiences there inspired much of his most popular and iconic work This book looks at Lichtenstein's life through the lens of New York City taking the reader to the Manhattan that Lichtenstein knew from the Prohibition era through the postwar era and countercultural revolution to the well heeled iconoclasm of the 80s and 90s It is a fascinating biography of a major but sometimes neglected trailblazer of 20th century American art
